WIFE ALLOWED TO COME

London, July 4.—Mrs. Woolmer, the wife of a Toronto laborer, whom the Canadian immigration regulations did not permit to join her husband in consequence of being an assisted emigrant, sailed on the C. P. R. Empress of Ireland Saturday by public subscription. Sympathizers decorated the cabin with flowers.

DEFENDS BOXING

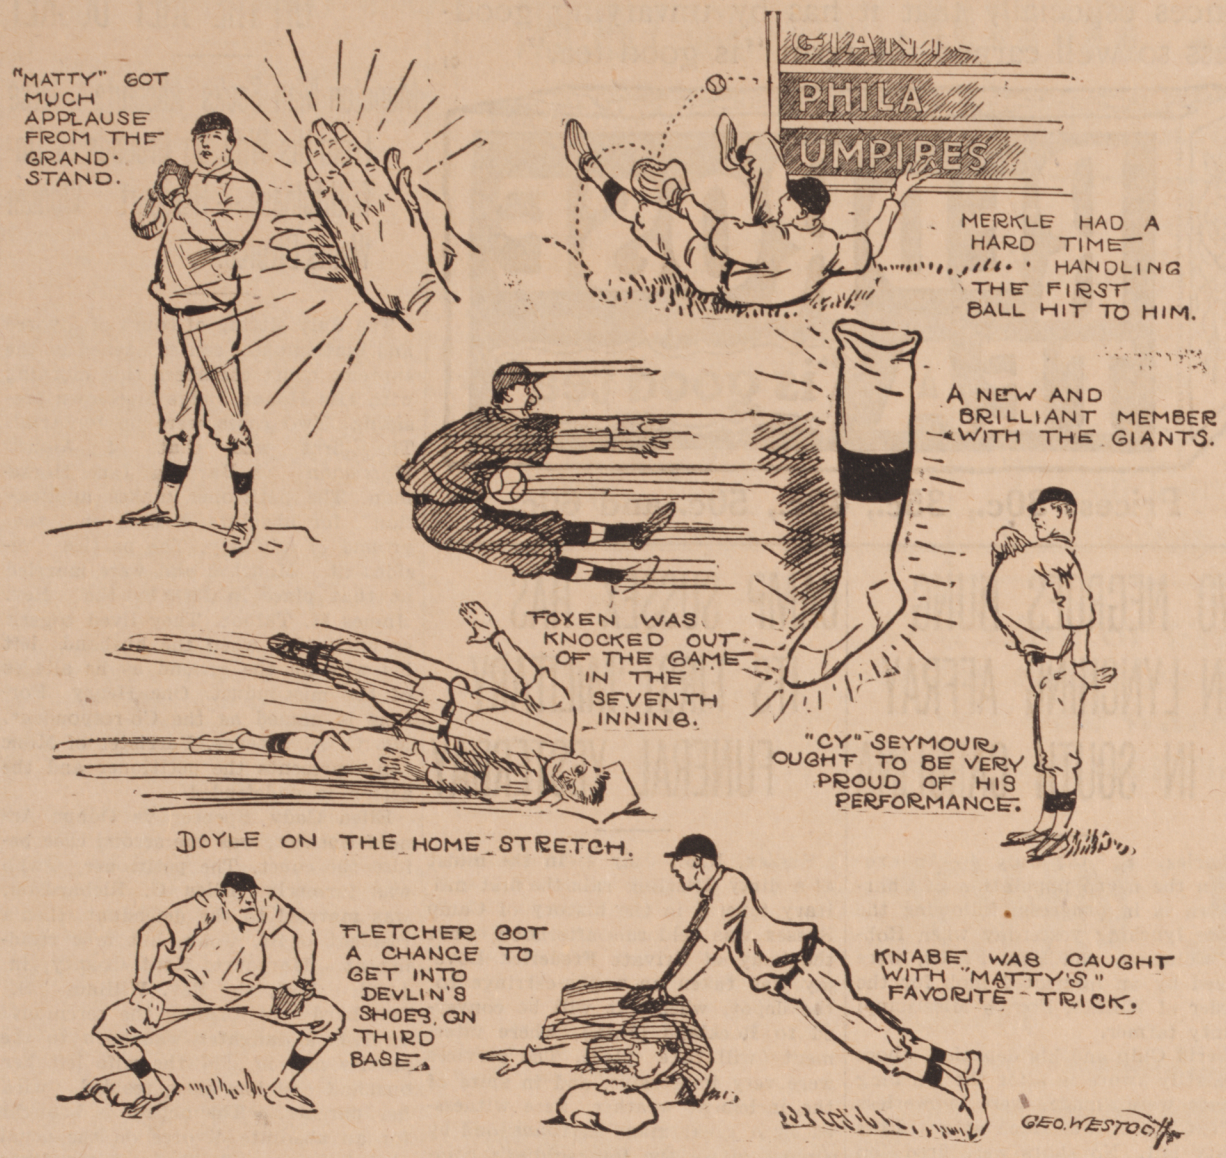

London Express.—A series of contests promoted by Mr. Alf. Harry took place on Monday evening at the Crown Skating Rink, Neath. At the conclusion of the various bouts the Rev. A. E. C. Morgan, a clergyman of the Church of England, and a playing member of the Glamorgan County and Neath Rugby teams, presented the silver cup to Brooks, the winner, and in doing so congratulated the promoters on the excellent displays and the program provided that evening. Those who condemned boxing should, he declared, first of all witness it, then they might have a different opinion of it. He felt sure that those who were present that evening were far better employed than "mooching" about dark lanes on evil intent.

The trouble with the average man is that his ideals are higher than his salary.

A home run by Doyle, the Giants' star second baseman, and the faultless twirling of "Matty" won the game for the Giants against the Quakers at the Polo Grounds; score, 4 to 1. Other Giants, of course, gave a helping hand, and how their performances struck the funny bone of Artist Westcott is pictured above.

D. U. R. DEFAULTED

Detroit, July 2.—For the first time since the Council passed the resolution the Detroit United Railway to pay $300 a day for the use of the streets on which the franchise has expired, the D. U. R. on Monday failed to send City Treasurer Max C. Koch a cheque for $2,000. The cheque also failed to show up yesterday. If it does not appear today, Koch will consult Corporation Counsel Hally.

On June 14th the Council raised the rental to $350 a day, and on June 21st again raised it to $450, with the intention of raising it in the near future to $500. The company has not yet paid any additional amount, and it is the belief in that City Hall that it intends to stop the payments altogether until some better understanding is established.

MAKING PROGRESS

Globe: The Y. M. C. A. Hikers had a pleasant start on their walk to Fredericton on Saturday. They left here at 9 a. m., and reached Westfield Centre about 4 p. m. in good health and spirits. They camped on Mr. Turner's farm on a high hill overlooking the river, and had a rest on Sunday, finishing up with a service in the evening. Mr. E. J. Robinson, who is in charge of the party, expressed himself pleased with the outlook, but he had not foreseen Sunday night's storm, and the prospects this morning were not so bright. The boys have a ten miles' walk before them today, which will test their mettle. On Saturday evening they gave an excellent entertainment in the public hall at Westfield. They had a full house, and their musical and gymnastic performances were loudly applauded. Tonight they are to entertain the people at Welsford.
