HEDGEWOOD BOY WILL RACE IN SHOES OF NEW DESIGN

This Horse has Gait so Peculiar that Special Shoes were Constructed--Expected to Stop His Cross-Firing.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 22—Hedge wood Boy, 2.024, going good gaited, will be as hard to beat as any horse now in training.

This statement is acknowledged to be true by all those who have watched the performances of the greatest son of Chitwood.

It was proven a year ago last fall when all of the fastest pacers found Hedge wood Boy a most difficult proposition. At that time the great stallion was going smooth and experts were predicting great things for him as a race horse, and they contended that he would soon join the two minute brigade. These predictions did not come true in 1909, as at no time did Hedge wood Boy show the class of the year before and he seemed to be retrograding, so that by the end of the season the other fast pacers were able to defeat him easily. He went rough, crossfired, and seemed to have lost his ability to pace with anything like the stride that is necessary for two-minute miles.

M. W. Savage was aware of these facts when he took possession of Hedge wood Boy this spring. That did not bother him because he like a great many other of the best horsemen in the country, has unusual confidence in the ability of his farrier, R. E. Nash, who is known all over the United States as the most expert shoer of world champion horses. Since Hedge wood Boy was received at Savage's farm Mr. Nash has made a careful and scientific study of his peculiar gait, and what he has learned this spring together with what he already knew of the horse has been applied and has brought results.

STACK AND KARGER LEAD BIG PITCHERS, UNDEFEATED

Following are the records of the twelve leading box men of the National League who have taken part in three or more games. Leonard Cole, the wonderful young pitcher of the Chicago Cubs, suffered two defeats last week, one being handed him on the ball field and the other in the headquarters of the league.

His first legitimate defeat came about at the hands of the Brooklyn team, but only after he had stubbornly contested by pitching a beautiful game. Preceding this defeat, however, the secretary of the league withdrew one of the victories credited to him and added it to Mordecai Brown's somewhat pitiful average.

The only pitcher in the National League boasting a clean slate is young Stack, who was sold to the Phillies a month ago by the Cubs. He has pitched three successful games, and very few hits were made against him. Suggs of Cincinnati Reds, won and lost a game last week. He has been the most successful of the Red pitchers. Cy Barger of the Brooklyn is rendering a good account of himself this year and figures high in the records.

The records, including Saturday's games:

	W.	L.	P.C.
Stack, Philadelphia,	3	0	1.000
Cole, Chicago,	7	1	.875
Matthewson, New York,	9	2	.818
Rowan, Cincinnati,	4	1	.800
Crandall, New York,	3	1	.750
Pfister, Chicago,	3	1	.750
Suggs, Cincinnati,	3	3	.727
Adams, Pittsburgh,	5	2	.714
Burns, Cincinnati,	2	1	.666
Lush, St. Louis,	6	3	.666
Overall, Chicago,	6	3	.666
Wiltse, New York,	4	2	.666

Following are the records of the twelve leading men of the American League who have taken part in three or more games. Eddie Karger added another victory to his credit last week and as Willett of Detroit lost a game to the Red Sox, the Boston man is again the only pitcher who appears with a clean record.

Ford, the young New York American pitcher, is second. He was successful in all but one game, of the present triumphant tour of the west by the Highlanders.

Bender dropped a game to the White Sox Saturday, his second defeat of the season. George Mullin of Detroit, lost a game last week. He is pitching excellent ball for the Tigers, and his record of 12 out of 15 gives some idea of the smooth ball he is pitching. Jack Coombs, the ex-Colby college man of the Athletics, is ranking high among the boxmen and his work has been classy this year.

Another Detroit man who figures among the leading pitchers is Ed Killian, the big southpaw, who had an easy time vanquishing the Red Sox early in the week. Cicotte of the Red Sox, shows up strongly in the records. The records, including Saturday's games:

	W.	L.	P.C.
Karger, Boston,	4	0	1.000
Ford, New York,	8	1	.888
Bender, Philadelphia,	10	2	.833
Willett, Detroit,	4	1	.800
Mullin, Detroit,	12	3	.800
Vaughn, New York,	7	2	.777
Killian, Detroit,	3	1	.750
Coombs, Philadelphia,	6	2	.750
Cicotte, Boston,	5	2	.714
Waddell, St. Louis,	2	1	.666
Plank, Philadelphia,	6	3	.666
Olmstead, Chicago,	2	1	.666

BASEBALL TONIGHT

AT TROTTHING PARK

The first game of the series between the Palmer's Tannery team and the picked nine, will be played tonight at the Trotting Park. The picked team will line up as follows:

Catcher, Dolan; pitcher, Brewer; 1st Base, Babbitt; 2nd base, Ryan; 3rd base, Malloy; short stop, Roberts; left field, Wandlass; centre field, Johnson; right field, W. Hughes.

