SUCCESS OF REVOLUTION HAS STIRRED BARCELONA

Fires of Rebellion
Smouldering for the Past Year

Difficulties Already Confronting Revolutionary Leaders in Portugal—
The Clergy Subjected to Most Brutal Outrages.

DR. JAMES GRANT

Barcelona, Spain, Oct. 10.—A state of increasing excitement reigns in Barcelona. The success of the revolution in Portugal appears to have fanned the fire of rebellion that has smouldered since the furious outbreak of a year ago. There was the greatest animation in the streets today. The people pretend not to notice the patrol and civil guard which are being strengthened gradually in preparation for eventualities on Oct. 13, the anniversary of the execution of Prof. Francisco Ferrer, the director of the modern school of Barcelona, who was convicted of having incited last year's revolutionary movement.

Gen. Weyler, Captain General of Catalonia, admits that the strike of miners here is taking on a revolutionary character, he says that his orders are to suppress any active disloyalty with a firm hand. Ten thousands stern faced miners marched to the cemetery in the suburbs yesterday and placed wreaths upon the tombs of Ferrer and the revolutionist Mara, who was executed in consequence of what has become known as "Bloody Week."

Violent speeches were made by leaders of the miners who flayed the clerics charging them with responsibility for the executions.

The military and police forced the manifestants to return to Barcelona in small groups.

BRUTAL OUTRAGES

Lisbon, Oct. 10.—The revolutionary leaders having overthrown the monarchy are now confronted with the scarcely less serious task of putting an end to the excesses on the part of the rougher element of their own followers, who having had a taste of mob rule, are prone to continue lawlessness.

The decree of summary banishment for the religious orders gave excuse for brutal outrages against the clergy. The provisional government has now recognized the seriousness of the situation and today the police took severe measures to prevent the population seeking the religious establishments and to check the demonstrations against the religionists pending their expulsion. Reports that the clerics were carrying on a guerrilla warfare from the windows of their establishments inflamed the public resentment against the religionists, many of whom were chased from their churches and convents.

The mob which battered down the doors of the convent in the Rue do Oulhas was led by fanatics and a gang of ruffians who seized the occasion to destroy everything in sight.

Images and statues were wrecked from the niches in the chapels, altars were wrecked, furniture broken and the sacred vestments were carried off by the rioters. Later the police recovered the greater part of the vestments. In the district in which are located Santos Church and the French Legation, was started by the crack of rifles and at once a report was started that the religionists were firing from the windows of their church. The crowd flocked to the scene, but the military arrived in time to protect the church and the legation from possible violence.

RELIGIONISTS ARRESTED

Arrests of disguised and fleeing religionists continued today. The discovery of secret subterranean tunnels set afoot the story that many monks were hiding under ground waiting for a favorable opportunity to emerge and fight against the new regime. To satisfy the crowd, the military started subterranean search and in one instance went so far as to dig a trench to locate a suspected tunnel. As was the case at the Barcelona riots, the popular feeling seems to be restricted to the monks and nuns and does not manifest itself toward the secular clergy. With doubtful expediency, the bodies of Prof. Bombarda and Admiral Reis, the revolutionaries remain exposed at the city hall. The republican flag hangs from the caskets between which a bust typifying the republic is draped in black. Throughout Sunday the city was in festival garb.

Thousands came in from the country districts and visited the scenes of the recent fighting. They wore medals in the form of republican emblems and carried improvised republican flags. The bands played the republican hymn and the artillery fired salutes in honor of the members of the ministry and other leaders of the revolutionary committee, who drove from place to place amid the cheers of the populace.

GOING TO ENGLAND.

Gibraltar, Oct. 10.—King Manuel of Portugal and Queen Mother Amelia decided today to proceed to England. They will leave probably within a few days, but are undetermined whether they will travel by land or sea. The Italian warship Regina Elena, arrived here today to take on board the Dowager Queen Maria Pia, who will go to Italy.

Lisbon, Oct. 10.—The British cruiser Venus and the United States cruiser Des Moines, are here again today.

A PARTIAL RECOGNITION.

Rio Janeiro, Oct. 10.—The government of Brazil has authorized its minister at Lisbon to enter into relations with the provisional government on current business and the protection of Brazilians in Portugal, but has declared verbally that this does not mean the recognition of the establishment of the new regime in Portugal. This recognition cannot be accorded until Brazil is certain that the new regime has the support of the majority of the Portuguese people.

DEMOCRACY ON TOP.

Lisbon, Oct. 10.—The transformation of the country into a democracy manifests itself on every hand. The word royal in connection with public buildings, theatres and other establishments has been entirely suppressed. Official documents beginning "In the name of the Republic," and ending with "Greeting and fraternity."

The privileges of nobility have been abolished and the equality of religious sects proclaimed.

