WHAT PRESIDENT LYNCH
SAID TO UMPIRES
President Lynch at a meeting of Nation League umpires, remarked:
"The Honorable Charles E. Hughes, appointed to the Supreme Court of the United States by President Taft, will deliver no decisions of greater immediate moment to the public than those you will be called to make on every afternoon of holding court. Moreover, your task is relatively more exhausting, since it will not be a mental strain alone you are to face. While the justice is sitting in judgment, you will be obliged to stand with a possible recess of half a minute between innings.
"Finally, while the august bench may reverse its decisions should it so desire, yours are made for all time and there can be no second hearing.
It will be impossible to open any game at the beginning for a fresh trial in case of exceptions to your verdicts."

WALTER COX WILL TRY EXPERIMENT

To Buy Trotters Ready to Race--His Pacers are Prepared for Anything--Fine String.

Walter Cox, one of the few trainers who follow the big line from early summer until late fall to get his stable ready in the north, has upward of 30 horse kind at his spring training ground, the Dover, N. H., track, and Walter and his assistants, Bert Yeaton and Frank Monohan, are working from sunrise to sunset developing speed.
The New Hampshire reinsman is rather shy on trotters of grand circuit calibre, but he has a band of pacers that can be counted upon to be decidedly dangerous out in the roughest waters. Last year he left home with as good a lot of trotters as any trainer had, but death and injuries put this section of his stable into a bill of expense, and this season he is going to try the experiment of buying trotters ready to race. He has orders in plenty, but it will take some pretty slick talking to sell him a trotter much before race day.
Bisa, 2:13 1/2, has been entered some.
In this handsome daughter of Bingara he knows he has a trotter of the highest type if she remains sound, but while there is nothing to indicate a return of the trouble which ruined her career last summer, Cox is only hopeful that she will take the word as fit as he would like to have her.
Melva J., 2:10 1/2, the daughter of Peter the Great, who won three races at Lexington, is stouter than ever and is counted as being rather useful in her class.
Followers of the stable are divided regarding the pacers, Aileen Wilson, 2:02 1/2; Asa Wilkes, 2:09 1/2, and Barn-ham Baughman, 2:24 1/2, being the causes of some very heated discussions which their trainer never indulges in.

FIVE ROUNDS ENOUGH FOR HIM

New York, N.Y., May 3--Flv rounds, was all that Al Benedict of West Hoboken could stand in a bout with Jack Twin Sullivan of Boston before the Marathon A.C. in Brooklyn. The bout was to have gone ten rounds but the beating Benedict received caused his backers to ask the referee to allow him to leave the ring at the end of the fifth.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RELEASES.

Chicago, Ill., May 3--The following releases from the American baseball league were announced today by President B. Johnson. By New York to Toronto, R. Carroll; to Montreal, to Madden; to Jersey City, to Johnson.

DIFFICULTY SETTLED
BIG RACE TOMORROW

Relations Between Tom Trenholm and Ramblers Executive were Strained-- Corkery May Run Other Races.

Amherst, N. S., May 3.--That there is no disguising the fact that the relations between Trenholm, who has been training Cameron, and the Ramblers executive have been strained.
Cameron was anxious and willing to run, but he felt that after what Trenholm had done for him he should not run without his consent.
The withdrawal of Cameron from the field would have spoilt the interest in the race on Thursday.
A conference was arranged this afternoon and the matter amicably settled. The three entries are Corkery, Cameron and Horseman.
O'Rourke and Corkery are making many friends in Amherst. O'Rourke stated that he would try and have a few more races in the provinces before the return to Toronto.

HANS HOLMER MAKES
NEW 15-MILE RECORD

Saturday night at Buffalo Hans Holmer won the 15-mile running race in championship style at the 74th Regiment Armory, defeating one of the greatest fields of distance, and broke the world's record for the distance. Behind came Frank Nebrich, the Buffalo boy, running a surprising race against the cracks opposite him and a full lap behind Nebrich was Percy Sellen, the Canadian. Holmer's time was 1:21.00 4-5, against the world's record of 1:21.24 1-2, made by Meadows in Madison Square Garden, New York.
Meadows' pace caused the veterans to shake their heads, and that it was one he couldn't hold was proven by later developments. However, he ran a corking race up to the seventh mile, when he started to come back, and Holmer and Nebrich, catching him at the ninth mile, passed him. From this time he slowed down, perceptibly, and when Holmer and the Buffalo boy lapped him in the later stages of the 13th mile, he dropped out, worn by the killing pace he had set in the early stages.

IN THE RING.

Three offers have been made for return match between Sam Langford and Stanley Ketchel. The offers are from the Armory A.A. of Boston, the Pacific A. C. of Los Angeles and Jimmy Coffroth's arena at Colma, Cal. The Boston club would like to get the bout, but the chances are 100 to 1 that it will go to California.
Frank Klaus has gone to Hot Springs to begin light training for his battle with Bill Papke at Colma, Cal., early in June.

HERE AND THERE.

The Marathon Cup, won by Cameron at Boston, is 28 inches in height, with a diameter of 14 inches.
The body of the cup is of handsomely polished copper, with pewter trimmings and handles. On the front of the trophy is a large silver shield bearing an inscription commemorative of Cameron's feat, surmounted by a golden-horned unicorn, the insignia of the B. A. A.
It would seem as if "Sandy" Ferguson, the Moncton pugilist, was to appear as an "amateur." The Ottawa Citizen has the following:
"By the way, Cassidy was lucky that 'Con Brown' would not meet him in the preliminary bouts of the C. A. A. U. boxing championships, pulled off in Toronto. It now develops that 'Brown' is Sandy Ferguson, a well-known Yankee heavyweight professional. He refused to go on because enough money could not be bet on Cassidy to make it worth while."
Jim Corbett has cut out his theatrical engagements so as to get ready to train Jim Jeffries. He had intended to play in Winnipeg, but after thinking the matter over he came to the conclusion he would not be fit right after the engagement to work with Jeffries. He has left Boston for New York, and will work in a gymnasium there for about 20 days and then journey to California to Jeffries' training camp.

BOXING NOTES.

Joe Grim, the human punching bag of Philadelphia, who has been in Australia for more than a year, has arrived in England looking for matches Jim Driscoll, the English featherweight champion, who boxes Abe Attell in San Francisco, July 2, will sail for this country next Wednesday.
Lew Powell and George Memsie, who met several weeks ago in California, will meet again in Los Angeles, May 14.
Battling Nelson, who will most likely be champion Ad Wolgast's next opponent over the marathon route, begins an engagement this afternoon at a Boston theatre. Nelson is anxious for the match, for he still believes he can regain the title. After Nelson has filled a few theatrical engagements, he is going to New Mexico to rest for a few months.
