IRISH DOMINICANS MAY REMAIN IN PORTUGAL

Other Religious Orders to be Expelled—Lisbon Becoming Quiet and Orderly—British Royal Yacht for Deposed Sovereigns.

Lisbon, Oct. 11.—Although the city remains under martial law, pending a reorganization of the administration the soldiers have been gradually withdrawn from the streets. Hardly any were to be seen today. The people have resumed their business occupations and perfect tranquility prevails. Several churches were reopened this morning. Guards have been supplied to those establishments of the religious orders, which are still occupied and flying foreign flags to prevent possible attacks. The papal nuncio, Monsignor Tonti, has hoisted the Austrian flag over his residence, at Cintra, but there was no sign today of hostile demonstrations.

The government has announced that the Irish Dominican fathers and nuns, who have conducted a school here for many years, will be exempted from the order of expulsion. This step, doubtless, is due to the desire of the Republicans to keep on good terms with Great Britain.

It is said that Foreign Minister Machado has requested Great Britain to grant immediate recognition to the new regime, ostensibly so that it will be in a position to communicate with the British government to its full programme.

CASUALTIES SMALL

The casualty list from the recent fighting falls below the most moderate of previous estimates. The official estimate gives the number killed as between 100 and 150. Unofficial estimates place the number still lower. One of the plans attributed to the organizers of the revolution was to bring off the coup d'etat on Oct. 5, when King Manuel was visiting the premier in the northernmost province of the kingdom. It was arranged that the train bearing the king should continue to the frontier, and the soldiers there were to prevent the king from re-entering Portugal. In the meantime, the ministers who would have assembled in a body at the station at Lisbon to see the king off, were to be surrounded and arrested after the departure of the train. The republic was then to be proclaimed. The provisional government has taken possession of the houses of several religious bodies. Little opposition was met with. The contents were inventoried and the houses sealed. It has been decided to issue a decree enforcing compulsory military service.

REVOLUTION SUCCESSFUL

Washington, Oct. 11.—A cablegram from Commander Luby of the protected cruiser Des Moines, which arrived at Lisbon on Sunday, contained the only official advice on the situation in Portugal received by either the state or navy departments today. "The revolution seems to be absolutely successful," cabled Commander Luby. "All orderly business is being pursued as if nothing had taken place. There is, however, considerable feeling against the Jesuits, who are to be expelled. There is no further necessity of cabling, as a full report is coming by mail. The only official intercourse with the new government was to return boarding calls."

REMARKABLE ADDRESS BY SIR GEORGE W. ROSS

In Eighty Minutes he Covers the Whole Field of Canadian History and Explains the Significance of Events.

(Toronto Globe)

Within the compass of an eighty minutes address, delivered at the hundred-men banquet of the Bloor Street Presbyterian Men's Bible Class last night, Sir George W. Ross traversed the whole field of Canadian history, traced the constitutional development of the Dominion, discussed the influence of the racial element in the evolution of the country, and supplemented a most comprehensive and illuminating survey of these formative forces with chapters on the religious currents in Canadian history; the geography of the country, the relations of the Dominion to the mother country, and literature.

The address was a masterly compendium of all that has gone to make Canada what she is today and showed Sir George's wide range of knowledge, his grasp of political movements and his ready command of dates and their significance, while it was enlivened by flashes of humor and illumined by racy comment.

His subject was "What Every Canadian Should Know," and Sir George's first suggestion was that they should know everything about Canada beginning with Cabot's discovery in 1497, he showed how Canada grew by further discovery and by rights of occupation and outlined its constitutional evolution. He pointed out that Canada had had in the 150 years of its history as many forms of government as England had had in 800 or 900 years, having developed through various stages from a military despotism to the plenitude of responsible government.

Sir George called particular attention to the concessions of the Quebec Act of 1774, noting the historical parallel with the Union Act of Scotland of 1707, and touched upon the constitutional Act of 1791, tracing the evolution from government by council to representative government and from representative government to responsible government. The development of Canada's treaty-making powers was then outlined and, the fact, emphasized that it was only within recent years that the full right of self-government had been granted to the Dominion. Canadians ought to know everything, said Sir George, by which they had risen to the great privileges of citizenship enjoyed today, and they should honor the names and memories of those men who struggled for advance often in adversity in order to achieve the full fruition of the liberties that Canadians now possessed.

The trend that had been given to Canadian history by the racial element was then taken up by Sir George and this was followed by an interesting sketch of some of the religious currents that had made Canadian life what it is.

Sir George urged Canadians to store their memories with chronological facts, to study the relations of Canada with the mother country and familiarize themselves with the geography of the country, and he emphasized the importance of a knowledge of literature in its highest and best forms.

