

Our Cut Plug

MASTER MASON

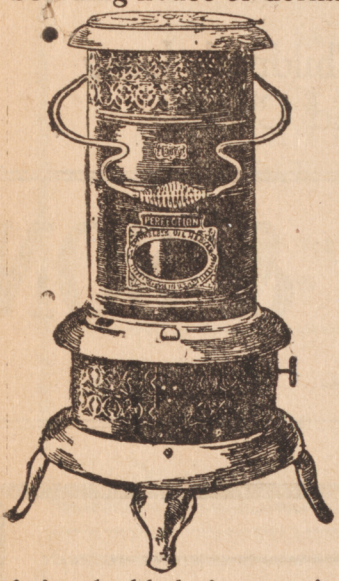

is cut from our original "AMERICAN NAVY" Plug.
A cool and most fragrant smoke. Made from the finest selected American leaf tobacco.

SOLD BY ALL DEALERS
MANUFACTURED BY
ROCK CITY TOBACCO CO.
QUEBEC

The Girl Who Lives Alone

whether she attends college or goes to business, needs the Perfection Oil Heater. It will heat a cold, cheerless boarding house or dormitory room and make it livable. • It is always a ready help in the many things women do for themselves in their rooms. With the damper top opened it will heat water for tea or cocoa; it will dry the small articles that a woman prefers to wash herself in her own room. It will quickly heat an iron or curling tongs; quickly dry wet shoes or skirts—an ever ready help for the woman who lives alone, dependent on her own resources. The

PERFECTION
SMOKELESS
OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

is invaluable in its capacity of quickly giving heat. It will burn nine hours with one filling. It is safe, smokeless and odorless; has a cool handle and a damper top.

An indicator shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain. It has an automatic locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be unscrewed in an instant for reworking. Finished in Japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

Dealers Everywhere. If not at yours, write for descriptive circular to the nearest agency of the

The Imperial Oil Company, Limited.

MOOSE HEAD BRAND

Be Sure You Buy Hand made Sporting Boots.

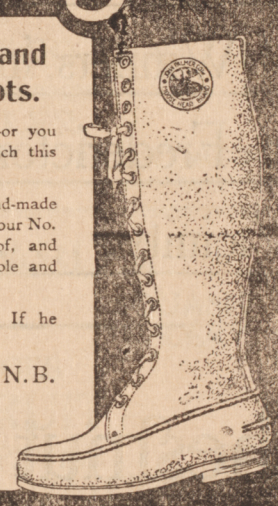

Don't buy the cheaper, machine-made sporting boots—or you will regret it. They cannot stand the rough usage to which this class of boots is subjected.

But buy Palmer's "Moose Head Brand." They are hand-made of the very best oil-tanned leather. The style shown here is our No. 40½ Knee-high Sporting Boot. A noiseless, waterproof, and very comfortable boot. Made with or without flexible sole and heel. Also made in ¾ leg length.

Ask your dealer for Palmer's "Moose Head Brand." If he cannot supply you, write us, giving dealer's name.

JOHN PALMER CO., Ltd. Fredericton, N.B.

"Skowhegan" Waterproof Paste
Nothing to equal it, at the price, yet discovered.

SOLD IN FREDERICTON BY

H. S. Campbell
MacKay & Co.

Lucy & Co.
McGoldrick & Co.

EXCLUSIVE MILLINERY

Models that express the perfect sense of color blending of the expert Millinery Creator, are featured prominently in our exposition of exquisite creations.

Call and see our close fitting turbans, our large graceful, drooping hats, our picture hats, etc.

CHILDREN'S HATS—Full line of pretty styles for children. Black, white and colored beavers and felts in drooping styles.

THE MISSES YOUNG

MILL ENDS

A great chance, something you have been waiting for. Mill Ends of Shaker Flannel, Ginghams, and Galateas, in pieces from 1 to 10 yd., goods worth 8c to 10c, mill end price, 4 and 5c yd. Ends worth 11 to 16c, mill end price, 6c, 7c, 8c yd. Also a few 10yd. ends of Wrapperette, worth 15c yd, mill end price 11c yd. And don't forget our prices on Shaker Flannel can't be beat in the province, from 6 to 11c, worth 9 to 16c.

