

SOUND TORY DOCTRINE AS PREACHED BY MONK

(Halifax Recorder)

Mr. Monk's claim that the speeches and announcements of the Nationalists during the Arthabaska election campaign were "sound Conservative doctrine" has not yet been denied or repudiated in any official manner whatsoever by the Tory authorities. Hence it is fair to conclude that the contention of the member for Jacques Cartier still stands. Speaking at Victoriaville in Drummond county Mr. Bourassa in attacking Sir Wilfrid Laurier for his Imperialism said: "Mr. Laurier at the Monument Nationale, 10th of October 1910, betrayed his own thoughts when he said that if England was ever at war where her supremacy was in danger he would not hesitate to say that it would be the duty of the Government to send the Canadian fleet to the help of the Motherland." Let it not be forgotten, that Mr. Borden's unofficially announced ally makes his chief attack upon Sir Wilfrid because that statesman has said that Canada would come to the aid of Britain in times of danger! This is the ally of the man (Borden) who has indulged in season and out of season in his perverted mouthings about loyalty and attachments to British institutions.

But Mr. Bourassa is not the only offender. Mr. Blondin of Champlain, is a "straight" Tory M. P. This member of a lip-loyal party uttered "sound Conservative doctrine" during the campaign of which the following are a few specimens:

You are intimidating the people in waving the English flag, and adding that we must contribute always and everywhere to the defence of that tormentor of our constitutional liberties; but we will not be made to forget that in 1837 it was necessary to bore holes in it in order to breathe the atmosphere of liberty.

The English have never done anything for the French Canadians. We do not owe them anything. French Canadians have nothing to care about the opinion of the other provinces on this naval question. They can and must settle the question which concern them without consulting others. Those very ones who dis embowelled our forefathers on the Plains of Abraham ask of you today to be slaughtered for their sake.

England has gone so far as to grind down the colonies as did Imperial Rome of old.

The only liberties which we enjoy have been snatched. England has not condescended Canada for love or to plant the Cross of Christ as did France, but to establish trading posts and make money. She has sowed the world with hatred, quarrels and wars. We have had enough of England and the English.

These "vicious, incendiary and anti-British" speeches of Mr. Blondin were quoted to that gentleman's discomfiture in the House of Commons by Hon. Mr. Brodeur. Mr. Blondin made hot denial, but when Dr. Beland stood up and affirmed that he heard that gentleman make the remarks, the denial was recalled instantly, and replaced by a defiant acknowledgement. The whole thing thus came out in the following dialogue. Referring to Mr. Brodeur's damning quotations: Mr. Blondin—I did not say the first phrase, and I think Mr. Beland will deny it also.

Mr. Beland—I may say that I was present at that meeting, and I remember exactly the words pronounced by the hon. member for Champlain, and as far as I can remember, that is an exact reproduction of his speech.

Mr. Blondin—I do not deny that that was said, but it was not said by me.

Mr. Brodeur—Well, it is very unfortunate, Mr. Speaker. After all, the Prime Minister was perfectly justified yesterday in saying that a victory won by such means was disastrous—disastrous to the Conservative party, and today they are ashamed of the work they have done.

Mr. Blondin—I am not ashamed. I will repeat them to you tomorrow.

There is no sign of repentance here. Mr. Blondin was merely giving utterance to "sound Conservative doctrine." Such are the men and their principles with whom Mr. Borden is now in practical alliance. Disgusted and nauseated at the loathsome, unscrupulous and incendiary attacks made upon Sir Wilfrid and the government by the Tory-Nationalist gang in Arthabaska, it is little wonder that the eloquent member for Hochelaga, Mr. Rivet, gave utterance to these fiery words of Celtic indignation:

The hon. member for Terrebonne has said in so many words that the opposition against the government was based upon the desire to defeat Sir Wilfrid Laurier who has been in power too long and whom they have sought in vain for the last fourteen years to defeat. No matter what the reason, Sir Wilfrid Laurier had to be defeated. Why? Is it because the Prime Minister of this country has for the last fifteen years given to Canada the best and most progressive administration that we ever had? Is it because, for the last fifteen years, he has imbued the people with the noble idea of establishing between all sections and races in this country, religious and national peace? Is it because with measures inspired by the love of his country he has been able to establish progress and prosperity in a country in which, previous to 1896, complete stagnation of affairs prevailed in all branches of human activity? Is it because the Prime Minister of this country has shed lustre upon his nation, upon his province, and upon his race? What has he committed? No matter, Mr. Speaker, Laurier has got to be put down from the pedestal which the confidence, love and admiration of his own country have made for him.

Let him be destroyed. This was the declaration made by the hon. member for Terrebonne, and this was the only reason for the opposition made during the election in Drummond and Arthabaska against the naval policy of the government.

To such straits are the opposition reduced today.

