GERMAN AERONAUTS DROWNED IN BALTIC

Balloon Met With Series of Accidents
Before Breaking Away--Occupants Fell Into Sea.

Stettin, Germany, April 3.—The German balloon Pommern which made an ascension here this afternoon, met with a series of accidents which ended in a disaster under most tragic circumstances in the Baltic sea. Three Radical members of the Reichstag, Werner Hugo del Brueck, Herr del Brueck and another member of the party were drowned, a third occupant of the car was picked up unconscious and died from his injuries while the fourth was rescued in a serious condition.

The Pommern carrying del Brueck, who was acting as pilot, a banker, Herr Semmelhardt, an architect, Herr Benduhn, and a man named Hein, ascended early in the afternoon at the gas works. The wind at the time was blowing a hurricane, and the Pommern broke away before she had been completely blasted.

A chapter of accidents began immediately. The balloon collided with telegraph wires, which broke, almost overturning the basket. It then dashed into the roof of a neighboring factory destroying smokestack. With basket swaying wildly, and half of its ropes cut, the balloon soared to a great altitude and disappeared in the clouds at a terrific speed.

The crowds of on-lookers, including a detachment of military, which had assisted in the ascent, ran along the roads, expecting the basket to break away. The balloon, however, was not seen again until it reached Swinemunde, thirty-six miles northwest of Stettin, over which it passed at a height of 6,000 feet in the direction of the sea. Tugs followed in its track and one of them which had out-distanced the others, was almost directly under it, when suddenly the balloon fell into the sea. The tug steamed to the spot quickly but the rescue work was difficult. Already del Brueck and Benduhn had disappeared but Semmelhardt and Hein were clinging to the ropes and they were dragged aboard the vessel.

Hein died soon after being taken on the tug and del Brueck's body was washed ashore this evening.

The Pommern, with the aeronaut Oscar Erbsloeh in command won the international galloon race at St. Louis in 1907.

BUDGET OF NEWS FROM MARYSVILLE

A Satisfactory Explanation of Love
Story in Which Marysville Young Man is Involved.

April 3.—In reference to an article in Saturday's Telegraph and copied in The Mail, under the caption, "Fiancee in St. John, Man Fails to Appear," it is a mistake all round. The young man was in no way to blame, as the young lady gave him to understand that she would sail on a steamer landing at St. John. Then she found she could not get a sailing as the steamer was already crowded. She then wrote to the young man, telling him she would sail by the Grampian, which lands at Halifax. The young man enquired and they told him at a shipping office that the Grampian had been taken off the route, so the next word he had was that the young woman was in St. John, having arrived by train from Halifax and, not finding him there to meet her, was naturally very much concerned. However, she was met by a brother of her fiance and came to Fredericton, where matters were made all right. It was not the intention of the couple to be married at present. The young lady is now the guest of the man's sister at Cardigan, N. B. The young man in question is employed in Marysville, but not in the cotton mill.

Miss Mary Gibson leaves on Tuesday morning for Sackville to resume her studies at Mount Allison, accompanied as far as Fredericton Junction by her mother, Mrs. Alex. Gibson, Jr. Miss Gibson expects to join the Borden party in June on a trip on the continent.

The performance of "Pinafore" is being looked forward to with a great deal of interest. Your correspondent can recommend it as the best of the comic operas, having heard it several times, both professional and amateur. It is to be hoped the railway management will put on a late train on the evenings of April 7th and 8th.

FIRE DOES GREAT DAMAGE

Omaha, April 4.—Fire last night destroyed the 1,000,000 bushel central grain elevator, owned by the Nye, Schneider, Fowler Company, the Maney Milling Company's plant, and nearly 100 box cars. The total loss is $500,000. The independent elevator the property of the Great Western Railroad Company, was a fire several times, but being of steel construction withstood the flames.

TROUBLE IN CANARSIE MADE BY ONE EGG

It is All Right Now, However, Mrs.
Gemar Kissed Mrs. Penninger in Court.

New York, April 3.—Canarsie is jubilant. Flags are at full staff. The Great Egg Mystery has been solved. Its other title was: "Whose Hen Laid the Egg that Cadged Twenty-two fights, broke Eighteen Friendships and led to the Arrest of the Heads of Two Eminent Respectable Families, the Gemars and the Penningers?"

To while away the time until Mrs. Gemar and Mrs. Penninger arrived in the Flatbush court Saturday, Magistrate Nash read the copious minutes of the past hearings. He went back to the day three weeks ago when little Elsie Gemar found an egg on the line between the Gemar and the Penninger lots. Elsie took the egg to her mother. On the way thither Dorothy Penninger set up a howl that the egg belonged to her mother because a Penninger hen had laid it. The screams of the children brought the mothers. Each parent championed the cause of her daughter. Then hair flew. Neighbors tried to end the battle, but only made it worse. The combat ended in the Gemars and Penningers separating, going to their own homes and vowing eternal hatred.

That night William Gemar had a visitor in his yard. He pointed out Penninger and called him "a meddler in the affairs of women." Penninger leaped the fence and his fist landed on Gemar's face.

All hands were in the Flatbush court the next morning to have the ownership of the egg decided. The problem was so difficult that Magistrate Nash three times postponed the giving of a solution. Meantime he consulted brother magistrates and all the law books pertaining to the subject. Saturday in the crowded court he looked up indignantly as women's laughter sounded outside the door. As Peter Dalton, court officer, started out to rebuke the merry ones Mrs. Penninger and Mrs. Gemar entered the room.

Each had an arm about the other's waist, and in that loving fashion they approached the bench. At sight of the mortal enemies in that embrace their husbands' jaws dropped in amazement. The magistrate sat as one dazed.

Then, as the crowd stared and gasped, Mrs. Gemar kissed Mrs. Penninger. Turning to the court she begged him to forgive her neighbor for any offenses against the peace of the community.

When he had recovered his voice and composure, Magistrate Nash said: "As Elsie Gemar found this egg, and the Penningers are unable to prove it was laid by one of their hens I think it would be fowl if I decided anything else but that the egg belongs to the finder. Therefore the assault of Mrs. Penninger upon Mrs. Gemar was unjustifiable, so I am placing her in $100 bonds to keep the peace for six months. Stop this clattering and all of you go home. I'm through with this case."

THE OPERA CHORUS.

The college boys, who form the bulk of the sailors in the opera Pinafore, have gone into the affair with great zest, and the sailors' choruses promise to be one of the most enjoyable features of Thursday's and Friday's performances. In spite of the semi-burlesque nature of the words, the chorus "He is an Englishman," is really inspiring, and, as given by the boys, with the help of the ladies, is worth going a long way to hear.—d.

St. Louis, Mo., April 4.—More than 2,000,000 packages of matches went up in smoke last night during a spectacular fire that destroyed two adjoining factories of the Diamond Match Company, with a total loss of $175,000.
