SINISTER RUMOURS
REGARDING CAMERON
MUST BE PROBED

Question is Asked "Was He Doped" During His Race with Sterling on Saturday Night.

His Subsequent State of Collapse Regarded as Very Suspicious.

St. John, May 23.—(Special).—There is a rumor regarding the runner Cameron which ought to be set at rest. After Saturday night's race with Sterling, he needed the attendance of a physician and it is stated that he was in bad shape and that he will not be permitted to run again for some time. The rumor is that something which his trainer gave him on a sponge when he made the sprint which headed Sterling near the end of the third mile was not only largely responsible for the spurt and the winning of the race, but for his subsequent state of collapse.

The Times says: "Is there any foundation for the whisper that Cameron is given dope? The question should be promptly and authoritatively answered both in the interests of Cameron and of amateur sport."

INDIAN IMMIGRANT HAS HAD VARIED CAREER

Philadelphia, Pa., May 23.—It took the immigration officers at the Philadelphia port several hours yesterday to decide whether John Genish, a Penobscot Indian of pure blood, should be admitted to the United States. They finally allowed him to land and now Genish is on his way to New England, where his forefathers were lords of all they surveyed before the coming of the white man.

The Indian arrived in port as a stowaway on the British steamer Eastpoint from London. He told the immigration officers that he started out to see the world from St. John, N. B., as a fireman on a steamer. When he reached London he got stranded and to get back to the United States he hid himself in the coal bunkers of the Eastpoint.

A CLEVER PREACHER.
Rev. Frederick Porter of Liverpool N.S., formerly of this city, occupied the pulpit of the Brunswick Street Baptist Church yesterday morning, acquitting himself most creditably. The members of the Porter family who are here for the reunion occupied their old pew during the service. It is needless to say all are receiving a hearty welcome from their old friends here. Next Sunday, Dr. Harry Porter of Kentucky will preach at the Brunswick Street Baptist Church.

THE FISHING SEASON

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Chestnut left Saturday evening for a canoeing and fishing trip on the Magaguadavic River.

MYSTERY OF GIRL'S DISAPPEARANCE ENDS IN MURDER CHARGE

Accused Man Stoutly Affirms that His Woman Companion Died as the Result of an Accident.

Says His Reason for Disappearing was Because He was Unnerved.

Atlantic City, N.J., May 23.—Unvented bustle and activity about the ancient court house at Mays Landing N.J. today denoted important happenings for the usually quiet community. William T. Seyler was called to trial charged with murdering 18 year old Jane Adams and a definite solution of the mystery surrounding the girl's death was anxiously awaited.

With its customary swiftness, Jersey justice was expected to move speedily through the selection of a jury to try the married man accused of doing to death the girl whom he accompanied to the pier on the ocean front of this city on the night of February 4 last, and whose body bruised and broken came ashore more than a week later on the beach below. It was indicated by prosecutor Goldenburg that his outline of the case against Seyler would show what he considered a strong chain of circumstantial evidence, that the prisoner was directly responsible for the girl's death. He expected to be able to combat successfully the contention of Edmund C. Gaskill, the prisoners counsel that Miss Adams fell accidentally from the edge of the pier and that when she came in contact with the frame work under the pier she sustained the wounds about her head that the body bore when it was washed upon the beach. The salient facts regarding the alleged crime, chiefly brought out by the story of Alice Adams, sister of the dead girl, show first that Jane and Alice Adams accompanied William Seyler and his brother Orvis to a concert on the ocean pier. The party according to Alice, watched the dancing for a while and then went to the dimly lighted end of the pier. Alice and Orvis left the other two there. Jane Adams was not afterwards seen alive.

When a search for the girl began and Jane Adams' mother went to the Seyler home and demanded to know where her daughter was, Seyler was reported to have said that he left the girl at the pier. The Seyler brother disappeared the next day but was found and arrested in Petersburg Va. William Seyler was held on a charge of murder and Orvis was detained as a witness.

Seyler had stoutly maintained that the girl's death was the result of an accident and that the only reason he ran away was because he became momentarily unnerved when Mrs. Adams accused him of knowing where her daughter was.

