TIGERS WORKED TRIPLE AGAINST BOSTON SATURDAY

Giants Still Leading American League--Montreal Again Drops to Bottom in Eastern--Reds Easily Trim Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Detroit, June 18.—Cobb's great running catch which paved the way for a triple play in the fourth inning, marked today's victory of the Detroit Americans over the Boston. With Gardner on first and Stahl on second, Lewis drove the ball on a line toward the corner of the right field bleachers. Cobb, after a hard run, pulled down the ball with a frantic grab and threw to Delehanty, who caught both Stahl and Gardner on the line. The score:

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Philadelphia, June 18.—Today's game here was stopped by a thunder storm in the 9th inning with Cincinnati ahead 7 to 1. Cincinnati knocked Moore and McQuillon off the rubber in the second inning, while Philadelphia could do nothing with Suggs' delivery. Ward was ordered off the

LFW CRIGER SERIOUSLY ILL AT CLEVELAND

Boston, June 19.—Lew Criger whose long engagement with the Boston Americans made him many friends in this city, is ill at Cleveland, where his present club, the New York American is now playing.

Surgeons have diagnosed the veteran catcher's trouble as appendicitis and it is believed an operation will be necessary to relieve him.

Even though Criger escapes the operation at this time, it is probable that he will play no more baseball this year. He has not been well this season, but up to the development of the present trouble manager Stallings the Highlanders had counted that he would be able to get into the game with warmer weather.

CY YOUNG NURSE

Strangely enough, Criger has fallen ill where his old partner Cy Young, now is, and the pitcher has almost constituted himself his attendant, though not in the best of health himself.

Boston will always be sorry when any misfortune befalls Lew Criger or Cy Young. They were a grand pair of players, who served Boston well until business interests seemed to demand that they go elsewhere.

BIG MONEY

When that time came St. Louis and Cleveland stood ready to pay good money for their release $5000 for Criger and $12,500 and two players for Young, each team counting that the man it got was what it needed to win a championship.

That the expectations of St. Louis and Cleveland were not fully realized was not the fault of Criger and Young. They did their best. They were that sort of players when they were in Boston and are that sort of players yet.

TO INTEREST UNITED STATES IN RUGBY

London, June 19.—Negotiations have nearly been completed for sending a combined Oxford-Cambridge varsity team to the United States with a view to re-establishing Rugby football in eastern schools and universities in accordance with the ideas of Theodore Roosevelt, expressed to the students at the Cambridge union, May 26.

Mr. Roosevelt said he wished Americans could learn from Cambridge how to make football less homicidal. He would not have game dropped for anything, he said, but would want it changed to draw the teeth of the mollycoddles, who were always clamoring for the abolition of any manly game.

ST. PETER'S IMPORT COLLEGE PITCHER

St. John, June 20.—St. Peter's announce an imported pitcher is an attraction for their game with St. Joseph's this evening. His name is Harrington, and it is said that he has won thirteen games out of fourteen which he has pitched for Boston College during the present season. He hails from Wakefield, Mass.

PACKY MCFARLAND WON IN LONDON

London, June 19.—Packy MacFarland, of Chicago, knocked out Jack Goldswain, of London, the English welterweight champion, in the third round at the Black Friar's tonight. They fought for a purse of $3,000.

Sherwood Margee still leads the National League sluggers with a batting average of .375.

ENTRIES WILL BE ANNOUNCED SHORTLY

Name of Starter for Curtain Raiser to be Made Known Tomorrow—Half-fax Horses Coming.

The entries for the curtain-raisers of the Maritime Circuit to be held in Fredericton on June 30th and July 1, will be announced within a few days. A good list of entries is expected. Word has been received from Halifax that there will be entries from the Mitchell and Adams stable and also from the stable of Mr. R. H. Edwards. The way things look just now there will be five entries from each stable. It is also likely the name of the gentleman who will act as starter, will be announced tomorrow.

The season so far has been one of the most unfavorable that horsemen have experienced. From all points there are reports of inability to get horses in to condition at the time expected.

LUKEMAN TO RACE KERR AND CLOUGHEN

Toronto, June 18.—Frank Lukeman the Montreal sprinter, has wired stating that he was prepared to run a special series of races with Bobby Kerr and Cloughen, the New York crack. Lukeman has had some trouble with a bad knee, injured in the relay race at the Eaton games, but says it is in good shape again. Arrangements are being made to pull off the matched events at the island within the next couple of weeks. Several well known authorities on track affairs who saw the eastern sprinter run at the Eaton games expect to see him defeat both Kerr and Cloughen in the hundred. He has not much chance in the 220 event however.

