HOW CANADA GROWS UNDER LAURIER

While Mr. Borden and his satellites are stumping the country in a vain endeavor to persuade the people that their affairs are not being properly attended to by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues, the public press, and particularly that portion of it which is more especially devoted to the collection of statistics, is full of accounts of the enormous expansion and development of public business. The total volume of Canadian trade has now reached no less a total than $60,000,000 a month. During the last year of Tory government—1896—it was $239,000,000; so that the country now does in four months more trade than was done under the party of which Mr. Borden is now the leader, in a whole year.

Further evidence of the growth of the country is the tremendous increase in building which is now going on on all sides. In eighty-two of the principal cities last year, the value of the buildings erected is $85,000,000, an increase over the previous year of no less than fifty per cent. This, it should be noted, was the year after Sir Wilfrid and his colleagues had been given a new lease of power, and is pretty good evidence of the confidence which the people felt that under his guidance of public affairs, continuous prosperity may be looked for.

The number of immigrants to Canada last year was 208,000, of whom 95,371 came from the neighboring republic, bringing $19,000,000 with them and since the time when Sir Wilfrid Laurier first took up the administration of the country's affairs in 1896, so great is the confidence in his wisdom and integrity, that no fewer than 425,000 Americans have crossed the border and taken up their permanent abode in this country, believing that under his directing hand the opportunities afforded by Canada are infinitely superior to those afforded in their own land. The amount of capital these settlers brought with them is estimated at no less than $85,000,000.

On every hand evidence of prosperity is to be found, such as Canada never knew before Sir Wilfrid came into power. Nero fiddled while Rome burned; and while Canada grows under Laurier, Borden can find nothing better to talk about than the Richibucto wharf.

MR. FOSTER'S POSITION

Even in the Liberal party which has no reason to love Mr. Foster and his criticism of it in the past, there will be more or less of a feeling that he is receiving very shabby treatment at the hands of his old associates. Mr. Foster was doing yeoman service for his party when a good many of the men who are now his detractors were in short clothes, and who now that his health is impaired, want him out of the way. Mr. Foster's record may not be such as to commend itself to many people, but when his motives and conduct in connection with the Foresters' funds were under discussion, his party then spared no efforts in an attempt to prove that the reports then in circulation with regard to him were nothing more than base calumnies. Yet today his greatest foes are the men of his own household. While not mentioning him by name, they are casting nasty insinuations. For instance, what could be more pointed than this: "When Mr. Borden is called upon to form a cabinet we shall require from him that it shall contain no man whose record is tainted. No matter how eminent his services to the party may have been in the past. No Conservative party can afford to carry any man who has used time or money to his own advantage, that he owed to the business in which he was employed or from the management of a company to promote his own interests. The Conservative party have carried that burden too long."

These remarks were made at Mr. Borden's meeting on Tuesday.

Coupled with this are eulogistic references to ex-Judge Doherty, who has stepped down from the Bench to take Mr. Foster's place. He is ostentatiously hailed everywhere as "an honest man, whose public and private actions are prompted by the highest ideals."

Such is Tory gratitude for services rendered. Poor Mr. Foster!

THE GROWTH OF TEMPERANCE

The statement emanating from Glasgow, in regard to the consumption of alcoholic beverages in the Dominion will be read with satisfaction by every one interested in the spread of temperance in Canada. From a perusal of that despatch it will be seen that at the World's Women's Christian Temperance Union Convention at Glasgow recently it was stated that for a country where the liquor trade was licensed, there was less drink consumed in Canada than in any other country in the world where similar legislation prevailed.

Undoubtedly temperance principles are gradually making their way not only in Canada but in nearly all civilized countries proof of this having received surprising confirmation in the United Kingdom during the last few years. But few would have supposed that the Dominion occupied the favorable position that the Glasgow statement asserts it does.

'SOLID MEAT'

Standard: One thing has been noticeable throughout the tour and that is the advance made by Mr. Borden as a campaign speaker. More of the lighter touches have been in evidence and while the solid meat has been served up there has been a sparkling "aperatif" to precede it.

Yesterday at Trenton Mr. Borden was shaking hands with a little tot of six years who gave him a flower.

"Is your father a Conservative my dear," asked Mr. Borden.

"No sir, he's a baker," lisped the little one.

Is this the "aperatif" or the "solid meat?"