U. S. SUGAR REFINING SCANDAL AIRED TODAY

New York, N.Y., May 23.—The trump card in the prosecution in the Charles H. Heike, secretary of the American Sugar Refining Company, the so-called "Manhighup," was played at the opening of the sugar trust underweighing conspiracy trial today, when Prosecutor Henry L. Stimson, called as the government's first witness Oliver Spitzer, superintendent of the Williamsburg docks, who some months ago was convicted of underweighing and sentenced to two years in the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta.

Spitzer was accompanied into court by Chas. Flynn of the secret service. When he took the stand, Lawyer John B. Stanchfield of the defense, claimed that under the federal statute, Spitzer, as a convicted man, could not testify. The sensation of the trial was then created by the declaration in court that Spitzer had been pardoned by President Taft.

EARTHQUAKE IN FRANCE

Adge, France, May 23.—An earthquake was felt here at dawn. The movement continued for two seconds.

THE ILL FATED DIRIGIBLE

COUNT ZEPPELIN'S AIRSHIP IN FLIGHT

Two of Europe's largest military airships were destroyed a few days ago under similar conditions, both meeting disaster because of high winds catching them while at anchor, sweeping them away, to be later wrecked. The Zeppelin II, of the German government's aerial fleet an enormous dirigible of the rigid type of construction, was one of the doomed craft; the British government's non-rigid airship was the other.

An arial Derby from London to Manchester was won by Mons. Louis Paulhan, the French aeronaut thereby winning the $50,000 prize.

THE BIG FIGHT MEETS WITH MUCH OPPOSITION

Efforts are Being Made to Prevent Fight Taking Place in 'Frisco

San Francisco, May 23.—Resolutions condemning prize fighting as "dangerous, degrading and demoralizing," have been adopted by the congregation of the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church. An appeal will be made to Governor Gillett, Mayor McCarthy and Chief of Police Martin to use their influence to prevent further fistie encounters in this city. Rev. Leslie Briggs, pastor of the Bethany Congregational Church, in his sermon last night declared that boxing contests as conducted in England were fair sport, but he denounced the manner in which glove matches are held in California. He said that every effort would be made to stop the Johnson-Jeffries battle. Attorney J. E. White, representing the city churches, federation said he felt safe in stating the fight would not take place.

S. S. CONVENTION AND THE COLOR QUESTION

Washington, May 23.—Discussion was held today in the world's sixth Sunday School Convention over the criticisms which some of the British delegates publicly heaped upon the Washington committee in the church yesterday for barring the negro delegates of the district of Columbia from the mammoth parade last Friday.

With two exceptions the criticisms were made by white men, and in addition to the English speakers, two American delegates, W. N. Hart, of Boston and Louis Streiber of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn denounced the drawing of the color line. The Rev. John L. Dube, a Zulu delegate got up at one of the meetings and declared that he had been admitted to hotels in London and New York but not so in Washington. The whole incident has stirred up varied feelings and it was not improbable that the question would be carried into the convention. The day's work begun with eight simultaneous conferences in which teachers assembled in divisions and discussed the special branches of work they followed and then re-assembled in Convention Hall where the results and recommendations of the conferences were presented to the convention and discussed. The afternoon session was divided into two simultaneous meetings at which reports from the field were read.

St. Thomas, Ont., May 23.—Two special Michigan Central Railway trains carrying delegates to the brotherhood of locomotive engineers convention in Detroit to Niagara Falls, made world's record Saturday. First train, ran 224 miles without stop in 224 minutes and second train covered distance in 217 minutes.

THE STOCK MARKET RATHER SLUGGISH

A Slight Sag in Most of the Big Issues on Wall Street.

New York, N.Y., May 23.—Wall Street—There was considerable volume of orders for execution in the opening stock market, but the price movement was narrow and irregular. Realizing sales had set in on the London market on the earlier advance there before business began here. A rise of a point in Missouri Pacific, was the only conspicuous change in the active list. Lake Erie and Western Pfd. sold at a decline of one and three eighths.

