

OH! YOU OVERCOAT!

MR. MAN, the season is coming when you will need one, and if you find that you want one, don't buy until you see the new "Progress".

It has never been shown before here, or anywhere else.

It is no freak, but the most sensible invention yet, and so simple. You get two and three styles of overcoat made up in one, and they are "Progress Brand" which means the best the market for the money and no better for any money.

Come down and let us show you how they work.

Clarke's team is in much better shape than when the Giants were last in Smoke Town. Then the world's champion twirlers were in very bad shape. The fact that they go to New York fresh from a big triumph over the Cubs makes the visitors appear formidable.

Lefty Russell appears a high priced minor leaguer who will not prove a lemon to Connie Mack. Russell has been going like a bear since Philadelphia purchased him for $3,000.

JEFFRIES BOUND FOR AN ASYLUM JOHNSON IS SORRY

Champion Does Not Take Sam Langford Very Seriously—Will Not Fight Him.

New York, Sept. 14.—According to a letter received here from Los Angeles, Cal., Jim Jeffries is run down, both mentally and physically and friends are thinking of having the big fellow sent to a sanatorium. The writer of the letter is a prominent sporting man of the Citrus belt and says he has good inside information that within the next few weeks Jeffries will be recuperating in one of the nearby sanatoriums.

Jack Johnson, the world's champion, who is here fulfilling an engagement at the Theatre Royal this week, when told at the Savoy Hotel about the above despatch, said:

"Well, I'm sorry," he said it as if he meant it.

"I'm afraid," he said "that his defeat surely had a great deal to do with it. I know how I would have felt if I had lost. It probably would not have driven me to an asylum, but if I had occupied the position Jeffries did, and knowing the confidence which people had in my ability, I would have felt pretty badly if I had lost. But perhaps it is not as bad as all that. Would you mind telegraphing to a friend of mine in Los Angeles and finding out how bad it really is?"

He was asked what he thought of Sam Langford, the Canadian colored man, who aspires to be world's champion, he said:

"Langford is a clever fellow, but I can beat him easily, and there is not money enough to make it worth my while to meet it.

"No, I do not think I will be fighting for some time to come. There is no one they can put me up against at present, who would make an interesting match with me. I am going in for the automobile game, I think, and will race Barney Oldfield shortly for ten thousand dollars.

PHILADELPHIA TOMMY RYAN MAY LIVE IN ST. JOHN

Philadelphia "Tommy Ryan" who with his wife has been spending some weeks in St. John, will leave this evening for his home in Des Moines, Iowa. He expects to return to St. John next spring and it is just possible will take up his residence there. At Des Moines he conducts a physical culture school and is meeting with great success.

Tommy in former years made a name for himself in the ring. His name outside the ropes is Finney.

Dan McKettrick of New York says that he has quit being the manager of Willie Lewis because Lewis will not train. Lewis has been too good a money maker for McKettrick to leave him.

COLE AND PHILIPPE LEAD ALL THE BIG LEAGUE PITCHERS

Phillippe Has Had Great Record—Krause Has Come Back—Willett and Donovan Working Well.

Following are the records of the boxmen of the National league leading. The records include Saturday's games. Charley Phillippe tied Cole of the Cubs in percentage last week by a win over the Cincinnati Reds. His record of 12 wins out of 14 games is considered remarkable.

All the Cubs twirlers are pitching swell ball and seem to be going better now than at any time this season. Reulbach has pulled up to fourth place. Pfeister and Overall, however, are not in good condition and it is doubtful if they figure in the world series. Pleister hasn't pitched a full game in weeks and Overall's arm has bothered him.

Ewing, Moore and McQuillan of the Phillies have been doing the best work for that team. Moore got a poor start, but is now pitching ball of the Cole brand. It has been remarked that his work equals that of five and six years ago, when he was a member of the Cleveland team. McQuillan has not been heard from by the Philadelphia club officials for nearly three weeks. The averages:

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Following are the records of the boxmen of the American league leading. Jack Coombs of the Athletics won two games for his team last week and slipped into second place, ousting Russell Ford, who was successful in the only game he pitched. Coombs and Bender have won between them 47 games, or more than half the total number of victories of the Athletics. The pair will do the heavy work in the series with Frank Chance's Cubs.

Willett and Donovan are pitching grand ball for the Tigers, working their hardest to beat out Boston and New York for second place.

MINOR HEIR BROKE WORLD'S PACING RECORD

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 14.—In a special race at the State fair grounds here yesterday, Minor Heir, by Heir-At-Law broke the world's record for a paced mile by going the distance in 1.59.