Appalling Loss of Life in Minnesota Forest Fire

From Fifty to Two Hundred Persons Have Perished—Property Loss will Run up into the Millions—Villages of Beaudette, Spooner, Pitt, Myron and Malcolm Have been Wiped Out—Every Effort Being Put Forth to Check the Onrush of the Fire Fiend—Martial Law Proclaimed.

Warroad, Minn., Oct. 10.—Estimates of the loss of life in the forest fires, which started Friday, wiped out several towns and are still raging, range all the way from 50 to 200. The property loss will mount well up in the millions.

The fire zone covers an area of 85 miles in length, from the gravel pits west of Warroad to Stratton, the fourth station east of Rainey River, and in width about 30 miles, covering all the territory between Rainey Lake and Lake of the Woods. The fires have wiped out the villages of Beaudette, Spooner, Pitt, Myron and Malcolm, the last two named places are small settlements in Beltrami County, south of Warroad. The greatest property loss occurred at Beaudette and Spooner, which is practically one settlement, being separated by a narrow river. The other towns consisted of only a few small buildings.

MANY HOMES DESTROYED.

There were hundreds of homes destroyed in the territory and as there are no roads in the district, save for the trails through the woods, it is thought that many lives have been lost that will not be reported for weeks. The state of Minnesota is sparing no expense to check the fire. The state fire warden is mustering every man here and in other places, and he is instructed to use every possible means at his command, regardless of cost. Every man available is fighting the fires, but because of the moss which covers the ground for a depth of from 1 to 2 feet, it seems impossible to do anything.

If the blaze is fanned by a breeze all efforts to check it are futile and it is only where it is creeping along the ground that any attempt is being made to head it off. To do this it is necessary to make wide and deep trenches.

The fires were almost to the boundary of Manitoba last night, burning over the Sprague Lumber Company's timber limits around Sprague, Man., and making steady progress towards the wooded district in Southern-Eastern Manitoba. From the northern end, fire is coming to join it.

The missing include some 2,000 residents of Beaudette, Pitt, Spooner and adjoining territory, some of whom are dead, but most of whom are safe in Rainey River and adjacent towns on the Canadian side of the line.

The most serious aspect of the issue includes the homesteaders and farmers in the brush, of whom absolutely nothing can be learned for some time, as searching parties do not dare penetrate the still smoking forests, through which the cyclone of fire has swept.

Late yesterday, a special relief train arrived at International Falls from Bemidjia, bearing provisions destined for Rainey River and the Bemidjia Company of Minnesota National Guards, which will take charge of the distribution of supplies and provisions.

UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

The burned district has been placed under martial law.

There are three typhoid fever cases among the refugees at International Falls, six men badly burned and it seems that every family of settlers have two or three little children.

Almost without exception they are absolutely destitute. The women have borne up under the terrible strain with wonderful fortitude and all stories from the fire district are that the women were heroes. When the refugees fled in panic for the freight train that bore them to International Falls and Rainey River, men crushed down women and children. It is reported that, in spite of the fact that the cars were choked, they insisted on cramming themselves in. Miss Myra Burt, a young woman of Beaudette, stationed herself at the door of one of the cars, kicked every man in the face with her pointed shoe that attempted to board the car, and herself reached out and took babies from the arms of their mothers. When the train started, there were five babies whose mothers were left behind. They are being cared for in the hospital here.

CONVICTS REVOLT AND DESTROY SAN CARLOS PRISON

Willemstad, Isle of Curacao, Oct. 10.—The American steamship Merida which has arrived from Maracaibo brings news of a revolt in San Carlos prison, near Maracaibo, the prisoners burned the prison and killed several officers including the warden who was a brother of President Gomez. All the prisoners are said to be at large. There is great excitement among the Venezuelans in Curacao. It is thought that the escape of the prisoners may mean very shortly a revolutionary movement in Venezuela as they include many prominent men of the Castro party, who were sent to the unguens in August 1909.

Caracas, Venezuela, Oct. 10.—Government troops today occupy San Carlos fortress and prison on San Carlos Island, at the entrance to Lake Maracaibo following Friday's insubordination when a portion of the troops conspired with the criminal prisoners and some of the latter escaped. No political importance is attached by the government to the revolt.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, Oct. 10.—Capt. Johanson, of the S. S. Merida, who brought the first news of the revolt of prisoners at the San Carlos fortress on Lake Maracaibo, Venezuela, gave further details today of what the crew witnessed.

According to reports which he gathered, six officers were killed, but General Pratte, a brother of President Gomez and warden of the prison, escaped by assuming a disguise. Soldiers' barracks and the general's quarters were burned and 200 prisoners, some of whom had been incarcerated because of their allegiance to the lost cause of Former President Castro, escaped. These are reported to be wandering about the northern part of the republic and there are many unconfirmed rumors concerning their whereabouts and intentions towards the government.

The Merida arrived off Carlos Island twenty miles below Maracaibo, at seven o'clock on the morning of October 7th, and found a fire raging on the island and the flag over the fortress at half mast.
