Give your servants GOLD DUST to clean with, treat them rightly and you will have few occasions to insert a "help wanted" ad

They say a good workman is known by his tools. You cannot expect your maid to keep everything ship-shape unless you give her every modern help. To keep house without GOLD DUST is to do work by hard, old-fashioned methods. For cleaning everything and anything about the house—from cellar to attic—GOLD DUST is worth its weight in gold. It cuts grease and dirt like magic, does away with scouring and scrubbing, and saves time and tempers.

Your servant can do more and better work and keep sweet with the aid of GOLD DUST in all household cleaning.

DAN McDONALD THREW CARL BUSH IN 28 MINUTES

Perrelli Failed to Show Up—Three Hundred St. John Fans Saw Bout.

St. John, Dec. 5.—Dan McDonald, the Cape Breton wrestler, succeeded in defeating "Cyclone" Carl Bush in a rather short but exciting wrestling bout in the Cecil Theatre Saturday night. The bout only lasted about 28 minutes, but in that time McDonald was able to secure one fall. The hall is not a good place for a wrestling match, and at the end of the bout both wrestlers were considerably bruised and cut up on account of coming in contact with the brick walls.

The match was the first one of a series which will be held here during the winter, and was fairly well attended, about three hundred enthusiastic fans being present. It was after 8 o'clock when Referee Powers called time. McDonald was introduced as the amateur wrestling champion, and Bush as a well-known Boston wrestler. Both men were in the pink of condition, and those present were treated to a real good bout. Bush proved to be a little more wiry than the redoubtable Dan, but the Cape Bretoner won on the lookout all the time and was only in danger of being thrown once or twice. The two men wrestled away for some time and at last McDonald pinned the sturdy Bostonian to the mat in the first fall in exactly 28 minutes. The hold used was a half Nelson.

Both men were cut up quite badly, and Bush refused to wrestle any more unless a suitable mat was secured. As this was not forthcoming, the match ended. Bush, through his manager, Danny Smith, said that he would wrestle McDonald at any time and for any amount of money providing a suitable hall was procured. It is likely that a bout between these two men will take place in the near future.

The bout was advertised to be between McDonald and Perrelli, but the latter was unable to come to St. John on account of his having a sprained wrist. Saturday night's bout was a good one for this season's wrestling exhibitions and if the other bouts which are to take place here during the winter are as good, there is not the slightest doubt but that they will be well patronized.

DIAMOND DUST

Tris Speaker made only four hits off the Athletics' pitchers in the last league season, but was the batting sensation in the series between the All-Stars and Athletics. The Texas speed merchant is about due to lead the country with the stick next season.

Charles Somers and James McGuire of the Cleveland club will be at the meeting in New York this month eager to make a few trades. They would like to interest Pres. John I. Taylor of the Boston club, no doubt with the hope of getting even on that "Cy" Young deal, followed up by the Harry Niles favor.

The Naps have two or three men whom Boston might use to advantage, among them Clarke and our friend Napoleon Lajoie.

William Carrigan, the Boston Red Sox catcher, with Eddie Conway, the umpire, have gone into the cigar business in Lewiston, Me.

The hard-hitting catcher has made no plans for next season. He is simply waiting to hear from headquarters, and is confident of showing up in good shape next spring.

On the way back from the coast next spring the Boston Red Sox will play at Omaha, April 8 and 9. This will be a big occasion for the veteran player Bill O'Rourke, who will give Boston a chance to show off his fine new plant, which workmen started on this week, and will be one of the finest minor league plants in the country.

FRANK MANTELL WON FROM SAILOR BURKE

New York, Dec. 3.—Frank Mantell, battered Sailor Burke badly at the National sporting club in a 10-round bout last night, but the sailor managed to hold his feet long enough to hear the gong clang his release.

Mantell sent Burke nearly to the suppers in the seventh round with two hard hooks to the jaw. Burke was swaying on his feet, but rallied, and by clinching was on his feet when the bell rang.

In the last round the second strand on the ropes saved Burke from going to the mat.

The boxing was slow in the early sessions, but after the third round it was fast and furious.

LOCKE OFFERS TO BUY CONTROL OF BOSTON CLUB

Refuses Harris' Offer of Presidency— Morin Refused Same Offer— Locke's Action Awaited.