The previous record 2.00 was set by Minor Heir at Galesburg, Ills., two weeks ago.

TOMMY QUILL GOT DECISION OVER LOUGHREY

Boston, Sept. 13.—Weakened by the hard trimming down to make the required weight of 145 pounds, Tommy Quill of Brockton, and Young Loughrey of Philadelphia, gave but a poor exhibition at the Armory A. C. tonight. Quill was awarded the decision after twelve rounds of tame fighting. It was the seventh battle between the pair. In the preliminaries Young Nadeau, of Lewiston, Mr. boxed a draw with Joe White of South Boston.

Al Kaufman is to be given another easy one to meet. He has been practically matched to box Jim Stewart in Philadelphia.

Krause, who had been doing bench duty for a couple of months, was pressed into service last week against the Red Sox and came out of the fray a victor.

Walter Johnson was stopped by the Athletics last week, after winning six successive games.

FLETCHER STICKS TO HIS NEW LEAGUE STORY

Cincinnati, Sept. 14.—The 38 ball players who signed contracts with the recently proposed All-Stars of the American and National League received their checks in advance and will be permitted to cash the paper. The proposed series financed by Cincinnati capital was killed by a ruling of the National Baseball Commission.

D. A. Fletcher, the promoter of the All-Stars, stated that the players had received the checks in good faith and were not responsible for the failure of the proposition and for that reason no effort will be made to prevent them cashing it.

He denied the rumors of suits against the Commission to recover the money which amounts to almost $30,000, but states the Commission will be ignored and that he will proceed with the organization of a new league the first of the year as he has the necessary capital and playing talent at his disposal.

CLIPPERS WILL PUT IN UNKNOWN TWIRLER

Weather permitting, St. Peter's and Clippers will meet at St. John this afternoon in what may be the final game of the season. Harrington will pitch for the Saiots but the Clippers are to have a new man in the box. He is an unknown and it is said that the Clippers are backing him to win the game for them. George Finnamore is slated to play second for the Clippers with Tom Howe at third. Art Finnamore is not expected to play. Bell, Chase and Lynch being the outfielders "Doc" Gallagher of Moncton will play third base for St. Peter's.

AL WOLGAST MATCHED AGAINST PACKY MCFARLAND

Chicago, Ills., Sept. 13.—Light-weight champion, Al Wolgast and Packy McFarland of Chicago will meet at Milwaukee in a ten round no decision affair on October sixth. The final steps for the match were taken when the principals signed articles with the representatives of the Star Athletic Club of Milwaukee, the organization which proposes to stage the match.

ANDY COAKLEY PUT OUT OF ORGANIZED BASEBALL

Andy Coakley the ex-Chicago National pitcher, who is well known in the Maritime Provinces, has been suspended by the National Commission and cannot get back into organized baseball until reinstated.

A despatch from Cincinnati says: "Pitcher Andy Coakley, formerly of the Chicago Nationals, Louisville, Elmira, N. Y., and other professional baseball teams, has been placed on the ineligible list of organized baseball by the National Commission. The ban is extended to include the Paterson, N. J. team, of which Coakley is member.

The action followed complaints that the New York American and National league teams had played exhibition games with Paterson, an examination of the records showing that Coakley had been suspended by the National association of minor league clubs. Whether he will be restored to good standing is for that body to decide.

PEASLEY AGAIN

Marvin Peasley, a giant southpaw, who hails from the State of Maine, has been added to the roster of Tiger twirlers. He has been pitching for the Woodstock, N. B. club this summer with great success, having a startling record as a strike-out of opposing batsmen. Scout Malachi Kittridge is sponsor for the youngsters.—Boston Post.

MADE PITCHING RECORD

On Monday at Toronto, pitcher Dick Rudolph, of Toronto, who was drafted by the Giants, performed the best twirling stunt of the Eastern League season when he beat Montreal 1 to 0 in twelve innings. Rudolph did not allow a hit until the eleventh inning, and only two singles were made off his delivery. He walked two batters and struck out ten.

BASEBALL NOTES

Hugh Jennings says Connie Mack will have to bolster up the Athletics if he hopes to make any showing against the Cubs. Well, Connie can play nothing but substitutes and make as good a showing as Jennings and his Tigers did either against the Cubs or Pirates. And Jennings had three years to make good at that.—New York American.

Young Mahoney, the Racine middle-weight, has been signed to box in a semifinal bout with Young Edwards at Milwaukee next Friday night.
