Give your servants GOLD DUST to clean with, treat them rightly and you will have few occasions to insert a "help wanted" ad

They say a good workman is known by his tools. You cannot expect your maid to keep everything ship-shape unless you give her every modern help. To keep house without GOLD DUST is to do work by hard, old-fashioned methods. For cleaning everything and anything about the house—from cellar to attic—GOLD DUST is worth its weight in gold. It cuts grease and dirt like magic, does away with scouring and scrubbing, and saves time and tempers.

Your servant can do more and better work and keep sweet with the aid of GOLD DUST in all household cleaning.

BAND OF BRITISH MISSION WORKERS FOR CANADIAN WEST

The First Party of Sixty Will be Headed by Chaplain to Archbishop of Canterbury—They Will Receive Very Small Salary and Cannot Marry at Present.

London, May 11—The Archbishop of Canterbury's Western Canada Fund, organized with the view of sending out youths and young men to Canada, and giving them a start in life as church workers in the Dominion, received a fine fillup in the right direction by the tangible sympathy which the then Prince of Wales showed in contributing $2,500 to the fund. The great speech which the Prince delivered at the Mansion House on his return from this last Canadian trip, in which he exhorted England to "wake up," has never been forgotten.

It was that along with his other experiences of long and observant travel, which earned for 'His Royal Highness the right to speak his mind on the need that arises from time to time for certain definite ventures, whether they be on secular or religious side of the life that lies before those who leave their native shores for colonial careers.

For some months past a committee of experts has been summarizing the information which it could gain from the Canadian bishops, and the new conditions thus revealed are so bewildering that it seems the leaders of the Church in Canada are themselves almost at a loss to map out the ecclesiastical future of these virgin regions. Last year the immigration season meant the advent of 180,000 settlers. Thus once again the present King, at the call of the Church of England comes forward with his memorable cry, "Wake up, England!"

THE FIRST PARTY

The first party of young men, numbering about sixty, is headed by the Rev. W. G. Boyd, chaplain to the Archbishop of Canterbury, who is accompanied by a band of nine clergymen and laymen. They go with no expectation of ultimate affluence. They will receive a bare maintenance, and beyond that some of them have been heard to fix their actual wage at $2.50 a week. But they go hopefully, because they are to be kept in touch with their base of operations.

It is expected of these volunteers that for a few years to come they will entertain no thoughts of matrimony. They will be, as it were, a brotherhood, free of course from vows, but bound up in the bundle of life with the central home in Edmonton, the capital of Alberta, where a house has been taken to serve as a hotel.

FIFTY EACH YEAR

This, then, is the beginning, but the archbishops, knowing the facts, call for fifty volunteers for each year, perhaps for ten years to come. Will the call be answered? The archbishops are very optimistic; but supposing that they accept three hundred men for this service during the next decade, and that a sum of say $4,000 is needed to equip and maintain each man for four years till his mission becomes self-supporting—for it takes all that time and more to make a mission self-supporting even at home—then it is reckoned that about $1,250,000 will have to be raised during the initial period. These may seem big figures, but they are only a fair indication of the needs of the case from the point of view of the Archbishops' Western Canada Fund.

The fund, however, is arousing great enthusiasm and sympathy in many quarters, especially among those who know Canada best. In addition to the King such personages as the Duke of Argyll, Lord Lansdowne and Lord Aberdeen, each at some time Governor General of Canada, are according the archbishops their heartiest support.

FROM THE RURAL DISTRICTS

CENTRAL KINGSCLEAR

May 12—The bean supper and concert held in the temperance hall, April 26, was a good success, eight teen dollars was raised for school purposes. Much credit is due to our teacher, Miss Jennie McKay in getting up the entertainment.

The whooping cough is making the rounds among the children, little Dorothy Estey is quite ill with it, and pleurisy, she is improving under Dr. H. McNally's care.

Mr. Charles Burnett of Aberdeen has erected a fine monument in the Baptist cemetery, Kingsclear, in memory of his mother, Mrs. James Burnett.

Mr. Burpee Gallop sold his household furniture last week at public auction and has moved to the States.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McDonald have moved from Fredericton to Kingsclear.