Pittsburg, Dec. 3.—"I won't accept the presidency of your club, but I will buy the Boston club's controlling interest from you." This was the answer made by William A. Locke, secretary of the Pittsburg baseball club, to John P. Harris, who has recently assumed the controlling interest of the Boston National league club, and who is looking for a live man to assume the presidency.

Locke was not jesting, as he has the money ready to lay his hands on in a moment to take over the Boston club, and there are strong rumors that Harris may accept Locke's offer, providing he cannot soon find the right man to take the presidency.

The offer of Harris to Locke, while not officially promulgated, since it has been refused, is understood to have been that Locke be allowed to buy a one-sixth interest in the Boston club and take a five-year contract at $6,000 per year.

This, at least, was the offer made to director of public safety, John Morin by Harris, but Morin, too, has refused the proposition, as he cannot see that he will make any money. The director, although a young man, is worth perhaps $150,000, and he is already sacrificing much in a financial way to hold the job of director of public safety. He has announced that his business was worth $10,000 clear profit to him yearly, and evidently it is his intention to return to it as soon as he finished his term of office, which pays him only $5,000 per year. Morin admitted today that he had positively refused to accept the offer of the Boston club presidency.

Since taking over the stock of Mr. Dovey of the Bostons, Harris has received strong intimation that the owning or control of the club by parties outside of Boston, as well as the hint that the leading officers were to come from outside that city, has not been well taken by the fans of Boston.

Should Locke purchase the club's controlling interest, he would at once remove to Boston and remain there.

WOLGAST STICKS TO DATE HE NAMED

Grand Rapids, Mich., Dec. 3.—Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion boxer, in answering the challenge to him issued by Owen Moran, says he wishes it understood that he sets the date for a meeting with Moran so far ahead (Feb. 22 next) only because of his fractured arm, feeling sure that it will by that time have regained its former strength. Wolgast adds:

"It took me too long to reach the top in hard travelling, to risk my title in a contest of less than 30 rounds with some will-o'-the-wisp boxer, who might outpoint me without doing any damage in a short session. And I do not intend to risk it. The man who meets me in a bout to a decision will have to agree to a distance affair."

PUCKERING

The rinks at Ottawa have been flooded. Teams in western Canada have been on the ice for two weeks.

Renfrew has no "angels" this season. The salary limit will not be interfered with in the Creamery Town. Galt Reporter—Yesterday The Globe stated that "pro. hockey in Galt was dead." If that's so it was not poor pay but poor play that killed it.

Earl Gustin of Woodstock has returned to Cleveland, where he will play again this winter. Most of the Cleveland, Detroit and Chicago players are Canadians.

The eastern section of the proposed reconstructed Intercollegiate League, composed of Laval University, Montreal; Laval University, Quebec, and Ottawa College, will be decidedly weaker than the western section, composed of University of Toronto, Queen's and McGill.

The Intercollegiate hockey season, in New England, began Saturday, the games being played on artificial ice at the Boston arena.

ESTABROOK STRING GOES TO DENVER WITH GUS MACEY

Pickles 2.11 1-4 was Added to String on Thursday—Capt. McCann Buys Some Fast Ones.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 3.—Gus Macey left for Denver yesterday with the George H. Estabrook string of 13 trotters and pacers to be campaigned during the coming season, including the pacing mare Pickles, 2:11 1/4, which he bought Thursday of A. E. Hundley of Danville for a long price. She is by Billy Sayre, dam by Regal Wilkes.

Among the most prominent of the other horses are Spanish Queen, C. the Limit, Gold Dollar, Countess Marie, Lily W., Bonnie Russell, Demorist, the pacer Minoro E-E-L, which he recently purchased, two two-year-olds and one yearling. The stable is expected to be one of the most formidable on the big circuit next season.

Capt. J. B. McCann of Portland, Or., who is preparing to race a good stable of trotters the coming season, and who purchased the Bondsman at the New York sale, has bought of J. B. Hall here Sirena S., by the Bondsman, dam Peek-a-boo, Ky Kiser, for $3500. The mare has a wagon record of 2:13 1/4. Capt. McCann shipped a car load of trotters west tonight.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

New York, Dec. 3.—Stanislaus Zbyszko Cienowicz, called Zbyszko for short, threw Tom Jenkins and Andrew Kindriat in less than an hour, and won the feature of the wrestling carnival at Grand Central palace last night. He threw Kindriat in 10 minutes, 38 seconds and Jenkins in 15 minutes and 40 seconds.

