been presented to me.

The thought of the affectionate impulse which prompted it has, I can assure you, deeply touched me. The beautiful Insignia of the Garter and the pictures of the King and my son which well form the personal part of the gift, will be treasured by me throughout my life and will b handed down as precious heirlooms to those who come after.

I look forward with special satisfaction to devoting the remainder of this noble present to a charitable object in which I am greatly interested. MARY.
