RING NOTES

Billy Nixon has backed out of his match with Johnny Glover at the Armory A. A. next Tuesday night, and Mickey McIntyre, of St. John, will take Nixon's place. The change will make the bout the more rugged. The four other bouts scheduled for the same evening will give the fans a program of hot boxing.—Boston Globe.

Promoter McCarey, of Los Angeles, has signed Jim Flynn, the Pueblo heavyweight, to box Dec. 10, and he is trying to get Jim Stewart or Frank Klaus for his opponent. It will be quite a while before Stewart will be ready to return to the ring, on account of his manager and second's lacking good sense when Stewart boxed Jim Barry here this week.

The reason given for the postponement of the bout between Abe Attell and Pal Moore in New York next Tuesday night to Nov. 29 is that Attell wants more time to train. The real cause is, perhaps, that the advance sale is not big enough to give the promoters reason to believe that the receipts would reach the guarantees promised the boxers.

Tommy Burns, the ex-heavyweight champion, must have cleaned up a lot of money since he has been in the game, for he has just paid $56,000 for real estate in Calgary, Manitoba. He also has opened a haberdashery store in the same city. He says that he is undecided about continuing in the game, but so long as Tommy sees where he can earn good money in it there is no danger that he will quit it.

A New Orleans promoter is negotiating with Jim Barry to box Tony Ross in that city the middle of next month. The promoter states that he has Al Kaufman's name on a contract to box anyone in New Orleans in January, and that if Barry defeats Ross he will get the chance against Kaufman. As Barry has some bouts on in Oklahoma next month he may not take on the Ross match.

HARVARD FAVORED IN TODAY'S GAME AT NEW HAVEN

Yale's Coaches Say the Blue Will Win—Harvard Confident—Record Crowd Expected.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 18.—A stiff battle and a winning one, is the prediction of Yale men for tomorrow's great game between Harvard and Yale and the confident Harvard men who like old times, have hustled here to see if any loose change can be picked up, came right back with their own prediction that there is nothing to it but the crimson. Many a cheer went up from loyal supporters of the two elevens and if it were those of John Harvard, the Yale bulldog, was not backward in growling back an answer.

The advance guard of Harvard men was a large one. They were cordially received at the Yale clubs and while most of them lingered around the dinner tables to talk over football prospects, quite a few hurried to Woolsley Hall, where the joint Harvard and Yale musical clubs gave a concert.

A GREAT GAME.

Everything points to a great game in splendid weather and on a field which is in excellent condition. The Harvard team stayed at Farmington all day and had signal practice and strolls through that town. The Yale players were brought down from Meriden by machine for a short drill on the field. There seemed nothing to choose from in the matter of conditioning of the players on either side. The Harvard men left the shade of their university, confident of winning. There was no argument about it. With the ending of practice this afternoon Walter Camp said today the battle would be a stiff one and Yale ought to win. Other coaches like Tom Shevlin, Ted Coy, Brink Thorne and Foster Sanford, declared that they could not see how Yale could lose. On prophecies the honors were even on the night before the game.

HARVARD THE FAVORITE.

Wagering was quite active and in this Harvard ruled the favorite by considerable odds. The price of tickets continued to be high, with plenty of anxious ones here wondering how they could run the gauntlet at the gates.

23 SPECIAL TRAINS.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 18.—The biggest football crowd that ever stormed the Grand Central station, will pack itself into 23 special trains tomorrow to see the Harvard-Yale game. The Harvard club has chartered two whole trains, the Yale club several special cars and a long list of well-known graduates of both colleges and their friends have engaged other cars. Among them are J. P. Morgan, George W. Perkins, Harry Payne Whitney, Elbert H. Gary, W. E. Corey, and Ballard McCallum. Each train will be made up of 12 cars and it is estimated that all 23 trains will carry more than 20,000 passengers. Six of the trains will be sold Pullman, ten all day coaches, and the remainder part Pullman and part day coaches.

HARVARD'S PREPARATION.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 18.—The last practice of the Harvard team was held this afternoon, on the links of the country club at Farmington, the men appearing in sweaters, long trousers and cleated shoes, the uniforms having been left here. The 'varsity' and first substitutes lined up and while there was no actual scrimmage, the formations to be used Saturday were carried through to completion.

