BOONE-COOK NUPTIALS

AT PRESQUE-ISLE, ME.

(Bangor News)

Presque Isle, Oct. 12—Wednesday.

Oct. 11, was one of the most charming of mellow autumn days. A day when sunshine, warmth and beauty all blending to make one harmonious whole and beautiful day is succeeded by a grand and glorious sunset and harvest moon. A perfect day for just such a beautiful wedding as took place at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Sherman Willard Boone in this village when their eldest daughter, Miss Annis Mary became the wife of George Reed Cook of Waterville, Me.

The marriage ceremony was pronounced by Rev. Parker C. Manzer, rector of St. John's Episcopal church and was solemnized at precisely half past eight o'clock in the morning in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the principals and a few intimate friends.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Emory Cook of Waterville, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bird of Woodstock, N.B., and Mr. and Mrs. Richardson Boone of Fredericton N.B., the four grandparents of the bride; Mrs. Benjamin Griffiths, aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richardson of Waterville, aunt and uncle of the groom; E. D. Noyes of Waterville, an intimate friend of the groom; Horace Cook of New York, brother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Moses Burpee of Houlton; Miss Florence Lewis of Brownville, a room mate of the bride at Acadia Seminary, and Miss Gladys Goodhue of Fort Fairfield, a particular friend.

The decorations of the house were very artistic and beautiful, the effect in the reception hall being particularly unique and effective. The color scheme was red and green and the use of red and green shades covered with dainty red and green shades subdued and softened the light, while the broad door arches and the cabinet mantel were enhanced in their beauty of red berries and ferns, the latter being banked with a fernery embellished with berries of roundwood, while below were numerous groupings of the same and in appropriate places large bunches of ripened barberry sprigs. The window seat was also charmingly decorated.

The parlor which was illuminated with strong electric jets, was beautifully decorated in white and green carnations and wax berries being utilized with evergreen to form the arch which was fashioned in a deep broad bay window. Overhead was suspended a floral basket of carnations and ferns and in the window seat was a beautiful fernery. The effect was charming. A raised platform covered with an elegant white rug was arranged on which the bride and groom knelt during a part of the service.

As the groom entered attended by the best man, who was his brother, Carl Cook of Waterville, he took his place facing the officiating clergyman and was followed by the ribbon bearers, Katherine Pines and Eugene Griffiths, a dainty little Miss and Laddie Louise Boone, sister of the bride, and the bride elect entered, leaning on the arm of her father who gave her away.

Mildred Cook, a very young and talented Miss, sister of the groom, played the wedding march from Lohengrin. The bride's gown was a very fashionable and elegant creation of white silk marquisette over Duchess satin entraine with Duchess lace yoke and elbow sleeves, and trimmings of rooks and knots of Duchess satin. She wore a pearl necklace and long tulle veil and carried a double prayer book bound in white seal skin from which protruded a single white rose and a book mark of a gold heart and cross the gift of the groom.

The maid of honor a dainty brunette, wore a very pretty gown of canary paille silk with bugle trimmings to match. It was very becoming and in pretty contrast to the surroundings. The groom and best man wore the tuxedo suits appropriate to a morning wedding. The ribbon girl was daintily dressed in white mulle and the ribbon boy wore a jaunty suit of white serge.

The bride's mother was richly dressed in grey voile over choral silk. The groom's mother was becomingly gowned in navy blue satin with trimmings of real lace. Mrs. Burpee wore a beautiful lavender silk and black picture hat.

The bride's going away suit was a stylish navy blue with Irish crochet collar and cuffs and hat to match, with a brogue green bird ornament.

Following the ceremony a reception was held from 9 until 11 o'clock, the bridal party being joined in the receiving line by the parents of the bride and groom and the ribbon bearers. This was a very pretty and enjoyable part of one of the prettiest and happiest of weddings.

The color scheme in the serving room was pink and white and the decorations were very tasteful and pretty. In the centre of the table a silver candelabra rested on a mirror white suspended from overhead was a showier bouquet of pink carnations and ferns. The fireplace and mantel and window seats were beautifully decorated and candles added brilliancy to the effect. The decorations were in charge of Mrs. Sydney Graves assist-

SAGE TEA WILL

DARKEN THE HAIR

Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color—Darduff Quickly Removed

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to old-time, tiresome methods of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today and notice the difference after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

MT. ALLISON SWAMPED
ST. JOHN HARRIERS 22 TO 0

(St. John Telegraph)

The football season in New Brunswick was poorly opened so far as St. John is concerned, Saturday afternoon when the Y.M.C.A. Harriers were met and defeated by Mount Allison at Sackville by a score of 22 to 0. As the score would indicate the game was more or less one-sided.

"Fast and furious" however, was fairly spectacular, and the large crowd in attendance which were naturally Sackville rooters had an opportunity to get a line on the class of football to be furnished by the "garnet and gold" this season. Though light the collegians have a snappy team and should prove strong contenders for the King-Richardson trophy.

"Inferentially" says the North Shore Leader "he (Hazen) would have no difficulty in securing election in any constituency now held by his party." The Tories of York are not in very good humor just now, and they would hardly endorse the Leader's statement.

The Duke of Connaught is the first person of royal blood to occupy the position of Governor General of Canada.

ed by Mrs. Jerre Holt and Mrs. Griffiths. During the hour while refreshments were being served Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Griffiths aunts of the bride presided at the tea and coffee urns.

The servers were Miss Tina McLean, Miss Laurel Wallace, Miss Lura K. Smith, Miss Gladys Goodhue and Miss Florence Lewis. The refreshments were delicious and varied and dainty parcels of wedding cake were arranged for sending away. Punch was served in the "den" off the dining room, by Mrs. Katherine Stevens Dow. This apartment also was made very attractive by the hands of the decorators.

The presents which were bestowed upon the bride were the most beautiful and numerous ever seen here. In the collection were more than one hundred pieces of sterling silver numerous pieces of imported ware, elegant cut glass, choice pictures on a Paris production. And worthy of special mention was a beautiful hand painted vase from an aunt in Nevada, and an exquisite tea set, an heirloom presented by the bride's maternal grandparent, Mrs. Bird, the set having been made in Germany. There were gold coins and checks rugs and a whole Haviland china dinner and tea set, the gifts of the family.

The bride is a young lady much liked here where she has grown up and her acquaintances are far-reaching. As may be judged she is very popular. She is a graduate of the Presque Isle high school and received later education at Acadia Seminary, Wolfville, N.S.

The groom is a young man of sterling qualities and is a graduate of the University of Maine, being a professional civil engineer and having his office in Waterville to which place he will take his bride to a beautiful home after a short honeymoon spent at the lakes. The "at home" will begin Dec. 1st at No. 6 Leighton street. All join in wishes for a long and happy life so propitiously begun.
