ONE OF SEASON'S WINNERS

GENERAL H. DRIVEN BY GEORGE T. HAAG

COX WON EASILY
IN 2.05 PACE AT
D. TROT MONDAY

Great Medium a Disappointment—Major Strong Proved to be Big Surprise.

Detroit, Mich. Sept. 20.—Two good things went astray on the first afternoon of the state fair races, which were held on a track several seconds slow here this afternoon.

Great Medium judged by victories at Kalamazoo and Grand Rapids, was not favorite in the 2:19 pacing class. He won a heat and faded away to nothing, Mabel J, a local mare, landing the race.

Major Strong proved a big surprise in the 2:12 stake, in which he beat Gamar a head in the first heat and then won comfortably, Stroller racing well. Gamar sold over the field.

Cox put one over in the fast pace, winning as he pleased with Earl Jr. Tony Swift was counted to make the gray one step but could not go the distance. Jenny W paced well in the first heat and Star Patchen just beat her for the place in the second.

The breeders' stake for 3-year-olds and under was easy for Justice Brooks, the Baron Gale colt which won the stake at Goshen N.Y. The summary: fi

Frank Bancroft may head a team of Japanese players on a barnstorming tour of this country. The veteran business manager of the Cincinnati Reds is now considering a proposition made to him by a friend who would like to see the Orientals measure strength with the best teams of our country.

H.V. CHASE IS IN BAD ODOR WITH HIS TEAM MATES

Highlanders Disorganized by Internal Dissensions—Chase Balking Manager Stalling.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 20.—Nothing but a miracle will keep the Yankees in second place. And the days of miracles are past. Not because the scrappy band of Stallings was nosed out of a 1 to 0 shut out by the White Sox yesterday afternoon. It was one of the grandest and gamiest ball games any major league ball club ever showed. New York will be lucky to finish better than fourth, because Hal Chase appears to be "lying down."

There is mutiny in the ranks of the Hilltoppers. Hal Chase, the pet of his employer and the grand stand manager who have all but wrecked Frank Farrell's club year after year, has quit cold. It is not the first time Chase has quit. It may not be the last time he will quit. It seems to be a habit of this great-est of all first basemen.

MADE FIRST JUMP IN 1908.

In 1908 when the Highlanders were hopelessly wrecked and needed him most as a drawing card for a tail-end club, Chase jumped to the California outlaws. It was an offense the National Commission would not have pardoned in a less sensational performer. This year Chase has quit three times. This is on the authority of the ball players of the team, who have turned against their captain, and who insinuate that unless he is suspended the club itself will quit.

The players say that Chase deliberately deserted the team in A'hens, Ga., during the spring training trip. Further they claim that he tossed a couple of games to Detroit on the last swing through the West, and then ran away to New York without excuse and without notifying the management.

Furthermore the players are convinced that yesterday Chase deliberately betrayed the chances of his team-mates. Chase stands almost single-handed in his fight against Stallings.

VAUGHN ALONE WITH CHASE.

At the Lexington Hotel last night a number of the great majority loyal to Stallings were advocating a petition to Frank Farrell, to intervene on their manager's behalf. Jim Vaughn alone, it is declared, is with Chase, first and last. Against Vaughn there is a strong feeling of resentment. Vaughn has been a failure this season. He claims his pitching arm has never been right since Decoration Day. "Bonesetter" Barrett, who fixed up a badly broken finger for Ed. Sweeney in less than three weeks, and who has also cured Jack Miller, of the Pirates, of a bad "Charley horse" in six days, had Vaughn in charge for a couple of weeks. He submitted the southpaw to a rigid examination, after which he told the players:

"He is just as sound in every nerve muscles, bone and joint as a two-year old. His trouble is imaginary." Naturally, the players do not wish to be mixed up in managerial squabbles. It doesn't pay. It might make trouble if Chase is appointed manager. Not one, but half a dozen said to the writer tonight:

"If Stallings had been given free rein this year, he would have won the pennant, or come so close that the Athletics would have been fighting tooth and nail yet. Every time we got going properly, something came up. Of course, we were handicapped by many injuries; but we would have pulled through if Chase had pulled with Stallings."

JOAN WON FROM
DUDIE ARCHDALE
AT COLUMBUS

Becomes Champion 4-Year-Old Trotter
—Her Time in Two Heats Was 2.06 1-4.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 20.—Joan, four years old, owned by David Shaw of Cleveland and driven by H. McDevitt today became a world's champion race trotter for fillies of her age when she defeated Dudie Archdale in a gruelling race for the Haster-Columbus stakes, the last $10000 prize that the grand circuit has to offer this year. Both heats were done in 2.06½, time never before made by a trotter of Joan's class.