The dates of the other games of the series will be decided on later.

Harves James and George Loomis are going to try the Dakota circuits.

Kid Sheehan has been matched to box Young McIntyre in Sydney C.B., July 4.

PAPKE WON FROM JACK TWIN SULLIVAN

Boston, June 21.—Billy Papke, of Il- linois, and Jack "Twin" Sullivan, of Boston, fought each other with short arm jabs in clinches for two rounds at the Armory Athletic Association tonight, the referee giving the decision to the Illinois fighter. The bout was slow and mostly uninteresting, there being no open sparring and straight hitting. Papke had Sullivan bleeding freely at the nose and mouth from the second round, and kept up a steady jabbing on the face throughout, vary- ing with short arm punches to the body in the clinches. Neither fighter seemed to exert himself to the fullest. Papke was the aggressor, while Sul- livan did some clever blocking and defence work.

In the preliminaries, Tom Flanagan of Cambridge, knocked out Dick Thomas, of Orange, in the third round and Tom Kennedy, of Boston, won the decision from Bob Lefavor, of Brock- ton, in eight rounds.

COOMBS' TEAM WON FROM RALPH GOOD'S

Waterville, Me., June 20.—The Colby 1909 championship baseball team, with Jack Coombs of the Philadel- phia Athletics in the box, defeated the 1910 team with Ralph Good, who has been signed by the Boston Am- ericans, pitching today, 3 to 1.

Coombs was presented a massive framed picture of the college grounds and buildings.

CLIPPERS' NEW PITCHER

The St. John Clippers have import- ed a pitcher from Boston who will be on the mound this evening. His name is Jack McGovern. The new twirler is a brother of "Terry" who was the reception committee for the St. John Roses when that club was playing real baseball.

DIAMOND DUST

Mike Joyce, the Lewiston boy, for years with Montreal, has been dispo- sed of to the Wilkesbarre team.

San Francisco leads the Pacific Coast league with 32 won and 18 lost. Sacramento is last with 22 won and 45 lost.

Tom Tuckey is pitching winning ball for Mike Finn's Waterbury team.

Good shortstops are the most diffi- cult players to find in baseball at the present time.

On Wednesday Joe Kelley, manager of the Toronto club, sent Pres. P. L. Powers a telegram in regard to play- ing off a postponed game. Pres. Pow- ers took exceptions to the telegram and fined Kelley $25 and suspended him indefinitely.

Joe Cantillon has an even dozen old major league players on his Minne- apolis club. Hobe Ferris is fielding in fine style at third and hitting at a .285 clip.

Writing from Philadelphia to the Cincinnati Enquirer, Jack Ryder says: "The attendance was 3100 not so many as Boston turns out to the average week day game. The Phil- lies are not setting the world on fire in any way, and no one thought they would under the conditions here, with the club being run as a purely com- mercial venture by its foreign own- ers."

It is a question whether Heilmuller or Houser is the biggest man in the major leagues. The one who isn't the largest gets second place. Heilmuller is probably considered the heavier, but Houser seems to be taller—De- troit Free Press.

Hal Chase is the burning sensation about New York. His play at first base is startling, at times, and when one figures Chase, Ford and a few others on the staff of the Highland- ers, he can easily understand why the Stallings gang is up near the top.

George Stallings is more popular in Gotham than McGraw, who is pilot- ing second-place contenders in the old circuit. Besides being a good baseball general, it cannot be forgot- ten that Stallings is some David Har- um when it comes to selling players.

Neal Ball was sold to Cleveland for $5,000 and Washington paid the same price for Kid Elberfeld. Detroit put up $6,000 for George Moriarty, and the Bostonians have just paid $2,500 for Clyde Engle and $2,500 for Kleinow.

Rochester gave $2,000 for Blair, and so on. Yet Stallings seems to have a better team than ever.

BOXING GOSSIP

Eddie Carr and Young Dyson will meet again in New Bedford next Mon- day night.

Mysterious Billy Smith met Al Neil an old-timer like himself in a 10- round bout at Portland, Or., the oth- er night, and Smith bested him in 20 rounds.

George Alger and Pat Rocco are billed for the feature bout at the American A. C. Boston, next Thurs- day night. Don Vincent and Tony Lorenzo will meet in one of the pre- liminaries.

Promoter McCarey of Los Angeles has cut down the number of rounds in the Owen Moran and Abe Attell bout to 10 and expects to be able to pull it off next Friday night. It will cause a lot of comment if McCar- ey gets away with it.
