THE GAME

Woodstock started the scoring in the second, Dick Malloy crossing the pan when an error left Bunker safe at first. Further scoring was prevented by George Finnamore and Feeney pulling of a nice double play when Millmore hit a fly to short-stop.

The locals tallied their first run in the second. George Finnamore put a nice single into centre field. Nep- adelphia, 6. tune passed Tommy Howe. Boone put up a fly to "Tanker" Hughes, who fielded the ball to Iott and doubled Howe up. Finnamore meanwhile had romped home. Harrington got a single but Feeney flied out to Michaud retiring the side.

In the third Neptune was first man up for Woodstock, but was thrown out at first. Wilson got safe on Bell's error. Iott sacrificed him to second Hughes put out a single scoring Wilson. Good flied out to Boyce. There was nothing more until the fifth, neither team getting a man beyond; second base.

In the fifth Neptune flied out to Boyce, Wilson came to bat prepared to do things. He did them rapping out a hit labelled for two sacks. Lott followed with a hit which scored Wilson. Hughes flied out to Boyce. Iott tried to get home from second on a throw to the plate from left field, but could not do it.

In the other half of the inning Fredericton scored three runs. Boyce got a single, Art Finnamore flied out. Bell drew a pass. Lynch's two-bagger advanced him to third and scored Boyce. George Finnamore rapped out a single and Bell and Lynch scor-