The Ottawa Free Press notes that of a total wheat production last year of 166,844,000 bushels, the farmers of the Dominion are still holding 18.28 per cent., or nearly 30,500,000 bushels. The farmers of the prairie provinces hold 18.90 per cent of their last year's wheat yield, or more than 26,600,000 bushels. At an average of a dollar a bushel the farmers thus have the equivalent of a cash balance in the banks of some $30,500,000. The farmer provides the best of proof of the country's prosperity under Laurier.

Toronto Globe: And now it seems that Mr. Doherty accompanies Mr. Borden not so much for what he says as for what he is. The News tells us that "which Mr. Doherty on the platform with the leader of the Opposition it is not so easy to represent the Conservative party of Ontario as a league of Orange bigots consumed with hatred of Roman Catholics and French-Canadians." It most assuredly required some decided action to counteract the effect of The News anti-Quebec campaign.

The house fly is a menace of advancing portentousness, and if the inventory of his load of germs is further prolonged all unarmed citizens will feel inclined to rush for safety on his approach or appearance. From a simple annoyance on the bald spot this insect has developed under the enlightenment of science into a menace to the human race.

The Moncton Transcript points out that much of the credit of the success of the gas and oil discoveries in Albert and Westmorland is due to Mr. Mathew Lodge, Secretary of the N. B. Petroleum Company. But after all is said and done, it was Mr. Emerson who first drew attention to the mineral wealth of these countries, in the campaign of 1899.

The keepers of the statistics see the foreign trade of Canada at over a billion dollar a year inside the next two or three years. Well, it's a lot of money but we shall just have to brace up and try to hold it there says the Montreal Herald.

Mrs. Josiah Wood, of Sackville, is in the city.

DEATH OF DR. LEWIS OF HILLSBOROUGH AFTER NOTABLE CAREER

Hillsboro, N. B., June 22.—Dr. W. J. Lewis, ex-M. P. for Albert, died at his home in Hillsboro tonight at ten o'clock after a lengthy illness. He had been in poor health for three or four years and for the past year was unable to leave the house.

He was the best known man in Albert and well known in the Province and Dominion, having sat many years in the local legislature, and also sat in the House of Commons two terms. He was first elected to the House of Commons in 1896 and was re-elected in 1900, defeating Dr. R. C. Weldon at both elections.

Dr. Lewis was in the eightieth year of his age and practised medicine in Hillsboro, his native place, for fifty years. He ran more elections than any man in the country and was very successful, never being beaten on more than one or two occasions for the legislature. He was a son of the late Hon. John Lewis, whose ancestors emigrated from Wales to New York, about 1730. Deceased had a large circle of relatives in the country. Dr. John T. Lewis and John L. Peck, banker, Hillsboro, are nephews. He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Steeves, daughter of the late Richard Steeves, and sister of Archie Steeves, Hillsboro. His second wife was Miss Duffy, sister of the late Robert J. Duffy, of Moncton, who, with one daughter, survive him. The funeral will probably be Saturday or Sunday.

The Finance Committee of the City Council met this morning and discussed the matter of making an arrangement for the collection of taxes during the absence from the city of Mr. Hedley Vanwart the collector. The city treasurer was authorized to negotiate with the Deputy Sheriff to make collections on a commission basis. It was expected that Mr. Vanwart will be absent some weeks.

The committee also made preliminary arrangements for the issue of street debentures.

ENJOYABLE OUTING.

Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Dibblee returned last evening from a week's fishing trip to Skiff Lake. They caught a large number of nice trout, and several land locked salmon. Mr. Dibblee reports big game very plentiful in that locality and it is a matter of surprise to him that more sportsmen do not go there. During his sojourn at the lake he saw no less than nine moose, several of them very large ones.

$375 FOR A COLT

Chatham World: If Mr. W. B. Snowball had not been born into a manufacturing and mercantile business he might have been famous as a horse breeder and dealer. He bought a colt in Napan one day at the owner's price, fed it, and trained it for a couple of months, and sold it for $200 more than it cost, and the Napan man has never forgiven him for making so much on his colt. He sold a colt of his own raising last week to Torbrook, Jr., for $375 to Mr. J. J. S. Hachey of Bathurst. The horse has a record of 2.27½ and has speeded a quarter at a 2.22 gait. Mr. Hachey bought him for his own driving.
