CABROL BATTED HARD

Incidentally St. Stephen tried out a new pitcher a Mr. Cabrol from down in New England who was warranted to wear. Fredericton toyed with Cabrol's slants and benders to the tune of thirteen safe hits. Harrington pitched his usual heady game. The few hits made off him were scattered except in the sixth inning. At the bat he was the whole thing leading the locals with three hits.

THOSE DECISIONS

The afternoon's proceedings were greatly enlivened by the umpiring tunts of Mr. James Roberts. Mr. Roberts handed out the most wierd lecisions with the utmost impartialty. The rawest however was when ne called, Johnny Dolan's nice clean nit over third base a foul. Jimmie was in bad with both players and

THE FIRST INNING

The first inning was a dreadful session when Fredericton was at bat. Lindsay in centre-field started things, by dropping Art Finnamore's fly. Brogan hit safely over second base. Frank Hughes walked. George Finnamore hit to Love, who got tangled up with his own feet and everyone was safe and two runs came over the pan. Tom Howe drove the ball into centre-field for a hit scoring Hughes and George Finnamore. Tommy stole ond and scored when Harrington hit to right field.
