CRIPPLE FROM RHEUMATISM

NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH
THANKS TO "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

VANCOUVER, B.C., Feb. 1st, 1910.
"I am well acquainted with a man, known to thousands in Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster, who for nearly a year was practically a cripple from Rheumatism. He was so troubled with the disease that he found it difficult to even turn over in bed. His heart appeared so weak that he could hardly walk up stairs.
Last June, he received a sample of "Fruit-a-tives". He used them and dates his recovery from that time. To-day, there is no man in Vancouver enjoying better health.
He was building a house this fall and shingled a good part of the roof in a driving rain, without suffering any bad effects".
JOHN B. LACY.

Mr. E. E. Mills, (assistant postmaster at Knowlton, Que.) also writes:
"I honestly believe that 'Fruit-a-tives' is the greatest Rheumatism cure in the world". Try it yourself.

IS BRAVERY BE- COMING UNCOMMON

In his recently published book of Indian travel, Price Collier, the keenest and withal the fairest critic of the Briton since the days of Max O'Rell, says that he never sends his womenkind to sea in any other vessel than one in which Englishmen or men of the Anglo-Saxon race have command. He feels assured when a British captain is on the bridge that women will be saved first in the event of disaster.

Now that is a very fine tribute from a shrewd observer. In every corner of the world men have died to earn it. With simple bravery the Briton has always counted life well lost if in losing it he could safeguard the lives of his women folk and children.

Are we in Canada falling from that high estate? Is the command "women and children first" not as binding upon us as upon our fathers? Is bravery becoming uncommon? We should be sorry to think so, and yet there are disquieting incidents every now and again that indicate the need for inculcating the virtue of dying honorably. Here are some of the most recent: Several London men, the victims of either cowardice or of too much liquor, perhaps of both, stood by a few days ago while two boys were drowned in a pond. When the wharf at the King Edward Park near Montreal collapsed men in the crowd thrown into the water scrambled to safety, leaving women beneath them in the water. In certain recent drowning accidents in the vicinity of Toronto it has not been established that every effort was made by the men who were rescued to save their women companions who were drowned. But the most significant of recent signs of the times is the story of the collapse of the pier at Queen's Park, Aylmer, Quebec, on Thursday night. There fifty persons were thrown into the water, and the bulk of the people were rescued by three men, while many others stood around too dazed to do anything helpful. That was not the worst of it, as the following extract from the report of the accident indicates:

"In the water several incidents occurred that cast no heroic light on the men who were thrown in along with the women and children. One of the occurrences was of a particularly cowardly nature. Young Mullin (one of the rescuers) had just pulled a woman, but in the hurry he lost track the last time. Seeing another in a like predicament, he asked one of the male passengers, who was clinging to the dock, to take charge of the first woman while he went to the help of the second. The man did not reply, and Mullin took his silence for consent, telling the woman to hold on to the man's shoulders for a moment. Mullin had no sooner turned than he heard the sound of a cry. Looking around, he saw the man strike the woman full in the face, sending her back into the water. Happily, however, Mullin was able to rescue both women, but in the hurry he lost track of the man who did the cowardly act."

There is no law to punish cowardice so abject as that of the man who

Suffered Greatly From Heart Trouble

NERVES WERE VERY WEAK

Mrs. John Farrell, Rose Hill, P.E. I., writes:—"It is with the greatest of pleasure I write you stating the benefit I have received by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills."

"About five years ago I suffered greatly from heart trouble, and my nerves were very weak. After seeing several doctors and using their medicine, I got no relief until a friend told me of your Heart and Nerve Pills. I took two boxes and they effected a complete cure. I can recommend them highly to all nervous and run down women."

"I have advised many others to try them, and they have all been cured of the same trouble."

The proper action of the nerves, so important to the well-being of the heart, depends entirely upon the general condition of the nervous system. If there be nerve derangement of any kind, it is bound to produce heart derangement.

In Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills is combined a treatment that will cure all forms of nervous disorders, as well as act on the heart itself, and in this is the secret of their success in curing so many cases of heart and nerve trouble.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills 50c. per box, or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited Toronto, Ontario.

would not take even a little risk to save a woman's life. Public contempt is the only thing that can be used as a corrective. It may seem cruel to put the coward in the pillory for an act that is oftentimes no more than the momentary triumph of the lower nature, but unfortunately when life is in danger there is usually no time for the coward to get a grip of himself by exercising his reason. Bravery must be a matter of instinct or of habit, absolutely automatic, to be useful in times of crisis. The boys of the rising generation must be taught that the supreme crime against manhood is to hesitate to venture even life itself in saving women and children when they are in peril.
