Reciprocity Candidate for York

ALFRED B. ATHERTON, M. D.

THE MAN WHO SPEAKS TONIGHT

(Toronto Globe)

Mr. Foster does not count. His misdirected cleverness is not questioned. His warped moral standard and all the callousness of his nature are not any longer matters for public discussion. What he is his own conduct has made plain. He may try to bluff his way back into Parliament. Outraged party allegiance in North Toronto may even blind its eyes to the difference between right and wrong in political life. Let that disgrace come. It does not relieve Mr. Borden. Indeed, the greater the disgrace the more unrelenting is Mr. Borden's duty to protect the political life of Canada against it. Will he do it? Has he the courage in Toronto to repudiate Hon. Geo. E. Foster as Mr. Roosevelt repudiated Senator Lorimer in Chicago.

Mr. Borden cannot by evasion discount or blot out the verdict of the jury given in answer to Mr. Foster's appeal for vindication. The charge again him made on the public platform and published in The Globe as set forth in Mr. Foster's own Statement of Claim before the courts was in these terms:

"My charge stands. It was this: THAT HE ASKED FOR A PRIVATE RAKE-OFF IN A DEAL WITH TRUST FUNDS; THAT HE DIRECTED THE SUSPICIOUS WAY IN WHICH THE PERSONAL RAKE-OFF SHOULD BE PAID; THAT HE GOT THE RAKE-OFF and that as the high-salaried Managing Director of the Union Trust Company handling funds belonging to the I.O.F. fraternal society he had no right or title to that money."

Does Mr. Borden agree with the judgment of the group of leading Toronto Conservatives who insisted that Mr. Foster should either disprove the charge before the courts or withdraw from prominence in the party? Does he regard the verdict of the jury in February 1910 as a vindication? Here is the verdict returned after a most searching trial:

"We the jury, do agree that, in view of the evidence presented to us, Mr. Macdonald was justified in making the statements published by him in The Globe of the 21st October, 1908, and that, while Mr. Foster acted in good faith while acting in the capacity of General Manager of the Union Trust Company, HIS ACTIONS WERE OPEN TO CRITICISM and THAT HE IS NOT ENTITLED TO RECOVER DAMAGES FROM MR. MACDONALD."

The last Tory candidate who went up against a Liberal cabinet minister in St. John was George E. Foster in 1900, and he is only now beginning to "come back."

THE LOYALTY CRY

Hon. G. E. Foster and Mr. O. S. Crockett were members of the last Parliament, and sat in Caucus with Mr. P. E. Blondin, a Tory member from the Province of Quebec. Mr. Blondin supported the Nationalist candidate in the memorable bye-election in Drummond, Arthabaska, and in one of his public addresses is reported to have said:

"WE OWE NOTHING TO GREAT BRITAIN. ENGLAND DID NOT TAKE CANADA FOR LOVE OR TO PLANT THE CROSS OF CHRIST AS THE French did, but in order to plant their trading posts and make money."

"The only liberties we have are those we won by force and today England tries to dominate its colonies as Imperial Rome once did."

"The English have never done anything for the French Canadians; we owe them nothing. THOSE WHO DISEMBOWELLED YOUR FATHERS ON THE PLAINS OF ABRAHAM ASK YOU TODAY to go and get killed for them. We are French Canadian, not English. French Canadians are not going to cringe to Englishmen. They will not go out to get their backs broken for them."

Mr. Blondin occupies a high place in the councils of a party, the members of which are going about today accusing their opponents of being annexationists. If the Tories are one half as loyal as they would have us believe, why don't they rid their own party of men like Mr. Blondin. Did you ever hear of Mr. Foster or Mr. Crockett or Col McLeod utter a word of criticism of Mr. Blondin and his un-British sentiments? No, or you won't tonight if you go the Opera House. Why? Because they know that without the support of the Nationals they will get a corporal's guard in Quebec. The loyalty cry of the Tories is only for the English speaking provinces. In Quebec it is anything to down Laurier.

A DIFFERENT STORY

Hon. George E. Foster, ex-finance minister of Canada, and chief of "the nest of traitors" of Sir MacKenzie Bowell's day, is to address the meeting of the electors at the Opera House this evening. Our own Mr. O. S. Crockett and Col. McLeod are also set down for speakers. These great patriots may be expected to vigorously wave the old flag and accuse the wicked Grits of disloyalty to British institutions. It is all part of the Tory game.

If we are not very much mistaken Hon. Mr. Foster on the occasion of his last visit to Fredericton had some uncomplimentary thing to say concerning Hon. Clifford Sifton and Mr. Henri Bourassa. Mr. Sifton was then according to Mr. Foster a hoodler and a grafter, and Mr. Bourassa was a disloyal Grit. Today Messrs Sifton and Bourassa are working hand in hand with Borden, and even though Mr. Foster has not changed opinion concerning them, he will scarcely repeat his former utterances. Neither will Mr. Crockett reiterate his opinion of Mr. Sifton, which he expressed so frequently during the last campaign. As the medicine ads say "There's a Reason."