ST. MARY'S DEPT. STORE
At End Passenger Bridge
F. S. WILLIAMS Proprietor.

BROKE THE WORLD'S AUTOMOBILE RECORD

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 11—Harris Nanashu, driving an Appoison car at the Territorial Fair Association Races yesterday, broke the world's record for a mile circular track with a stock car, his time was .56½.

OUT-DOOR WORKERS AND ZAM-BUK

How it Proves a Boon to Them in Winter

All out-door workers will find Zam-Buk a boon. For cold sores, frost bites, chapped places, etc., it is a speedy cure. Cuts and skin diseases are often made worse by the cold weather and refuse to heal. Zam-Buk will cure them.

Mr. A. J. Tyrell, of C. P. R. Camp, Black Canyon, Ashcroft, B. C., writes: "While engaged in cutting rock, my hands got badly bruised and cut, the cold weather keeping the cuts open I was advised to try Zam-Buk and sent for some. Just at that time I had the misfortune to fall over the bank upon which I was working, a distance of about forty feet, receiving some very bad scrapes and bruises. I at once applied Zam-Buk and was surprised at the way it soothed the pain and healed the broken skin. It is certainly a 'sure cure,' and I would advise all camps and out-door workers to keep a stock on hand."

Zam-Buk will also be found a sure cure for cold sores, chapped hands, frost bite, ulcers, eczema, blood-poison, varicose sores, piles, scalp sores, ring-worm, inflamed patches, babies eruptions and chapped places, cuts, burns, bruises and skin injuries generally. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price.

You are warned against harmful imitations and substitutes. See the registered name "Zam-Buk" before buying.

BIG GOLD RECEIPTS AT U. S. ASSAY OFFICE

Seattle, Wn., Nov. 11.—More than ten million dollars worth of gold has been received by the U. S. Assay Office here since the first of the year, according to a statement by the assayer yesterday.

The total amount received from January 1 to November 8 from Alaska and British Columbia is given as $10,507,621, of this amount $9,309,109 came from Alaska; $1,036,296 from British Columbia and $97,021 from the Yukon territory. Other sources in Canada contributed $64,994.

MOTHER'S LITTLE TREASURE

What mother does not look upon her baby as a little treasure. What mother would not rather suffer herself than see her precious little one suffer. The well child brings joy to the home—the sick child brings misery, despair and care. But, mothers, there is no need for your baby to be cross and ailing; even during the much dreaded teething time. What baby needs to keep him well is an occasional dose of Baby's Own Tablets. These Tablets cure all stomach and bowel troubles; destroy worms and make teething easy. Mrs. Pierre M. Cormier, New Richmond Centre, Que., writes:—"Baby's Own Tablets have been of great benefit to my little one and now he sleeps well and eats well and is happy all the time." The Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers at 25 cents a box or direct from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

TWO MEN KILLED IN MINE EXPLOSION

Hillsboro, Ill., Nov. 11.—Two men were killed and several are missing in an explosion in the mine of the Shoal Creek Coal Company, at Panama, twelve miles north of here today. Fifteen other miners were injured.

PLASTER ROCK.

Nov. 29.—A very interesting recital was held at the home of Mrs. Handford Lunn, of Plaster Rock, N. B., on the evening of Nov. 3rd, 1910. About 8 p. m. those assembled were addressed by Mr. G. H. Lunn, as chairman, and after a few words of explanation, the program was begun and carried out as follows:

Piano Solo—Miss Marion Hawkes.
Spelling Words on Staff—Miss Jennie Cummings.

Piano Solo—Miss Verna Wright.
Reading.

Piano Solo—Miss Mildred Greene.
Duet—Miss Lulu E. Johnston and Teacher.

Reading.
Song—Misses Mildred Greene and Hazel Johnston.

Duet—Stanley Greene and Teacher.
Piano Solo—Miss Lulu E. Johnston

Duet—Walter Cummings and Teacher.
Reading.

Piano Solo—Miss Hazel Johnston.
Duet—Miss Nellie Greene and Teacher.

Piano Solo—Roy LaF. Greene.
Duet—Mrs. Taylor and Teacher.

Duet—Miss Nellie Greene and Roy Greene.
Duet—Frank Lunn and Teacher.

Reading.
Duet—Miss Marion Hawkes and Teacher.