JEFFRIES SAID TO BE NOW IN PERFECT TRIM

His Supporters Would be Very Glad to see Fight Come off Earlier

Ben Lomond, Calif. May 23.—Promoter Fack Gleason, who paid his first visit yesterday to Jeffries' training camp here, has returned to San Francisco extolling the condition in which he found the big fighter. "I was thunderstruck at the change I noted in Jeffries," Gleason declared, "I saw him stripped in Los Angeles a year ago and I think he must have weighed fully 290 pounds at that time. Now he is clean of all surplus flesh, and he looks to be in as good shape as he ever was. His improvement I think is marvelous. He told me he would like to take on Johnson in two weeks, and I guess his friends would like nothing better than to advance the date of the big fight. The only thing that can possibly spoil him is over-training." Promoter Tex. Rickard, who also witnessed Jeffries fast work-outs had a chat with the former champion about the referee matter. Rickard says he told Jeffries that he was now thoroughly anxious to preside over the contest and felt entirely fit to do so if the principals endorsed him. He was reassured by Jeffries who said: "Go ahead Tex and referee. I have every confidence in your ability and I'm tickled to have you on the job."

AVIATION MEETS ARE NOW BECOMING POPULAR

Omaha, Neb., May 23.—Announcement was made today that this city is to have an aviation meet of five days beginning July 9th. A telegram from Glenn H. Curtis indicated that terms offered by the Aero Club of Nebraska have been accepted, and that either Curtis, Charles Hamilton or C. J. Mare, will make flights on each of the five days.

A EUROPEAN TOUR.

A party composed of Misses Margaret Lynds, Edna Golding, Ethel Smith and Agnes and Hazel Kitchen of this city and Miss Louise Wetmore of St. Ann de Bellevue, P.Q. are to leave on Wednesday on a three months' trip to Europe. They go by rail to New York, where they embark by steamer to Naples, afterwards touring the principal countries of the old world. Miss Lynds is the efficient teacher of elocution and physical culture at the Normal school and this afternoon she was waited upon by the members of class A2 and made the recipient of a handsome bouquet. The presentation was made by Mr. Kelly for the class and Miss Lynds made a suitable acknowledgement.

AFFAIRS OF BIG
U. S. GRAIN FIRM
IN FINANCIAL TANGLE

No Less than Eighty-Nine Banks Hold Firms' Paper Besides Some Other securities.

Manipulation of Receipts Permitted of Bills Being Used More than Once.

Albany, N.Y., May 23.—Through the alleged manipulation of various receipts the firm of Durant and Elmore grain merchants with offices in Albany, Chicago, Buffalo and Boston, has become involved in a financial tangle which promised sensational developments. The National Commercial Bank of Albany holds the company's paper for $300,000.

The First National bank has $77,500 and many thousands more are said to have been secured from out of town institutions.

According to statement by vice president Jas. J. Perkins of the National Commercial Bank, the company is "hopelessly involved."

"We are informed," says Mr. Perkins "that eighty nine banks hold the firms' paper besides grains from brokers with which the firm has dealt and a number of individuals." The exact condition of the firms' affairs is not known but an examination is under way.

Gibson Oliver, treasurer of the company had charge of the affairs of its Albany office, according to members of the firm, but no statement from him as to the alleged shortage has been forthcoming. Edwin W. Elmore a member of the firm who was summoned from Chicago, is assisting in the examination.

The scheme by which the money is alleged to have been secured is a simple one. As soon as a carload of grain was shipped from Chicago for the local firm, the manager received a warehouse receipt. This was in the regular course of business. Later on the warehouse receipts are said to have been so manipulated as to make possible the heavy loans from the banks upon the bills as security. The man whose duty is said to have been to take up the warehouse receipts when the grain was actually delivered by the railroad company it is alleged, did not do so and hence the genuine bills were used over again.

