Give your servants GOLD DUST to clean with, treat them rightly and you will have few occasions to insert a "help wanted" ad

They say a good workman is known by his tools. You cannot expect your maid to keep everything ship-shape unless you give her every modern help. To keep house without GOLD DUST is to do work by hard, old-fashioned methods. For cleaning everything and anything about the house—from cellar to attic—GOLD DUST is worth its weight in gold. It cuts grease and dirt like magic, does away with scouring and scrubbing, and saves time and tempers.

Your servant can do more and better work and keep sweet with the aid of GOLD DUST in all household cleaning.

PARLIAMENT PROROGUES WITH CUSTOMARY POMP

Earl Grey, the Retiring Governor General in his Valedictory Address, Paints a Glowing Picture of Canada's Future, which he Says may Become the "Heart and Soul of the Empire."

Ottawa, May 4.—The second session of the eleventh parliament of Canada was prorogued this afternoon by Earl Grey with all the accustomed pomp and ceremony.

At 3 o'clock with clear skies and balmy spring weather, His Excellency, with mounted escort of the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards, drove up in the state carriage with postillions and outriders to the main entrance of the parliament buildings, where he was received by a guard of honor from the Governor-General's Foot Guards. The guns from the battery at Nepean Point fired the royal salute, the band played the national anthem and the assembled crowds doffed their hats as His Excellency saluted.

In the commons chamber, the members waited the summons of the gentleman usher of the black rod. George Taylor got in the last word by making a plea for the early production next session of the auditor-general's report, so that business might be expedited and the sessions shortened.

A TOT BREAKS UP THE SOLEMNITY.

In the midst of his plaint, three knocks on the door of the commons, signifying the arrival of the black rod, resounded. "Admit the messenger," called the speaker. He was admitted but the stately progress of the historic three bows was ludicrously interrupted by a wee voice from the gallery, which cried: "Hello, papa!" The commons burst into a roar of laughter and even the black rod's face wrinkled in smiles, as he glanced up at his little daughter in the gallery, and at the same time endeavored to give with proper dignity His Excellency's summons to the commons to attend in the upper chamber.

At the conclusion of the formalities in the senate connected with the royal assent to the bills passed and the announcement of prorogation the address passed yesterday by parliament to their excellencies was read to Lord and Lady Grey. His Excellency's reply was as follows:

EARL GREY'S REPLY.

"It is with feelings of no ordinary emotion that I acknowledge the great honor conferred upon me today by the parliament of the Dominion. That address, the kind and friendly speeches of its movers and seconders, its hearty and unanimous acceptance by the members of the Senate and the House of Commons, have carried me to realize afresh how great has been the interest and enjoyment of our life in Canada and how sincere and heartfelt is the regret with which I and all the members of my family view the approaching termination of my term.

"Thanks to increased transportation facilities, thanks more to the great kindness which I have received in every part of the Dominion, I have had abundant opportunity, probably more abundant than has ever been vouchsafed to man, to make myself closely acquainted with the high hopes and confident beliefs of the Canadian people, to watch with uninterrupted and ever increasing ing delight the rapid and unchecked unfolding of your amazing development and to form a more or less adequate estimate of your tremendous potentialities.

SEES WONDERFUL FUTURE FOR CANADA.

"Gentlemen, when I reflect on the vastness of your area, on the fertility of your soil, on the unlimited wealth of your natural resources, which I rejoice you are determined scientifically to conserve, as well as vigorously to develop, when I reflect upon the invigorating nature of your climate and on the strenuous character of your people; when I reflect on all these great advantages which you possess in such abundant and exceptional degree, then, gentlemen, I feel as convinced, as I am tomorrow's sun will rise, that if you keep true to the highest ideals of duty and disinterested service, nothing can prevent you from becoming, and perhaps before the close of the present century, not only the granary but the heart and soul and rudder of the empire.

It shall be my happy privilege on my return to England to submit to the King an expression of your devotion to his throne and person, also to impress upon his majesty, and on the people of the British Isles, that you, the people of Canada, are united in your high resolve to accomplish your part in the maintenance and building of the empire of which, if you are not afraid of the greatness of your destiny, you will one day become the controlling part.

"Gentlemen, Lady Grey and my daughters are greatly touched by your friendly expressions toward them. There is no one who is more conscious than I am that the success which has attended my governor-generalship is due in a large measure to the whole-hearted co-operation that I have received from them, and to their individual spontaneous movements having for their object the promotion of the well-being of Canada. It is only right that they should have a large share of the distinction with which it has been your kind pleasure to honor me.

REGRETS THE PARTING.

"Gentlemen, it is not without many twinges of the heart that I realize that this is the last occasion on which I shall have the honor of meeting you officially. Although our official connection with you, unfortunately for us, is soon to cease, I can assure you, speaking not only for myself, but for Lady Grey and my daughters, that so long as we live, neither distance nor time will ever efface from our hearts the recollections of the many kindnesses we have received, the pleasures we have enjoyed, our deep affection for our Canadian home, or the interest we shall ever continue to feel in the future and fortune not only of our many personal friends but the country and the people whom we have learned to love so well."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier called for three cheers for their excellencies, and they were given with enthusiasm. Parliament was declared prorogued until June 13.

FROM THE RURAL DISTRICTS

MAPLE RIDGE.

May 3.—We were visited last Saturday by a heavy snow storm, accompanied by thunder and lightning.

Our roads are in a terrible state now. The good Hazen government we have in power now must be the cause of it.

No farming has been done in this section, owing to the dark and rainy weather we are having.

We are sorry to report the illness of Mrs. Patrick Graham.

Miss Lizzie Graham, who has been visiting her sister at Presque Isle, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Blaney spent Sunday last with Mrs. Blaney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lockard.

Some of the farmers are discouraged over the low price of potatoes.

We don't hear any reports of the new railroad lately.

Mr. Albert Blaney sold one of his horses last week.

Our popular teacher, Miss M. Palmer, intends spending Saturday with her parents at Hawkeshaw.

QUARTER OF MILLION FOR BIRDS NESTS

Millionaire's Widow Sets Aside this Sum to Form a Colony for birds of all Nationalities.

(New York World.)

Approximately $250,000 of the estate of Thomas J. Emery, who was by far the largest realty owner in Cincinnati, has been set aside by his widow, Mrs. Mary Emery, for the founding and perpetuation of a home for birds. Mrs. Emery has completed the purchase of a tract of land in Evanswood Place of about two acres and has signified her intention of turning it over to the care of the Department of Biology in the University of Cincinnati. This ground is to be built up with different kinds of houses where the feathered tribe can be sheltered. It will be made secure against the invasion of cattle and small boys, and there will be housed there probably one hundred different kinds of birds and their several species. In addition to this, there will be houses for the birds of mixed "nationality," and places where these may be studied in their different conditions.

All the work of this gigantic bird colony is to be done under the direction of Assistant Professor H. M. Benedict, of the Department of Biology of the University of Cincinnati. He says that this has been for many years a kind of meeting place for the birds of Cincinnati, and that thousands of them have gone there to rest and eat. He says he will arrange a place where they can rest undisturbed by passers-by.

Judge Rentoul at the city of London court decided that an engagement ring was a conditional gift and that in a case where an engagement had been ended the girl must return the ring.