Hon. G. E. Foster, who shook the dust of New Brunswick from his feet after his overwhelming defeat in St. John in 1900 at the hands of the late Hon. A. G. Blair, is to speak in the Opera House here on Monday evening. Hon. Mr. Foster is now opposed to reciprocity, but he was once in favor of it. Speaking in the House of Commons in 1888, he made this statement: "I SAY TO HON. GENTLEMEN OPPOSITE: SUPPOSE THE UNITED STATES HAD PUT UP A CLAUSE IN THEIR TARIFF ACT SAYING THE VERY MOMENT CANADA MAKES THEM FREE, WOULD WE NOT HAVE A PRESSURE WHICH IT WOULD BE TOTALLY IMPOSSIBLE TO RESIST?" Is not that the very situation in Canada today? The United States has made the offer of free natural products. Can the Conservatives afford to resist the pressure of the farmers of Canada for its acceptance? How does Mr. Foster reconcile the above statement with his present position?

Mr. Foster has done little or no campaigning in New Brunswick since he was unceremoniously kicked out eleven years ago.

FOSTER FOR RECIPROCITY

"Our reply to Uncle Sam should be: Granted that you fully realize that no scheme of Reciprocity which interferes therewith (i. e., with Canada's autonomy) is desirable; that understood, we welcome the fullest trade and intercourse consistent therewith. Meanwhile, as a neighborly beginning, could you not give our products tariff entrance to your markets on the same terms which we accord to yours in our market? This would be an earnest of good feeling and might dispose us to further converse." (See article by Hon. G. F. Foster, University Magazine, Dec., 1910. Let Mr. Foster explain this in his speech at the Opera House tonight.)

CANADIAN GUNNERS MAY WIN KING'S PRIZE

(Canadian Press)
London, Aug. 28.—The artillery competition at Salisbury Plain, for the King's and other prizes for field, howitzer and heavy batteries, was finished on Saturday, but the result will not be declared until Monday. Probably the King's prize will lie between either the Canadians, the 3rd London or the Aberdeen battery. The firing generally showed some improvement upon last year, but was not of a high order. The special competition between picked men of the territorial units and the Canadians for the Canadian Challenge Cup had to be abandoned for want of time.

Tory barnstormers do not tell the farmers of York that under reciprocity Canada will have a preference in the United States market. In other words the duty of twenty-five cents per barrel on potatoes imported from Europe will remain. It does not stand to reason that the Americans will under reciprocity buy potatoes from Europe as they do now, and pay the duty, when they can get them from Canada free.

Only a short time ago before the reciprocity agreement was made public Mr. Foster in an article in the University Magazine declared that "no sane man will predict any large overflow of natural products from the United States northward." What has the ex-minister of finance to say on the subject now?

Mr. Foster will now have an opportunity to thank the electors of York for sending him to parliament in 1896. The electors of York have nothing to thank him for.

Mr. Foster once represented York in the Dominion Parliament. He was elected in 1896 and at the end of his term he ran away to St. John and got a licking.

Mr. Foster represented York at Ottawa for four years and we got nothing in return for it but wind. Now he has come back to give us more wind.

"York abandoned by the Liberals" says a headline in the Tory organ. In that case why should it be necessary to bring Foster to the city?

Mayor Thomas should see to it that the Opera House is made cyclone-proof before Foster, Crockett and McLeod get busy this evening.

"The machinery of the Union Trust Company needs oil. Turn on the tap."

Have you heard a Tory campaigner in York during this campaign say one single word against Bourassa?

R. L. Borden is going to join the Can't Come Back Club on September 21st.

SEAT SALE FOR "BABY MINE," OPENS TOMORROW.

The success of two continents, Baby Mine, Margaret Mayo's merry comedy, which comes to the Opera House on Friday next under the direction of William A. Brady, Ltd., is now in its second year at the Vaudeville Theatre, London, where it is playing to the largest average gross receipts ever known in the history of a London playhouse. Not content with that, Baby Mine broke all records during its one year's run at the Daily Theatre, New York, and will shortly be produced in Paris, Berlin, Vienna, St. Petersburg, South America, South Africa and Australia. It is as certain as mundane affairs can be that Baby Mine is the biggest comedy success ever known. It is clear, clean, healthy fun from beginning to end, and is not only brightly written but brilliantly acted. Baby Mine is said to keep the audience in convulsions of mirth, and to be the most wittily laughable comedy that ever set a house in an uproar. Seat sale opens at Ryan's tomorrow mornin'.

Why Not Paint This Fall?

In the Fall the conditions for painting are most favorable. The woodwork is thoroughly dried out, the sun is not hot to blister the paint, the flies are not as bad as in the Spring, and a coat of paint will put your building in better shape to withstand Winter's storms.