RING NOTES

Sandy Ferguson, who has been lying quiet since he returned from Chicago, is now after a match.

N SENSIBLE TORY DISCOVERED AT LAST

(Toronto Globe)
"I don't believe in Nationalism," said Mr. W. D. Earney at the annual meeting of the Borden Club last night "I am a Tory, but had I been down in Drummond and Athabaska I'd have voted for the Laurier candidate. Nationalism should be nipped in the bud. I feel sure that the whip and other prominent men of the Tory party sent a telegram of congratulation to Mr. Gilbert on his election but they had not the nerve or the grit to applaud him in his introduction into the House. I think that is weak Toryism, weak Nationalism, weak Canadianism. And I think the Conservative party has weakened itself making professions of loyalty."

WOULDS BOOST TARIFF WALLS

"If Alderman May had the making of tariff walls, instead of going power they would go higher, so high that there would be no slaughter market here," said Ald. May. "We are big enough, and it is coming fast enough. This is our century and we need not be in a hurry about developing our resources. I believe in Canada for the Canadians—and by that I mean those who have made Canada their adopted country, as well as those who are born Canadians. He ought to manufacture our own materials."

Mr. Earney took issue with Ald. May on the tariff question. He hoped the Yankees would lower their duties to the equivalent of the duties against them set by Canada. There was nothing to fear; we could compete with them; and he would like to see reciprocity.

THE TAXICAB STRIKE IS COSTING SOMETHING

New York, Dec. 2.—The smouldering taxicab strike which seems no nearer settlement today than ever, is estimated to be costing the city about $4,500 a day.

Fifteen hundred policemen are on strike duty and $3 a day is a fair average of their pay. The total cost will run to more than $50,000 already.

The companies are willing to take their chauffeurs back on individual application, but say that they will not deal with them in a body. For their part the men insist on recognition of their union as a preliminary to all negotiations.

WINSTON CHURCHILL A GREAT DEBATER

(London Mail)
Home Rule for Ireland was dealt with by Mr. Churchill in a speech at Islington on Tuesday. He said:

If there is anything wrong in Mr. Redmond asking for or accepting financial aid? Every party has an election fund; $200,000 is not a very heavy election fund. It is very much less than Mr. Balfour has in his pocket for the campaign. It is very much smaller than the enormous funds which have been secretly subscribed by the supporters of the Tariff Reform League.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Premier of Canada, Mr. McBride, Premier of British Columbia—when they subscribe to the Irish fund they are not looking for any return in tariff favors. Their support has been perfectly fair and above-board. The methods by which the Irish party campaign fund has been raised bear comparison with those of any party here or in any country. Because this money has been subscribed to enable Irish Nationalists to use their constitutional rights to contest seats in Ireland which were given them by the Act of Union, you are told that they are beggars, mendicants, hired bullies, who deserve the hatred and contempt of every patriotic man.

Alone among the political parties in the House of Commons the Irish Party seek no office, no title, no favors, and no emoluments. Some of them with parliamentary gifts such as they could not, except in the Irish party, have failed to rise to the highest eminence in the public service, for thirty years they have labored with small resources, with heart-breaking disappointments, with that hope deferred which maketh the heart sick, without taint of personal motive, without thought of private means, for one cause only, the cause which every Englishman who loves freedom and honor and his country should, whatever his opinions for or against Home Rule, treat with respect.

The hour is coming of the reconciliation of the English and the Irish peoples. The sky is already brightening with the promise of the dawn which Mr. Gladstone did not live to see; and in the broad light of the day we shall see Ireland free in all that properly concerns herself, loyal to the Crown, and amid the applause of our colonies, with the heartfelt sympathy of that great English speaking Republic across the water, and to the discomfiture of Every European rival of the greatness of our country, we shall see her with a reviving prosperity take her place, as those brave Boers have done, in the true and indissoluble Union of the British Empire. From such a result a tremendous strengthening of our position in the world would ensue. In your imperial organization, in your foreign affairs, in your domestic policies, you would be swiftly conscious of a notable advantage. All hatreds will fade, all dangers will vanish away. New international friendships will be opened to you which are not open now.

Hong Kong, Dec. 3.—The authorities at Peking today ordered a Chinese flotilla to Macao, where there was a revolt recently in the Portuguese army and navy forcing the governor to make certain concessions including one driving out of the religious orders. The Italian cruiser Calabria has also gone there to protect Italian interests.
