BOXING NOTES

Sam Langford and Tommy Burns may box in Reno instead of England. Rickard is after the bout and if McIntosh, who is expected back from England soon, declares that he cannot pull it off in England, Rickard will sign the boxers.

Sandy Ferguson is having a fine time with George Little in Philadelphia. Judging from the way Little is spending money on Sandy he must feel that he has a boxer who will defeat Jack Johnson. The only one who has that opinion is Little.

The Armory A. A. will open the season Aug. 23rd, with Harry Lewis and Leo Houck, of Lancaster, Penn., in the star bout. The local fans know the ability of Lewis, and, though Houck showed here only once, they figure him a good boxer. He made a big hit here and the members of the club have been anxious to see him in the ring again with some good boxer. Lewis will make him show all he knows about the sport.—Boston Globe.

RING NOTES

McIntosh has great faith in Bill Lang, the Australian heavyweight, making good. The tale will be told when Lang meets Al Kaufman in New York tonight. If Kaufman should trim him easily it will mean back to Australia for Lang, or if he

The Chelsea strong boy, Sandy Ferguson who is in Philadelphia letting himself be chaperoned for good reasons by George Little, the former manager of Johnson has entered the field. He is after a match with Kaufman and Little offers to back him for a good sum. Little had better tie a string around his bank roll and not make any bad wagers.

MOOSEPATH RACES ARE CALLED OFF

St. John, Aug. 16.—The horse races which were to have been held at Moosepath on Friday and Saturday next, under the auspices of the Gentlemen's Driving Club of this city, have been called off on account of the inability of the club to secure enough entries. A purse of $1,200 was offered, but this did not seem to be sufficient inducement to get the horsemen to come here. Only sixteen entries were received, and the management did not consider these sufficient to warrant them holding the meet.
