MR. JOHN HAMILTON REID

A CLAIM FIGHTER

Mr. Reid was a man who stood up for his rights, and he did not allow an individual or public body to get ahead of him if he could prevent it. It seems that when he was building the exhibition palace, the city council voted $1,500 towards the undertaking, but a loophole was left, and the money was not paid over to the agricultural society. Some years afterwards Mr. Reid filed a claim against the city for the amount with accrued interest. His claim was ridiculed by several successive councils, but Mr. Reid persisted, and in the end it cost the city over $4,000 to settle with him. He got ahead of the city by going to the Legislature, and securing the passage of a bill compelling the council to refer his claim to a board of arbitrators. It required a lot of lobbying to get the bill through, but Mr. Reid was equal to the occasion. The arbitrators after hearing the evidence awarded him the full amount of his claim with accrued interest.

Mr. Reid had an extensive claim against the Imperial Government for an account of a contract for military supplies and although he carried on a voluminous correspondence, he never succeeded in getting it adjusted. He also had a claim against the C. P. R. and St. John Valley Railway Company for land damages at the old race course, but was unable to get it recognized by the companies.

The late Mr. Reid was a man of kindly disposition and had a large circle of friends. He had a wonderfully accurate memory and could relate incidents and events of sixty and seventy years ago, even to the most minute details. He was a recognized authority on horse racing and turf events generally, of long ago.

The deceased lived his life in bachelorhood and was the last member of his family. His brother, Mr. Robert Reid, died at Edmundston only a few months ago. He leaves a number of nieces and nephews, including Mrs. Alex. Gibson, Mr. Duncan Reid, Mr. Millard Reid of Marysville, Mr. John M. Reid of this city, Mrs. Harry Bailey of Gibson, and Mrs. B. B. Maner of Woodstock.

EVANS' MILLIONS SUBJECT OF BATTLE IN COURTS

Boston, Jan. 2.—A fight for the twenty millions left by the late Robert D. Evans of Beverly, is foreshadowed in a petition filed by the widow with the supreme judicial court. This means that the Evans family tree from its origin in the granddaughter of the night of Hull, who eloped two centuries ago with a Captain Simonds of the English army, is to be spread upon the records. Attorneys are being engaged by men and women who claim relationship to the dead copper magnate. In the will the estate was left exclusively for the widow's use with this concluding provision: "And at her death one-half of the residue is to go to my then heirs at law, they to take as by right of representation." It is this sentence which makes the score or more of relatives confident that half of the vast fortune will be divided among them by the courts when the widow dies. To prepare for this litigation and to preserve the Evans fortune for Mrs. Evans' own family, her attorney has petitioned the supreme court for commissions to take the deposition in St. John of Richard Evans, for the purpose of showing who are the heirs at law and next of kin of Robert Dawson Evans. Lawyers appear for the sons and daughters of Mrs. Ann Evans Donovan, whose grandfather was a brother of Robert D. Evans' grandfather. The eldest of these children is James B. Donovan, of Dorchester, a tailor, with seven children. Mrs. Margaret Donovan Thompson is second. Timothy Donovan of St. John, father of two sons, is third. Mrs. Lillian M. Keyes of Dorchester, with four children, is next. The youngest is George D. Donovan of Needham, he has two children. Attorney Edward C. Creed of South Boston appears for Mary Jane Evans of Zichville, N. B. He may represent Admiral Charles John Symonds of the British navy, stationed at Manchester, a first cousin of the dead copper magnate. (Mr. Richard Evans referred to above is a resident of Gibson.)

MANY CASUALTIES IN SOUTH AFRICAN SMASHUP

Queenstown, Union of South Africa Jan. 5.—Fifteen persons were killed and forty or fifty others injured in the wreck of a passenger train near Cathcart, Cape Colony, early today. The train which was loaded with holiday makers from East London, left the rails and turning over, rolled down an embankment.

