EASTERN RAILWAY UNIONS TO TAKE PART IN POLITICS

Delegates Representing Over Three Hundred Thousand Employees Unanimously Decide on This Course--Will Cut Loose From Party Affiliations.

New York, Sept. 25.—For the first time in the history of railway unions, members and delegates representing 308,000 of the four great divisions of railway employees in the east voted unanimously at a meeting held here today to take concerted action in national and state politics. "The proper place to settle questions affecting labor is at the ballot box," said Warren S. Stone, of Cleveland, Ohio, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. "Whatever your political affiliations do not let party lines blind you to your true interest or prevent you from doing what you think is best and right. See that the men you vote for stand for the right principles, regardless of party, and support those men who meet the requirements, and you will not only be doing the best thing for yourself but for the public."

"This is not a political move at all, as is generally understood, but a move to get away from the old lines of partisan politics."

In pursuance of this plan the meeting decided to send a series of eight questions to state and national candidates, particularly to candidates or the legislatures and house of representatives, asking for a definition of their attitude on the universal adoption of safety appliances and an employers liability law—where such does not already exist—company pensions for superannuated employees, hours of labor and other matters of kindred interest.

There were 3,000 members and delegates at the meeting today, representing the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, and the Order of Railway Conductors. They met to define their attitude toward the application by the railways now before the Interstate Commerce Commission, for permission to increase rates and, as had been expected, they adopted resolutions favoring an increase.

It was decided that "this representative meeting of the railway brotherhoods request our chief executives to appear before the Interstate Commerce Commission, during the pending rate hearing, state our case and support the proposals to reasonably increase the existing rates."

MRS. ALBERT A. BULL DEAD TO MONTREAL IN EARLY OCTOBER

(Printed By Request.)

I., on the 10th inst., after a lingering illness of heart disease. She is survived by her husband, and five children: Mrs. H. W. Shaw, Hempstead, N. Y.; Mrs. Remington Ward, Newport, R. I.; Mrs. D. Reid Bedell, Andover; LeBaron R., Garden City, N. Y., and Corydon P., at the home, Woodstock, N. B.

She was the eldest daughter of William Brown, Esq., Southampton, and grand-daughter of Captain James Hartley, also a direct descendant of David Hartley, Esq., who signed the Treaty of Peace, between England and the United States, the third day of September, 1763, who was the sole representative of George the Third, while John Adams, B. ## A TRYOUT WITH "CENTRAL"

Pittsburg, Pa. Sept. 24.—Incensed over the continual repetition of the phrase "line's busy," while she and her guests were delayed at bridge whist because of an absent friend, Miss Hazel Gillen, daughter of John Gillen, prominent horseman and ice manufacturer of Fayette City, Pa., last night left her home and her guests to investigate the local Bell Telephone Exchange and learn the reason why she could not get telephone connections with a young woman she wanted to "fill in."

Trouble was found and plenty of it when Miss Gillen reached the head of the first flight of stairs at the exchange. A whirlwind in the form of the much abused "Central" Miss Lillian Usher, enveloped her and a second later both young women were rolling down the stairs and on to the sidewalk in each other's arms.

With their skirts wrapped about their shoulders the young women took a "death grip" on the sidewalk when they stopped rolling, and to the amusement of a number of men and boys proceeded to pull hair and attempt to choke each other, until one man stepped forward, righted their skirts and separated the fighters. Hair "rats" side combs and barrettes and one witch, the ownership of which neither of the young women will acknowledge, littered the sidewalk.

CANADA WANTS MORE BUSINESS WITH AUSTRALIA

Trade Commissioner Ross Wants Victorian Government to Appoint Agent at Vancouver

Request Likely to be Acceded—Thos. Tait, Who Has Resigned as Head of Commonwealth Railway System, May be Succeeded by Colleague.

Melbourne Australia, Sept. 24.—Efforts to expand trade relations between Australia and Canada are engaging the close attention of W. H. Ross, Canadian trade commissioner.

In Victoria, Southern Australia and Tasmania, Mr. Ross has been interviewing the minister of customs with the object of inducing him to appoint an Australian, stationed at Vancouver, whose business it will be to develop commerce generally between the two countries.

Mr. Tudor, the minister, is indisposed to send an Australian to Vancouver to undertake the duties, but he hopes to see his way clear to induce the cabinet to appoint a commercial man, resident in Vancouver, to represent the commonwealth. The matter will be placed before the ministers for decision.

It is considered unlikely the Victorian government will go outside its own state to find a successor to Thos. Tait, who has resigned his post of chairman of the state railway commission. In some circles it is taken for granted that Mr. Fitzpatrick, a colleague of Mr. Tait, will secure the vacant position. Fitzpatrick has had remarkable career. He entered the railway service in the capacity of a porter's messenger and has risen by his native ability to the place at present he holds.

THE SCHOOL BOOK WAR ON THE MIRAMICHI

(Moncton Transcript)

The school book war is still waging merrily on the hitherto peaceful banks of the beautiful Miramichi. The Chatham World, having published its attack upon Mr. Hazen's mismanagement of the school-book business, was induced to publish subsequently the following:—

The Chatham dealer who supplied about three quarters of the demand became dissatisfied with the profits to be made on that line and decided to go out of the school book business.

It becoming evident that The World was getting worsted in the struggle, recruits were hurriedly advanced to his assistance and The Chatham Commercial said in reply: "The dealer referred to informs The Commercial that this statement is absolutely untrue. The school book line was dropped on account of the government being unable to supply books warran-dered which caused great dissatisfaction in the local schools. After school opening this term the dealer was requested to order a number of books that were urgently needed and being assured by the manager of the Government Book Room that a full supply was on hand the order was placed. Instead of receiving the books, a letter from the Book room came to hand, stating they were out of arithmetics, grammars, spellers and copy books, and that when the publishers supplied them the order would be filled. It is not the matter of small profit that disgusts the vendors of school books, but the fact that their orders are frequently turned down by the scarcity of the supply at Fredericton. While vendors are helpless in the matter they have to put up with all the blame. The government must improve its system of handling school books and collecting accounts for same, and give the vendors more protection than they have at present before it can make a success of the school book business."

Just imagine the Government undertaking to run the School Book business and so mismanaging or miscalculating that at the very opening of the school term a Government official is alleged to have written that the government's depository had entirely run out of "arithmetics, grammars, spellers and copybooks!"

If there is anything used by pupils in the public schools which Mr. Hazen's clerk forgot to mention as being out of, it is perfectly safe for the reader to mentally fill the void. There is one thing, however, positively certain the Government never ran out of business ability in conducting this department, for the simple reason it never possessed any.
