FORGETFULNESS COMES HIGH

While many strange facts were brought to light by the Opposition members of the Public Accounts Committee at the last session of the Legislature, one of the most astounding was in connection with the expenditure of $1,400 on a Gloucester County bridge. Letters were read in the committee from the head officials of the Public Works Department showing that this expenditure had been made absolutely without authority. Fourteen hundred dollars belonging to the people were expended without any departmental sanction. Finally, after much questioning, the Opposition members of the committee were able to bring to light the fact that the outlay had been made merely on the 'verbal authority' of the Chief Commissioner, Hon. Mr. Morrissey. Surely, that was bad enough—the spending of $1,400 without any recommendation from the engineers of the department. But the case was shown to have been much worse by the admission of Mr. Morrissey that after he had given the orders for the work he forgot all about them!

Fourteen hundred dollars wilfully spent on the verbal authority of a minister without the advice of the engineers. Fourteen hundred dollars spent and the orders authorizing the expenditure forgotten by the man who gave them. Fourteen hundred dollars would represent many barrels of flour, a great deal of meat, large quantities of other provisions were this sum placed in the hands of a New Brunswick working man. But Hon. Mr. Morrissey, one of the economical, careful, prudent Hazen ministers, a man who voted to increase his own salary by $400 a year—this gentleman gives 'verbal authority' for work to be done at a cost of $1,400 and then forgets all about it! Truly, the people of New Brunswick are to be congratulated on having as one of their ministers such a man as this.

"SANITARIUM" AND "SANATORIUM"

The words "sanitarium" and "sanatorium" are popularly understood to have the same meaning, and are generally used interchangeably when designating (or describing) places of refuge for sick people, but there is, in fact, quite a distinction between the meaning of the two words. In answer to a correspondent on this subject The Literary Digest says: "The distinction between these two words lies in the fact that they are derived from two different Latin roots. "Sanatorium" is derived from the late Latin sanatorium, meaning health-giving. The term relates specially to "an institution for treatment of disease or care of invalids; especially an establishment employing natural therapeutic agents or conditions peculiar to the locality, or some specific treatment or treating particular diseases." On the other hand, "sanitarium" is derived from the Latin sanitas, from same, meaning whole, or sound "Sanitarium" relates more specifically to "a place where the hygienic conditions are preservation of health, as distinguished from one where therapeutic agencies are employed." Hence it is the province of a "sanitarium" to preserve health, and that of a "sanatorium" to restore it. Care should be exercised in combining the proper vowels in these two words, in order to indicate correctly the derivation."

Moncton Transcript—The Tories and the Rebels in Quebec have formed an alliance to down Laurier. The descendants of the Tory mob which rotten egged a Governor General of Canada and burned the parliament buildings at Montreal, because of the adoption of conciliatory legislation after the Lyon-MacKenzie and Papineau rebellion are now politically allied with the descendants of the men who dies on the scaffold or shouldered a rifle in the short-lived rebellion. And why? Merely to down Sir Wilfrid Laurier because he is too British for the Nationalists and too French for the Tories. It is enough to make Mr. Bourassa's patriotic grandfather Papineau, turn over in his grave.

The Chatham World in referring to the rumor that Premier Hazen is being urged by some of his supporters to make an early appeal to the people, says:

"There's nothing in it. Mr. Hazen isn't fresh enough to go to the people on a proposal that a large sum of money be spent for one section of the province. Many might endorse, after the fact, an expenditure they wouldn't vote for in advance. Never make a sectional matter a general issue, says the politician's handbook of maxims."

(The genial Commodore should not forget that the present premier is a "weak-kneed, back boneless leader" and is liable to do the wrong thing at the wrong time.

REBELLIOUS MOVEMENT NIPPED IN THE BUD

Lima, Peru Nov. 1.—By the arrest of the leaders today, the government nipped in the bud a rebellious movement that appeared to have been planned quite thoroughly. At Suco a city of 30,000 in the department of Cuzco, 30 miles from Chital, a plot was uncovered that provided for simultaneous uprisings at different places throughout the republic.

The organizers were soon in custody and the government adopted other measures to ensure tranquility.

SETTLEMENT LOOKED FOR A PITCHED BATTLE

New York, Nov. 1.—The first disorder occurred on Madison Avenue when a reserve squad of police started to disperse a mob of 300 men who were attacking an American Express wagon. A pitched battle began. Broken bottles, stones and other handy missiles flew through, and the big night sticks of the blue coats came into play. The strike sympathizers in a few minutes took to their heels, leaving three of their comrades in the hands of the police.

The Interboro "Ok" Company, New York Transfer and Dodd's Express drivers and helpers, joined the strikers at noon.

The express companies gave further protection to their drivers today by equipping the fronts of the wagons with wire screens, behind which the drivers sat with the police. The reins passed through a small hole in the screen.

Fifty delivery boys and helpers employed by a large uptown department store, went out on strike today while the drivers and helpers of a west side warehouse also quit work.