BOXING GOSSIP

Soldier Burns and Frank Loughrey will box in Baltimore June 24. Tom Kennedy, the ex-amateur champion, and Jim Stevenson will box in New York June 27.

Mr. Lemoine of Webster and Frank Peron have been matched to box in Southbridge June 30.

Young McDonough and Bubbles Robinson have been matched again to box in Manchester, N. H. June 21.

Young Josephs, welterweight champion of England has agreed to meet Haery Lewis in London June 27. The bout between Pal Moore and Tommy O'Toole, which was scheduled to take place in Philadelphia July 4, has been called off.

Jack (Twin) Sullivan is getting in good shape for his bout with Bill Papke at the Armory A. A. Tuesday night. The big swine feels confident he will surprise the fans.

Billy Clark, the Belfast Chicken and Jim Mace, ex-world's champion, fought a four-round draw in New York 30 years ago. The chance that they may meet again as a preliminary to the Jeffries-Johnson bout is slim, as promoter Rickard has his hands full pulling off the big event.

Billy Papke, who will meet Jack ("Twin") Sullivan in the main bout at the Armory A. A. Tuesday night, arrived in town Friday night to complete his training here.—Boston Globe

DIAMOND DUST

Pitcher Dubec of the Buffalo Eastern League baseball team was robbed at Rochester of a gold watch and chain presented to him by Cincinnati fans.

Rochester Herald—President Powers of the Eastern League, while in town yesterday, said that he was investigating Toronto's protest of the games played by McMillan for Rochester, and that evidence was about all in, and a decision may be looked for shortly. So far the league's president has yet to recover information of any direct attempt on the part of the local club to do wrong, and there does not appear a likelihood of the games being thrown out.

Umpire Bill Klem of the National league has discarded the broom brush for dusting off the home plate. Mr. Klem now grooms the plate with a curry-comb.

Charley Comiskey says his new park will be opened on July 1, without fail.

French, the ex-Red Sox, has helped out the White Sox. The kid is a game one, sure enough.

Billy Sullivan, the White Sox catcher, is back with the team and about ready to take his turn behind the etick.

Extra inning games are more numerous this season than ever, showing that the teams are more evenly matched.

The Boston Nationals will go to Philadelphia Monday for five straight games on as many days, these not including the two games that the Doves and Phillies have to play off in Quakertown.

WHAT TO DO WITH KITCHENER

(Montreal Herald)

Most Englishmen probably feel that if Germany had a soldier of Kitchener's reputation he would be found in the highest post in the military service. Nobody goes so far as to condemn the British authorities for not hoisting Kitchener into the most important post and giving him scope for his talents, but there is a feeling that there is something wrong with a system under which any other recourse is possible. The big posts are all held by men who are either Kitchener's subordinates or by men of office-holding families who do not rate with him at all. It is rather curious how stubbornly Great Britain sticks to the theory that her best blood is better than her best brain. The good offices go to the good families. When the South African war opened it was the good families that supplied the generals. Society had been torn for years in a struggle for possession, and jealousy rankled long after the series of disasters began. It was generally understood to be quite a difficult matter to get Roberts and Kitchener appointed, although they were very obviously the men for the work. When the war was over they came back to England and were idolized for a season. Roberts was made for a time to feel that he was the real head of the army. This lasted about a year, and then one morning he learned that the army was in charge of an aristocratic board, that his desk at the War Office was needed and that there was nothing for him to do but pick up his hat and cane and say good day to his near assistants. If that had been in Germany something of the same might have happened, but Kitchener would have been on the new board, and the old soldier would have been satisfied that the younger one had stepped up. But neither then nor since has there been place for Kitchener at the top, where he belongs. And there isn't yet.

THE COMING VACATION

(Richard Linthicum)

The erstwhile joys of vacations time Appeal to me no more;
There is no charm in a mountain clime
Nor lure in the cool seashore;
No more to the woods and the cabin snug
Will I go, as in days gone by,
For I'm getting to be an arial 'bug'
Since I saw Curtiss fly.

About this time, as the days grow hot,
It was my dearest wish
To sit by a brook in a shady spot
And angle the wary fish,
Or else for a European trip
I hopelessly would sigh—
But give me instead the swift airship
That navigates the sky.

Once there was a time when I loved a wheel,
But that was long ago,
And I passed it up for an automobile
Because it was too slow;
Now autos and bikes excite my mirth
A vacation's drawing nigh—
I want to get clear off of the earth
And spend mine in the sky.