Speaking of the possibilities of the game, a Harvard coach stated that he did not think that either team would gain much through the line, and that if it was a windy day it would be a kicking game. The line-ups of the teams were given out tonight, though in the Harvard lineup it is thought Wendell will start the game instead of Ted Frothingham, who has been ill.

SAM ANDERSON MEETS McLEOD TONIGHT

Moncton, Nov. 18.—Sam Anderson, who claims to be the middleweight champion wrestler of the world, arrived from Boston this afternoon and was met at the depot and escorted through town by a brass band. He meets Sandy McLeod, the Scottish champion in the Grand Theatre tomorrow night.

Miss Berford Snow, of Lewisville, is visiting her sister, Miss Ada Snow at the home of Mrs. Everett, Fredericton, N. B.—Moncton Transcript.

HACKENSCHMIDT GOT TWO FALLS FROM DE RIAY AT BOSTON

Swiss Showed Great Skill But Lacked Hock's Skill and Weight—Three Thousand Saw Match.

Boston, Nov. 18.—Two mountains of finely trained flesh with a complete knowledge of the wrestling game were George Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," and Maurice De Riaz the Swiss champion, who met on the mat at the Boston Arena last night. At least 3000 men and women watched with the greatest interest the struggle of the gladiators and continually applauded the fine exhibition given by both experts.

No two wrestlers resemble each other so much as this pair. With the exception of height, both looked nearly alike, though the Russian weighed 225 pounds, while De Riaz tipped the beam at 285. While the Swiss champion showed that he was a great wrestler, still it was apparent that he was no match for the Russian, though he gave him a good argument for a time.

The Russian was the aggressor most of the time, and though he had the Swiss champion in bad holes many times, the latter by great strength and quickness broke the holds. Several times the Swiss champion displayed unexpected strength by picking the big Russian up and throwing him to the mat.

The Swiss made some fine bridges at times, and though the big Russian laid all his great weight on him, he failed to force him to the floor. The condition of the match was two out of three falls at catch-as-catch-can. After both had struggled on the mat for 18 minutes the Russian got a Nelson on the Swiss champion and 25 seconds later he forced both of the shoulders of the Swiss champion to the mat, winning the first fall.

After five minutes' rest they renewed the struggle and gave a grand display of wrestling that greatly excited the spectators. In 11 minutes the Russian got his favorite Nelson hold on the Swiss and though the latter made a hard struggle to break it, the Russian again forced the Swiss wrestler's shoulders to the mat in five seconds, winning the second fall and match.

At Montreal on Wednesday Hack got two falls from De Riaz in quick time.

YOUNG SIFTON HAD A CLOSE CALL

New York, Nov. 18.—The top notch was reached last night at the horse show in point of attendance and social splendor. The throngs on the promenade, the packed balconies and the long 1st of notables in society who crowded the boxes, all harked back to the old-time days before the advent of the motor car.

The night performance was replete with thrills and one spill, which came very near the tragic, sent a shiver through the multitude. This was when Lieut. Clifford Sifton, Jr., the young son of Clifford Sifton of Ottawa, was thrown from his charger while taking a fence, and just escaped being crushed under the animal.

The accident took place almost directly in front of the Sifton box. The young man's mother almost fainted at the sight. Mrs. Frederick Bull, who occupied the adjoining box, came to her assistance.

Many women cried outright in terror when the accident occurred. Mr. Sifton took a flying leap from the box, hurdled the arena rails, and was by his son's side in time to assist him to his feet.

With the close of tonight's programme of events the international military jumping contests ended.

ROUGH RIDERS PICK TORONTO 'VARSITY TO WIN CHAMPIONSHIP

Tigers are Working Hard However—College Team Has Advantage of Condition Weight and Youth.

Ottawa, Nov. 18.—Basing their deductions on the assumption that T. A. A. C. cannot beat University of Toronto, the Ottawa players make Varsity strong favorites over Hamilton.

The Ottawans are unanimously of the belief that the style of game employed by each team will show a marked difference, for college ball and the Big Four article vary greatly. Allowing no advantage one way or the other in style of game one necessarily compares weight and age to draw upon a winner, they say.

The Rough Riders think that unless Varsity's performance against Ottawa last fall was only a burst of confidence by an early lead, the Big Four champions have no chance whatever of beating the Blue and White. The latter will run the old fellows to death in the first quarter, pile up the score in the second, and ship the game to Toronto in the third. The remainder of the contest will be but a repetition of all fourth quarters on the Hamilton field. The people will take charge, and possibly the argument will never be finished.

