

York Municipal Councillors Want Better Terms From City

Present Basis on Which Cost of Administration of Justice is Borne not Satisfactory to Them--Peddlars will Have to Pay Stiff License Fee in Future.

The County Council on Wednesday afternoon adopted the Scott Act committee's report and ordered Inspector McFarlane's bill of $28.90 to be paid.

The committee appointed to deal with the matter of the running at large of cattle on the Islands at Kingsclear, was given an extension of time until January to report.

Coun. Reynolds moved that a type-writer be procured for the record office at a cost of $260. The resolution stipulated that the money to be paid for the machine be refunded within four years from the surplus fees of the office, or paid by the recorder out of his salary, and that a contract be entered into with the recorder upon that basis.

AN OLD STORY.

Coun. Pond said that he did not think the County was receiving fair play from the city in the matter of administration of justice. He moved that a committee be appointed to interview the City Council with a view of getting better terms.

Coun. Pond thought the city should pay at least one-half of the total cost and failing to make an arrangement on that basis the committee were empowered to go to the Government for legislation.

Coun. C. W. Pond quoted statistics to show that citizens of Fredericton spent more of their time in jail than residents of the county.

SECRETARY TREASURER BLISS.

Coun. P. Graham said that the question was one which had been much discussed, but nothing had yet come out of it. He thought the matter should be gone into thoroughly, but he scarcely believed that Secretary-Treasurer Bliss should be asked to plead the county's case as he has interests in the city.

Secretary-Treasurer Bliss discussed the matter at considerable length and gave out a lot of information in regard to past negotiations on this question. He explained that the present arrangement was the result of a compromise which had been arrived at by the city and county. Since his appointment as secretary-treasurer he had carefully watched all legislation affecting the county. When Mr. Geo. Burden was a member for York, he never failed to send him (Bliss) a printed copy of all bills affecting the county of York, and he had a similar arrangement now with Mr. Thomas Robinson. If the city and county were separate and distinct municipalities, each would have to maintain a jail and court house and the present arrangement meant a large saving for both. Not long ago Fredericton sought to put a bill through the Legislature concerning administration of justice, and, although the county authorities had not been consulted, they succeeded in having the bill thrown out.

Mr. Bliss, in conclusion, referred to some negotiations which he carried on with Mr. C. Fred Chestnut, when he was mayor of the city, with a view of arriving at a more equitable arrangement.

The resolution was adopted and the warden appointed Couns. Fred Pond, Rogers and himself as the committee.

AFTER THE COMMITTEES

It was moved and seconded that the resolution introduced by Coun. Colter in the morning be read again and the matter opened for discussion.

Coun. Fred Pond wanted to know if any committee had even had the power to spend any large amount of money in the past without the authority of the Council.

Coun. Essena was in favor of the resolution, thinking it was too late anyway to reject it.

Coun. Colter said the arguments of the morning were not good as against his resolution. He did not think he had done wrong by introducing the resolution and felt it was in the best interests of the County.

Coun. Rogers opposed the resolution on the grounds that it was taking power out of the hands of the Council.

Coun. Timmins was of the opinion that the resolution went too far. The vote was then taken 9 voting for the resolution and 14 against it. The resolution was rejected.

Coun. Everett moved seconded by Coun. Essena that a lot of land at Crock's Point be leased again for a period of 10 years to Mr. Lint.

Coun. Rogers reported for the Committee appointed to investigate the complaint of over assessment in Marysville. He recommended that the Committee be continued to the next meeting of the Council as it had not finished its work yet. The report was adopted.

Coun. C. W. Pond brought up the matter of the appointment of a new janitor for the County Court House building, in place of the late Michael McNally. He moved that the janitor be appointed by the County Council annually and a bye law enacted to that effect.

Coun. Fred Pond thought the janitor should be appointed by the building committee.

Coun. Grant agreed with Coun. Pond.

Coun. Essena wanted the matter left in the hands of the building committee.

Coun. Pond then withdrew his motion.

Coun. Timmins wanted to know if the building committee could fix the janitor's salary. He was told that it could subject to the approval of the council.

Coun. Fred Pond thought that the foreign peddlars should pay a license for their privilege which they did not do at present.

Coun. Reynolds introduced a petition from forty of the merchants doing business in York County, asking that the law be amended in York County so that all peddlars shall in future pay a license. He moved that the prayer of the merchants petition be granted.

Coun. C. W. Pond did not think a license fee should be imposed upon our own countrymen who thought best to peddle.

The resolution was carried.

