HARVARD NOW

LOOKS LIKE AMERICAN FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS

Boston, Mass. Nov. 13-The big game of the football season comes next Satdrday when Harvard meets Yale at New Haven. If Harvard wins and that result appears probable the crimson will be the undisputed champion of the east, if not of the counas the Blue scored over Princeton, would lead to mixed feelings on the question as to which team properly belongs the mythical honor of champion. A victory by the Blue probably would bring Pennsylvania into connderation. Yale, in any event, can secure no higher place.

Harvard easily leads the eastern colleges. Annapolis is accorded second place, Princeton third, despite yester Smith day's defeat by Yale. Pennsylvania McKinnon is fourth, West Point filth, Cornell Stubbs sixth and Yale seventh.