TIGERS ARE HUSTLING

Hamilton, Nov. 18.—If hard work, and plenty of it, combined with a determination to win, count for anything Tigers will not be far behind in the Canadian championship race, if they do not land in top place. The back division showed great improvement in its passing and running, putting varied plays into effect with a smartness that was in striking contrast to the loose work that has been seen in some of their games. The wings and scrimmage also worked with snap as a result of the good brushing up they have been given. There is room for much improvement yet, but if they continue to improve during the next week and a half as they have during the past two or three days they will put up a great game.

It is not likely that George Smith will take his place at fullbacks, as his knee is still sore, and might not be strong enough to take him through a hard game. "Huckle" Bramer has been practicing running, but his ankle is a bit shaky yet. Sim Vaughan, the Tigers' trainer, thinks that "Huckle" will be fit to go the distance by a week from Saturday, however, and the big fellow is likely to take his place on the line.

PUNTS AND DROPS

Frank Mackasey, a forward on the Moncton football team, had the misfortune to have his hand quite badly injured on Thursday while at work in the I. C. R. shops, Moncton. Mr. Mackasey was working at a planer, and in some manner two of his fingers became caught in the machinery, inflicting severe and painful cuts.

The Moncton Transcript man who "sees things from the desk" hands this out re the Acadia-Mt. Allison game:—"What about the 'safety' clause in football rules?—does the team forcing the other to touch for safety the greater number of times, in Wolfville yesterday, win? In all Maritime provincial football, providing both teams are agreed previous to the match, this rule is held if necessary, to decide ties." When was such a rule ever put into practice in Maritime provincial football?

HOOF BEATS

Tidy Peter, a two-year-old trotter by Peter the Great, worked in 2:19 1/2 at Lexington last week. The time is not remarkable but the fact that the youngster had never stepped a full mile at speed until after the 27th of October makes the performance of more than passing notice.

Joe Patchen, 2:01 1/2, was raced for 10 years over all kinds of tracks. He started 100 times. He won 53 firsts, was second 39 times, third once, fourth four times, and unplaced three times. He won 90 heats in 2:10 or better, 68 in 2:07 or better, 64 in 2:06 or better, 13 in 2:03 or better and five in 2:02 or better. After all this he left the turf absolutely sound.

When Ed Custer was given his record of 2:10 at Galesburg, recently, he had had only a few preparatory miles—but a half-dozen or so in 2:20 or better—and was not legged up to carry his speed, but trotted one-half of the mile in 1:03 1/2. Harold Childs is confident that if Custer was taken out of the stud and given a full season's preparation, he could be marked in 2:05.

MRS. FRANK AVERILL GUILTY OF MURDER

St. Albans, Vt. Nov. 16.—Weeping and moaning, "Oh my baby, my baby," Mrs. Frank C. Averill, who has been on trial here for the murder of her husband was today found guilty of manslaughter. The jury was out nearly four hours.

Mrs. Averill will probably be sentenced tomorrow. Mrs. Averill was nearly prostrated when brought in to the court room today. When the verdict was announced she broke down and wept. As she was led out of the court room Mrs. Averill sobbed "Oh my baby, my baby." She has a little three-year-old daughter.

Frank C. Averill was shot at his home three miles outside of this city on the night of Oct. 20. Shortly after 9 o'clock that night Averill crawled bleeding to the home of Frank P. Wells, a neighbor. One of his first statements was that his wife had shot him. He was removed to a local hospital where he died the following day. Mrs. Averill was arrested shortly after her husband's death.

MRS. AVERILL'S STORY

On the stand Mrs. Averill, said that on the night of Oct. 20 her husband was showing her how to use a shotgun which they had in the house. While she was holding the weapon in her hands, she said, her husband disappeared into an adjoining bedroom. When he did not open the door, she said, she rapped with the gun, which went off, and she said she heard her husband's body fall. Breaking open the door, Mrs. Averill testified she saw he was wounded and became hysterical.

Mrs. Averill's testimony on the stand differed materially from statements attributed to her on the night of the shooting. Several witnesses testified she said that the shooting occurred in a field nearby the house.

Mrs. Averill first became acquainted with Mr. Averill in Cambridge Mass. They were later married in Worcester, Mass. The couple lived happily here for several years. Averill was a traveling man.