THE DESTRUCTION OF OUR SHADE TREES

To the Editor of The Mail:

Sir:—Why is it that there is not a sentiment sufficiently strong to demand that the gangs of workmen—whether in the employ of private corporations or of the city corporation—who are from time to time upon the streets of this city, should respect the public property? Day after day you cannot pass along the streets without seeing some tree that has been destroyed or seriously damaged by them. Fredericton's chief attraction is its trees. They are beautiful and they are useful. We should therefore see to it that they are protected.

Last week I saw one on Regent St. cut in two; there appeared to be no object in view other than a vandal might have. Today I found that a maple tree that stands in front of my house had been practically destroyed. There could be no reason for it. Before it had been attacked by this local variety of "brown tails" it was one of the finest maples in the city; today it is one of the most wretched.

The great majority of our people is against this destruction. Is it not possible to raise a sentiment that will compel these men to spare the trees of Fredericton?

Yours truly,

P. J. HUGHES.

THE JAPANESE HONEYMOON

Constance Skinner, in her review of "The Japanese Hymn," when it was produced in Chicago, last season, writes as follows: "As I said before, there are a dozen or more fetching ensembles, delightful music and the whole performance moves with a verve and spirit that tingle the nerves and sweep you laughing on with it." That is the reason the

ANOTHER POISONING
MYSTERY BEFORE
AMERICAN COURT

Doctor and His Wife Charged with Causing Death of Alleged Former Husband of Woman.

Defence is that She was Under Influence of Morphine.

St. Louis, Mo., May 23.—Mrs. Dora Elizabeth Dorey, who with her husband, Dr. Loren Dorey is under indictment on the charge of murdering William J. Erder, who it is alleged she married, was placed on trial here today. The defence asked a severance of the trials and the state elected to try the woman first.

It is charged that when she was the wife of Erder and also that of Dorey, she poisoned Erder with arsenic. It developed at the coroners inquest that Erder ate heartily of a black berry pie shortly before his fatal illness. Erder died in a convulsion July 10, 1909 and shortly after it is charged Mrs. Dorey sent Erder's furniture to the home of Dorey in Columbus Neb. Mrs. Dorey collected orders of life insurance. Mrs. Dorey now admits she was the wife of Dorey. She was not responsible for her act as she was under the influence of morphine which her husband sent her. The defence will claim that Erder took patent medicines.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE FROM BURNING BUILDING

New York, May 23.—Sensational rescues by firemen prevented more than one death by fire in a blazing tenement on East 70th Street today. As it was, Mrs. Mary Miller died in a fireman's arms from the effect of smoke inhalation after she had been dragged to the roof, while her husband, William Miller, clutching the seven months old son of the couple unconscious and suffering from burns was rescued just in time by another fireman.

Meanwhile numbers of tenants were being carried down ladders and dropped into life nets. Fully forty persons were taken in this way from the burning structure where members of sixteen families had been trapped.

PARISIAN DUELLISTS IN SAVAGE ENCOUNTER

Three Duels are Fought Without Either Party Receiving Much Damage, so that Neither Feels Satisfied.

Paris, May 23.—Count Ismael DeLesseps and Count Just DePoligny fought their third duel today and each received a bullet wound. At the second exchange DeLesseps' bullet struck the barrel of DePoligny's pistol and ricocheting caused a flesh wound in the latter's arm. At the same moment DeLesseps fell through the thigh. He was removed to an hospital where it was found that the ball just missed the femoral artery. The wound is not fatal.

DeLesseps is a son of Count Ferdinand DeLesseps and an officer of a cavalry regiment. Some weeks ago he quarrelled with DePoligny and blows were exchanged.

On May 3rd they met in a former encounter with swords in the Parc des Princesses, the scene of today's duel. DePoligny is lame and after a round of sword play during which neither was injured, the seconds called a halt. Subsequently pistols were submitted for the swords and six shots were exchanged. None of the bullets found its mark and the antagonists left the field without a reconciliation.

musical comedy was such a big hit in that city and New York and Boston, and is playing to the same big audiences wherever it goes. It is a girly show, full of good comedy and catchy music and affords an evening's entertainment that no theatre-goer should miss. It will be the attraction at the opera house tomorrow night.