It was moved and seconded that the council adjourn till tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock to give the public accounts committee a chance to prepare the books for submission to the council.

NO ONE RESPONSIBLE FOR 'HERALD' DISASTER

Jury at Inquest Returned a Non-Committal Verdict and in a Rider Urges Inspection of Overhead Tanks.

"We find that the victims died on the 13th June from the collapse of The Herald building."

"We hold no one criminally responsible, but suggest that a by-law be passed in order that overhead tanks may be inspected every three months. The jury returned at 2.20 with the above verdict."

Montreal, July 6.—The above was the verdict of the jury at the inquest on The Herald fire victims, which reopened yesterday. A number of witnesses were examined, but little new light was thrown upon the matter.

Mr. Halliway, insurance agent, in reply to the coroner, stated that he examined The Herald building before having accepted the insurance application from The Herald owners, and he was perfectly satisfied with the general state of the building, and felt quite content to take risks. He made no new suggestions, and asked for no alterations in The Herald building.

Mr. Alcide Chausse, city building inspector, was next examined at length by the coroner and Mr. Green-shields, and stated that in his opinion the stereotyping room floor collapsed before the walls fell.

The Coroner—What caused the floor to collapse?

Witness—Of course I cannot answer that, but I believe the disaster was not due to weakness in the walls immediately in the vicinity of the tank.

Mr. Guilin, government inspector, was next examined, and stated the disaster was caused, in his opinion, by the weakness of the walls, the weight above causing the walls to bulge and consequently the fall of the tank.

The Coroner—When you last examined The Herald building, before the catastrophe did you come to the conclusion that the building was unsafe, and a danger to those employed in it?

Witness—Decidedly not.

Mr. W. J. Francois, civil engineer, who produced photographs of the present state of The Herald building, in the course of lengthy technical evidence, said the cause of the disaster was a deficiency in the construction of the floor on which the heavy machinery was placed, as the floor now remaining intact would have been the very one to give way in case the tank was the cause.

Coroner—Would you erect a tank where the one was erected on The Herald building?

Witness—I did not see the building before the erection.

Coroner—Could the tank, sixty tons in weight, have played any part in the disaster?

Witness—Sixty tons of a pressure on old walls might certainly have had some effect, but the original cause of the collapse, in my opinion, was in the floor construction.

Mr. Green-shields—Could the tank have caused the floor to collapse?

Witness—No. The weight of the tank

PRINCE RADZIWIŁŁ MARRIES AMERICAN GIRL

London, July 5.—Miss Dorothy Deacon, daughter of the late Edward Parker Deacon, and Prince Antoine Albert Radziwiłł, were married in St. Mary's Church, Cadogan Square, today. The ceremony was a quiet one, without bridesmaids, and only a few relatives and near friends attended. Lord Grey De Ruthyn gave the bride away.

Prince Radziwiłł is 25 years old and will succeed his father Prince George, as head of the great Polish family of Radziwiłł, which owns immense tracts in Lithuania and several castles. His father is confined in an insane asylum. The bride's father died in an asylum in America some years ago, after a scandal in France which resulted in his divorce. A sister, Miss Gladys Deacon, is noted for her beauty and has at different times been reported to be engaged to members of noble European families.

BALFOUR, LEADER OF BRITISH OPPOSITION, STRONG PERSONALITY

Mr. Arthur J. Balfour, the leader of the opposition in the British House of Commons, is very reserved, dislikes publicity, abhors interviews, is supposed never to read the newspapers, hates trouble, and has no joy in the turmoil and strife of the House of Commons. Once when he was premier Mr. Chamberlain read to him a scathing article suggesting that he should give up politics and confine himself to golf. "I wish I could," he sighed; and then added by way of afterthought, "There are plenty of better politicians on the Press." On another occasion he was more emphatic. "If I had a son whom I loved," he said, "I would pray that he might never be tempted to become a politician."

For a Scot the leader of the opposition is not sufficiently keen about his descent. It is different with his cousin of Balbirnie. The Laird of Balbirnie is the head of the family. A few years ago he introduced to the Empress Eugenie at Biarritz, "Ah," said the Empress graciously, "a cousin of Mr. Arthur Balfour, I presume?" "Well, no," quote the Laird, "not exactly; Mr. Arthur Balfour is a cousin of ours."

The manner of his acceptance of the office of Chief Secretary of Ireland was characteristic of Mr. Balfour. He went straight off to Sir William Jenner and told him the circumstances. "Just overhaul me," he said, "and tell me if I'm strong enough to do the work thoroughly." Jenner examined him "Go ahead," he said. "It will do you good." And