Piano Solo—Miss Campbell.

As soon as the different parts of the program were accomplished, the chairman spoke of the pleasure afforded by the different events of the program and also of the delight that the pupils had caused themselves and which was certainly evident. The chairman then extended his congratulations to, first, Mrs. Lunn as Teacher, and second, to the pupils for the success which had crowned their efforts. He, then, on his own behalf, and on the behalf of those present, extended to both teacher and pupils hearty good wishes for their successful labors in the coming days.

An excellent luncheon of cake and coffee was then served, after which a few moments were spent in listening to selections rendered by Misses Marion Hawkes, Lulu Johnston, Nellie Greene, Mrs. Chas. Vincent, Mrs. Lunn and others.

The participants of the evening's pleasure then left for their several homes, but not before extending to Mrs. Lunn their words of appreciation, congratulation, thanks and best wishes.

A number of friends were present, namely Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Greene, Mrs. A. W. Ridgwell, Mrs. S. Campbell, Mrs. R. Greene, Mrs. L. Hawkes, Mrs. G. Cummings, Mrs. T. Roberts, Mrs. E. McLean, Mrs. Chas. Vincent, E. W. Ross, Bert McBurnie and Robert McFarlane.

This recital showed that which can be accomplished by pupils guided by a prudent and vigilant tutor. The recital further showed that Mrs. Lunn is a competent tutor, and that she has a thorough mastery of her profession—or that she is a true pedagogue and not a pedant.

The orange tree is very fruitful; a single tree will produce 20,000 oranges. A good lemon tree will produce 8000 lemons.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

Nov. 11.—The Observatore Romano, in an article inspired by the Vatican, comments on a letter written by Mayor Nathan in protest against the recent introduction in the Montreal common council of a resolution censuring his speech of Sept. 28 in which he attacked the papacy as an enemy of Italian progress.

The Observatore Romano remarks that while Mayor Nathan accuses the council of Montreal of overstepping the limits of their civic prerogatives in censuring an official having no connection with them, did not he himself, overstep all limits of his civic authority when he condemned the Pope, with whom he has no connection?

"Nathan spoke as mayor," says the paper. "As such his insults against the Pope were detestable and arbitrary, far beyond those of which he complains. He passed judgment on papal acts and documents of which he was ignorant, for he is entirely without religious culture and is blinded by the hatred of the church—a hatred which holds sway in the lodges and synagogues from which he comes."

The paper ends by justifying the resolution of censure adopted by the Catholics of Montreal, on the ground that the Pope is universal and belongs to all countries.

NO MORE DISTRESS FROM STOMACH OR ANY INDIGESTION

If your meals don't fit comfortably or you feel bloated after eating, and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat likes like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations of sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your stomach, of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of Dyspepsia Sick Headache, Billiousness, Constipation, Griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapiesin will cost fifty cents at any Pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that Fermentation and Sour Stomach is causing the misery of Indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the Stomach, Nervousness or Gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapiesin will regulate any out-of-door Stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.

CANADA CEMENT CUTS PRICES

(Montreal Herald)

Notwithstanding that Cement common has had an advance of about five points in the past three weeks and that thousands of shares have been bought by apparently strong interests, nobody seems to be able to actually locate the central point of the bull campaign. Some of the company's best financial friends, and its own head officials, are absolutely at sea regarding the recent extensive purchases which have certainly not been on public speculative account. The Herald asked Mr. P. P. Jones if he could throw some light on the reason for the great activity of the stock, but it was clear that he was not aware of the actual market situation. He stated, however, that much of the buying of the stock was no doubt inspired by the fact that the company is doing remarkably well and that its gross earnings are very much in excess of the gross of 1909.

A few days ago the company reduced the price of cement an average of about ten cents per barrel. This reduction was made on Nov. 1 and was intended to equalize prices in the different parts of Canada. To effect this a reduction of as much as 15 cts. was necessary in some cases, and in others a 5 cent reduction was sufficient. It is evident from this voluntary and unexpected reduction that the company has been able to effect economies to the manufacture and distribution of its product.

A strong feature in the Cement situation is the educational campaign conducted under Mr. Jones' management. This already has shown remarkable results judging by the number of enquiries received for the book entitled "What the farmer can do with cement."