N. B. SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION MEETING AT WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 11.—The annual session of the N. B. Sunday School Association opened here this afternoon. The meetings are being held in the United Baptist church and the attendance promises to be very large. Among those present are Rev. G. M. Campbell, Rev. W. C. Ross, Rev. Mr. Ganong, E. R. Machum, W. A. Brown, G. Farnham. The afternoon session was devoted to elementary work with addresses by Rev. W. A. Ross, the new field secretary; W. A. Brown, and Mrs. W. C. Matthews. The convention promises to be one of the best in the history of the association. In addition to addresses by W. A. Brown, the international representative, the Rev. Dr. Campbell will deliver a series of addresses, Bishop Richardson will address the association.

Wallace Blackie, of this town, shot a large black bear not far from town a little after dark last evening. Bears have been reported very plentiful near the outlying settlements, the poor feeding in the woods driving them to the orchards and pastures.

SUPREME COURT TO PASS ON POWER OF PARLIAMENT

Dominion Government's References Re Fishery Legislation Will be Considered.

Ottawa, Oct. 11.—In the Supreme Court today Wallace Nesbitt, K. C., on behalf of the Provinces of Ontario, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Manitoba and Alberta, moved to quash the references made by the Dominion Government, and now pending, in relation to legislation respecting fisheries, insurance, and the incorporation of companies, on the ground that the British North America Act did not authorize parliament to constitute a Dominion court for the purpose of answering abstract questions on matters of that kind, the answers to which in any event, would be academic and perhaps dangerous and prejudicial to civil rights.

Lafleur, K. C., appeared on behalf of the Provinces of Quebec and British Columbia, and intimated that they had consented to the reference in regard to fisheries and were anxious for a resolution respecting them and he also applied on behalf of the All-Canada Insurance Federation for leave to appear, file a factum and be heard on the merits of the reference respecting insurance.

Aime Geoffroy, K. C., appeared for the province of Quebec in regard to the insurance reference and stated that that province was anxious to have the matter submitted.

The motion was opposed by Newcombe, K. C., and Mulvey, K. C.

An application was made by Mr. Wegenast, asking that the Canadian Manufacturers Association should be allowed to appear on the hearing of the merits and file a factum. The motions on behalf of the All-Canada Insurance Federation and the Canadian Manufacturers Association were granted.

After consideration, the majority of the court was of the opinion that the court had jurisdiction to hear and decide the differences.

Upon this decision being announced Nesbitt, K. C., asked that the hearing of the references upon the merits should not be pressed on for the present, as it was in the contemplation of the provinces, represented by him, that they should apply to the judicial committee of the privy council for special leave to appeal from the decision of the court that they had jurisdiction to entertain the questions referred to them in the references made by the Dominion government, in so far at least as affected the provinces on behalf of which the objection to the jurisdiction was taken. The delay was allowed.

TARIFF INSURGENCY IN WESTERN CANADA

(Toronto Globe)

An ostrich with its head in the sand is wise and prudent as compared with the political leader or political writer who shuts his eyes to the insurgency in western Canada against high protective tariffs. The advocates and beneficiaries of protection both in Canada and in England are engaged in the silly business of mocking at the farmers of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. They declare in superior tones, as becometh privileged persons, that the voice of western Canada is of no importance. Men like Colonel Geo. T. Denison in Toronto and the Northcliffe line of journals in England scorn the spokesmen of the agricultural industry. They say the words of the West to Sir Wilfrid Laurier a few weeks ago were vain and foolish. They may even doubt that such words were ever spoken. And so with their heads in the sand these ostrich-minded guides of public opinion affect to be at peace.

If these good men would read the signs of the times they would not behave as blind leaders of the blind. The Conservative journals in western Canada being witnesses, the tide of insurgency against burdensome tariff privileges is rising steadily and ominously all the way from Lake Superior to the Rockies. There is not a newspaper of public importance in all that area that offers positive defence for the "adequate protection" in eastern Canada. Indeed the rage and fury into which an old-time Tory organ like The Winnipeg Telegram lashes itself over this question, its reasonless gnashing of The Globe, and its sudden awakening to what it calls the "organized robbery" practised under the tariff are proof that in the wide district served by the chief Conservative journal in the prairie provinces Mr. Edward Gurney's "tariff as high as Haman's gallows" cannot with prudence be advocated. And yet we are told that there is no real movement in the West in favour of tariff reduction!

Mr. Donald Fraser, Sr., Mr. R. P. Allen, Ald. Osborne and Ex-Ald. Michael Ryan left by auto this morning to attend the Stanley Fair.