RASCALLY LAWYER TAUGHT A LESSON

Hollidaysburg, Pa., Jan. 4.—Chambers O. Templeton, of Tyrone, Pa., a former senator and a prominent attorney, pleaded guilty in the Blair County Court here today to the charge of forgery and embezzlement of money of his clients. Templeton was sentenced to pay a fine of $6,000 and to be imprisoned in the penitentiary at Pittsburgh for an indeterminate period of not less than three years nor more than twelve years.

It was charged that Templeton embezzled more than $75,000 that had been trusted to him by clients. Following his arrest the Blair County Bar Association brought disbarment proceedings against him and after a hearing Templeton was deprived of the right to practice law.

TARVIA COST MUCH LESS THAN WAS EXPECTED

Streets up to 1911:

Queen and Carleton Street
Improvements, ..... $ 6,968.58
King Street Improvements, 5,326.23

Total for 1909, ..... $12,294.81

1910
Tarvia pavement (proper), ..... $5,834.16
Curbings, ..... 209.16
21 Bbls. of tarvia, in stock, ..... 110.25

Total for 1910, ..... $6,153.67
Thus the total expenditure to date by this Department is $18,338.48. The work contemplated for next year will cost at least $12,000.00, so that the necessity for some manner of tax on properties fronting on these streets is self-evident, and deserves very careful consideration from your Department.

Following I have submitted in tabular form statement of the work now constructed by this Department, which I trust may be of service to you.

Very respectfully submitted,
JOHN L. FEENEY,
City Engineer.

UPPER KINGSCLEAR

Jan 2.—Seeing items in your valuable paper from other places. I thought I would send in a few lines to let the people know that we are still in the land of the living.

The young men from this place all came home to spend their Christmas but have all returned to the lumber woods again.

Mr. Elwood Kelley is doing quite a large business lumbering.

Mr. William Kelley from Fredericton was visiting relatives here one day last week.

Mr. Percy Mills was the guest of Miss Addie Goodine one day last week.

Mr. Duncan Kelley has been doing a rushing business with his mill.

Mr. Victor Kelly is doing fine at his new occupation at blacksmithing. Mr. Orington McKeen made a flying trip through here one day last week.

Mr. Alexander Kelley intends to take his team up to Pokiok to work in the lumber woods for Gilman Bros. Miss Mary Donley is visiting friends and relatives in Queensbury.

Master Gordon Kelley met with a painful accident last week, while at play with his little brother Raymond the little lad was playing with an air rifle and shot his brother in the eye, he is under the skillful treatment of Dr. A. McKenzie from Lower Prince William. We all wish him a speedy recovery.

Miss Mary J. Mazerall has returned home from a visit to Mazerall Settlement.

Mr. Gerald Kelley intends taking a trip on the ocean in the near future, we all wish him a pleasant voyage. Knitting is the order of the day.

Misses Loretta and Frances Burgoyne from Fredericton arrived home to spend their New Year.

Mr. Tyler Kitchen started for the lumber woods on the 29th of December, but had to return home on the 31st on account of there being no snow. We all hope that Mr. Kitchen has had enough of lumbering for this winter.

Wishing all the readers of The Mail a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

IMPORTANT DECISION IN A U. S. COURT

Vicksburg, Miss., Jan. 5.—Because a railroad company furnishes a special train to a party of men, and it is used to convey a mob bent on lynching the railroad company cannot be held liable for damages. In effect, this decision was rendered yesterday by Judge Niles, in the United States district court.

In the suit at issue Mrs. Annie Rogers, whose husband was lynched at Tallulah, Louisiana, several years ago, sought the recovery of $50,000 from the Vicksburg, Shreveport and Pacific railroad. In her petition Mrs. Rogers held that the railroad company was liable for damages because they furnished a train which transported the mob from Monroe, Louisiana to Tallulah.

Rogers was charged with killing Jesse Brown, a planter of Girard. Both men were prominent.

Granby, P. Q., Jan. 5.—(Special)—Reo Cien, a member of an order who was burned in a fire which destroyed St. Joseph's College here last night, has died from his injuries.

Mr. E. P. Baker, of St. John, is in the city.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Hall of Mc-