A temperance lecture will be given in the Baptist Church on the evening of May 13th and 14th by a blind man.

Mr. McGraw has moved on the farm in Kingsclear, which he bought from Mowatt Pickard.

Pall Bootau, who was operated on at Victoria Hospital three weeks ago is at home and able to make his usual evening calls on his friends.

GLENCOE.

May 10—The weather is extremely fine this last few days and the farmers are taking the open opportunity of putting in their crop.

Miss Edna London spent Saturday afternoon with Miss Etta McDonnell. Mr. and Mrs. Dozell Ross were the guests of her parents here on the 8th inst.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McDonald were visiting their eldest daughter at Taymouth on the 7th and 8th inst.

We are glad to see the smiling faces of our young men safely returning from the stream drives to their homes again.

Mr. W. Whyte of Nashwaak village was in this place last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Forbes are receiving the congratulations from their many friends on the arrival of a little girl stranger at their home.

We regret to report the death of one of our most beloved old ladies of this vicinity who passed away to reap the golden grain of a well sowed harvest. Mrs. Estary Jane Cameron of Pleasant Valley. She was a very aged lady and lived for the work of the master until he called her home.

Mr. Wm. McDonald was in Fredericton on Thursday last.

Daniel Brewer paid a visit to Fredericton last week.

MAZERALL SETTLEMENT

May 11—We have the much talked of post office at last, and Mr. Henry Mazerall is our post master. We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Bart Mazerall, another big boy. This is the third boy, we presume in the near future Bart will be sitting back smoking his clay pipe and the boys will be saying, everybody works but father.

Miss Mary Mazerall is our teacher. Miss Henrietta Mazerall intends going to Normal School next term.

Mr. Patrick Feeney of New Market had an accident on the way from town along the Hanwell road. His wagon was broken and he was obliged to walk some distance until he reached Mr. Arthur Mazerall's and there he had the loan of another wagon. Arthur saw him off safely and we hope he reached home without any more trouble.

LOWER HAINESVILLE.

May 5.—We are having very, unsettled weather, quite wintry. Each day we are treated to a snow squall equalling winter at times.

Nearly all of the men have returned from the lumber drives.

Quite a number of people from this place attended the funeral service of the late Mrs. Richard Billing of Central Hainesville who was buried at that place on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Frank Garden of Keswick Ridge, was here yesterday buying cattle. Mr. J. White disposed of three of his.

Mr. Berry Clark also sold a valuable one.

Mr. Cleve Clark is improving the appearance of his farm by putting up a wire fence.

Mr. W. C. Clark and Mr. Frank White have ordered new road wagons. We expect to see some driving soon.

Mr. Hosea Barton and Mrs. J. Woodworth, of Keswick, arrived Saturday a. m. to visit relatives and friends.

MAPLEWOOD.

May 11.—Housecleaning is the order of the day with the lads in this place, while the men are busy getting ready for their crop, regardless of the comet, whose appearance has been seen by quite a number.

Mrs. Geo. Newell has returned to her home after a pleasant visit with friends in Woodstock and other places.

Miss Mary Nevers has returned home after a few days spent here. Mrs. Amelia Faulkner and son Clarence, formerly of this place, but now of Carleton Place, made friends a short visit here.

Mr. Jgs. Newell, while ploughing on Hay Bros.' farm here, had the misfortune to get hurt quite badly. His horses became frightened and started to run away, dragging him quite a distance, before he could get them stopped.

KESWICK VALLEY.

May 10.—We are glad to report fine weather after so long a wet spell.

The farmers are busy preparing the ground for crop.

Mr. Wellington Yerxa has sold his arm, near Pugh's Crossing, generally called the Murray farm, to Mr. Murray Hagerman, of Bear Island.

The case of diphtheria at North Keswick is recovering and it is to be hoped that it will not spread.

We were very glad to see the extra train on today. It will be a great convenience to the people along the line when they can go to town and back the same day.

"Sir" said the little blustering man to a religious opponent "I say sir, do you know to what sect I belong?" "Well, I don't exactly know" was the answer, "but, to judge from your make, shape and size, I should say you belong to a class called the in-sect."