Dudie Archdale was the original favorite at $100 to $75. She tried trailing Joan in the first heat, but was stalled off at the finish, the final quarter being trotted in 29½ seconds. In the second heat Dudie Archdale was sent away in front and led for the greater part of the miles, but Joan had speed enough in reserve to win.

The pace set by Dudie Archdale in the last heat was faster than in the second. It told on Joan and she was not able to brush it out successfully. Joan won $4,167 and Dudie Archdale $3,333. Hallworthy broke in the first two heats of the Columbus stake and the race went to Startle. Independence Boy easily won the 2.09 pace.

BASEBALL NOTES

Jack O'Connor declares Jack Knight the best utility player in either league.

Stallings thinks that Eddie Foster will be one of the sensations of the American League "before two years." "Foster is a great fielder" says Stallings. "All he has to learn is to pull the ball to left field. If he learns to clout to left field he will be a mighty sweet ball player. I believe he has learned more by sitting on the bench this year than he possibly could have learned in a minor league."

Earl Gardner has set out for his Indiana home with a kid brother who unsolicited, joined him here. The boy isn't seasoned enough for major league company, so Earl decided to turn him back to the paternal league for schooling.—New York American.

St. Louis is a real hotbed of mutiny. All the scribes there are using a baseball war. They have cast in their lot with Mr. Fletcher, of Cincinnati, whom the National Commission thwarted in an attempt to match star casts from the American and National Leagues in a post-season series. In the West it is the general belief that Fletcher is serious in his talk of trouble making.

Jack Powell has been given leave of absence for the remainder of the season. The ex-Yankee pitcher buried two sons within the last month. The boys died within a week of each other from the effects of a local scarlet fever plague.—New York American.

praise for Chase all season—so far as the press, at least, has been concerned—the first baseman has never reciprocated. It is a noticeable fact that the club has played better ball with Knight on first than when the captain was on the job. The culmination of a season of secret bickering came to a head yesterday. Stallings and Chase, so the players say, almost came to blows in the bus on the way to the hotel from the grounds. Only the loyalty and persuasion of his players prevented Stallings from wiring his immediate resignation to Owner Farrell.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Geo. Stallings manager of the New York Americans will leave for New York today in response to a summons from President Frank Farrell. It is said that the alleged difference between Hal Chase, first baseman and Manager Stallings are to be gone over and some decision reached which will tend to bring about more harmony in the team.

LANGFORD AND JACK
JOHNSON TO MEET

Boston, Mass. Sept. 20.—Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, and Sam Langford, colored of Nova Scotia who would wrest the champion's honors from him, met in the ring at the Armory Athletic Association tonight, for two rounds—one of verbal recrimination, and the other of apparent reconciliation. In the first round Langford accused Johnson of being afraid to meet him when he posted a $10,000 forfeit for a fight and offered to meet the champion at any time, for any sum of money and in any place, "even in the cellar." Johnson came back with a denial that Langford had placed any forfeit, and shaking a large roll of bills offered to bet $1000 to $10 that no forfeit was ever placed. He said he was willing to fight Langford and would meet him tomorrow morning in a local newspaper office to arrange for a fight. The second round was devoted to shaking hands, the two colored fighters being urged to "get together," with the result that Johnson offered his hand first and the Nova Scotian gripped it, while the 2000 fans in the circle, cheered them both.

Three star bouts were on the programme for the night. Jimmy Walsh of Boston had little difficulty in defeating Young Britt of Baltimore in ten rounds. Dave Desher of Cambridge and Willie Lucas of Philadelphia, went ten rounds to a draw while Jumbo Wells of Australia knocked out Billy Rolfe, of Cambridge, in the second round of a scheduled ten round bout.

RING NOTES

Tommy Murphy has accepted an offer to box Phil Brock in Canton, O., the second week in October.

Dick Hyland, the California lightweight, has been substituted for Jack Goodman to meet Packey McFarland in New York Sept. 27.

Leo Houck, the Philadelphia welterweight, is another claimant to the title in that class since he outpointed Harry Lewis. Where did Lewis ever get the title?

If Pal Moore outpoints Owen Moran in their bout at Philadelphia Sept. 28, Moore will be given the chance to meet Ad Wolgast in the Quaker City Oct. 15.

Frankie White, the clever Chicago lightweight, who is to meet Matty Baldwin here soon, has been matched to box Ad Wolgast, the lightweight champion, in Milwaukee, Oct. 7.—Boston Globe.