SIX MEN FOUND WATERY GRAVE

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 14.—Six men were drowned in the Snohomish River yesterday when a cabin launch containing 17 passengers capsized. The accident happened near Marysville, Washington. The men who were drowned were all employees of a logging camp at Marysville. They had chartered the launch for a pleasure trip to Everett. When the boat capsized, there were fourteen persons in the little cabin and three on the roof. It is said that the men on the roof of the cabin were rocking the boat as it careened in the swift current of the river.

Mrs. J. A. Smith, Marshville, Ont., writes:—"I had a very bad cough and that distressing tickling sensation in my throat. It was so bad I could not sleep at night and my lungs were so sore I had to give up work."

"Our doctor gave me medicine but it did me no good, so I got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Pine Syrup, and by the time I had used two bottles I was entirely cured. I am always recommending it to my friends."

Do not be humbugged into buying the so-called Norway Pine Syrups but be sure and insist on "Dr. Wood's." It is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; the price 25c.

Could Not Walk Ten Yard Without Resting

WEAK HEART WAS THE CAUSE

Mrs. Robison Collette, Rogersville, N. B., writes: "I am now enjoying the best of health after having used your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I was troubled with a weak heart and was afraid to draw a long breath for the pain it would cause me. I could not sleep at night, and it was impossible for me to walk ten yards without resting myself. I cannot speak too highly of your Heart and Nerve Pills, for they are the greatest pill I have ever used and I can recommend them to all sufferers."

Thousands of people go about their daily work on the verge of death and yet do not know it.

Little attention is paid to the slight weakness of the heart for the simple reason that one thinks it will right itself, but there is where the mistake is made. It is only when a violent shock comes that the weakness of the heart becomes apparent.

On the first sign of any weakness of the heart or nerves, flagging energy or physical breakdown, the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will soon produce a quick and permanent cure.

TO LEGISLATE AGAINST HUNTING ACCIDENTS

Mr. Lewis M. P., for Huron in committing his bill relating to homicides while hunting, in the House of Commons a few days ago spoke as follows:

The Bill is similar to one I introduced some two sessions ago. Since then the necessity for the legislation has become greater. During last fall's hunting season 113 persons were killed in the states bordering on Canada and 94 injured. In my opinion, since homicide is a crime, the man who, while indulging in the sport and pleasure of hunting, does not take sufficient precaution to make sure that what he is shooting at is not a human being should be punished when his lack of care leads to loss of human life or injury. The man who does not give the benefit of the doubt to a human being, when he is aiming at a wild animal, and who, through his neglect, kills or injures a fellow man is a criminal. The poor trapper or hunter who shoots a deer by mistake which turns out to be a cow moose, has his goods and chattels taken from him; but if it be a human being that he has shot by mistake, he is allowed to go free without even a preliminary investigation. I ask that this bill and others of a similar nature should be referred to a committee. I do not say that the Bill is one that will cover all the circumstances that may arise, but I do urge that the matter should be taken up by a committee of legal and expert men, and I have no doubt that they will succeed in devising a measure which will cover the case.

Motion agreed to, Bill read the first time.

SIR HIBBERT TUPPER APPROVES NAVAL POLICY

Halifax, N. S., Dec. 14.—The doctrine that there should be no party when Canadian public men and people come to consider questions of national and imperial defence, was preached before a sympathetic and enthusiastic company this afternoon by Sir Charles Tupper at the Canadian Club luncheon in his honor.

Sir Hibbert, in support of his opinion that there should be no party in such matters as defense, said our position in the empire showed that our great national movements in the past had been guided by opposing leaders who had come together in days of crisis, and practical coalition had been effected to serve the country's needs.

Sir Hibbert touched on the fact that the lure of gold in business life made it more difficult in the days of Laurier and Borden to obtain able men ready to serve their country than it was for Brown and Macdonald or Howe to enlist the greatest men in the country's service.

He also urged both political parties should unite to utterly abolish political patronage, the curse, he said, of all governments.

SAYS LAURIER IS RIGHT.

Sir Hibbert thought there was a great misconception in regard to the present agitation in Quebec. If Quebec seemed to vote against militarism and a navy, in the imperial interests, it should be remembered that there are men in Ontario and on the plains who do not wish to contribute one cent to national or imperial defense. These men must be educated. Because of this we find Sir Wilfrid Laurier dealing in language that might well puzzle a habitant, though he is proceeding on the right line.

He is calling for funds for our militia and navy which will soon amount to $10,000,000 a year, and yet he uses such expressions as "we must avoid the maelstrom of militarism as it is in England."

The men, he thought, were living in a fool's paradise, who said: "We in Canada need do nothing for imperial defense."

There should be unity of parties, first, to make Canadians absolutely loyal to a policy of sharing in the defense of the empire, and then to secure the abolition of the system of patronage, the curse of every government, whether Liberal or Conservative.

"We should share the titanic burden which rests on the motherland. Let us drive to the four winds the Bourassas and the Monks who would destroy and render of no effect the dreams of Howe, and the men who strove to build and enslave an empire in which Canada should have an honorable part."
