HON. DR. PUGSLEY ATTACKED BY HAZEN IN PARLIAMENT

Minister of Marine Goes out of his Way to Aim Slurs at Former Minister of Public Works—Hon. Mr. Pugsley in Able Speech Points out Weaknesses of Tory Program—F. B. Carvell also made a Strong Address

Ottawa, Nov. 21.—There was some New Brunswick politics in the house today. F. B. Carvell, Hon. Dr. Pugsley, and Hon. Mr. Hazen were heard on the issue of the late campaign.

F. B. CARVELL

The issue for which reciprocity stood in the recent campaign, the securing of larger markets for the Canadian producers was not dead declared F. B. Carvell, of Carleton (N. B.) who resumed the debate.

"I care not what you call it," said he "the government which would loyally serve the interests of this great and growing dominion must set itself to secure good markets for its increasing productiveness." The policy of raising tariff barriers higher and higher could not ultimately survive.

Hon. Mr. Foster interrupted. "It is not necessary," said he, "to place a larger protection on imports to make a home market."

"I am glad to have the intimation from the minister that there is to be no increase in tariff, at any rate," responded Mr. Carvell.

This brought Mr. Foster to his feet again with alacrity. "I did not say that," he observed, amid Liberal laughter.

"Ah," observed Mr. Carvell, smiling, "I thought the hon. gentleman had gone further than he intended."

BOURASSA, THE MASTER

Proceeded he arranged the government for conducting an election campaign based upon race and religious prejudice, and dealing with the naval question, scored the composition of the Nationalist-Conservative Cabinet.

"Henri Bourassa is the master of the present administration," he declared. "It is absolutely and abjectly under the control of the Nationalist party. The premier has confessed that he does not know what he is going to do. Let me tell him. He is going to do just what his Nationalist masters tell him, he is going to do nothing. The plebs are the refuge of a government which cannot make up its mind. It puts Canada in a position of humiliation before the eyes of the world."

E. M. MACDONALD

E. M. MacDonald, Pictou followed. He searched the annals of constitution. He traversed the annals of constitutional government for a parallel to the existing coalition. He ridiculed Premier Borden's allegation that he and Mr. Monk had differed upon a mere question of fact two years ago, quoting from Hansard of last year showing that both Messrs. Monk and Borden had declared in the house their unalterable hostility to one another on the naval policy.

He showed that Mr. White, the minister of finance, on the other hand, had stood for the Liberals while Mr.

Hazen was, according to his own declaration, an "Imperialist of the Colonel Denison variety." Meantime Mr. Monk had declared that Canada had to wrest all concessions from England, who was ready to hand her to the United States, if necessary. "We owe nothing to England," had been Mr. Monk's words, and he had characterized the British Empire league as "An anti-Canadian society" and condemned the Colonel Denison type of Imperialism.

He demanded an honest straightforward and unequivocal statement of where the government stood on the matter of Canada's imperial relations.

From the government side, Mr. Aikens, the new member from Brandon, was the first speaker. He combined an essay on the Canadian west with an anti-reciprocity campaign speech echo. He quoted poetry and championed the flag, but he never mentioned the word navy, or referred in any way to the amendment of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, which was under debate.

ST. JOHN HARBOR WORK.

Dr. Pugsley called the attention of the new minister of public works to the necessity of immediately proceeding with the harbor and terminal works at St. John. He charged the new government with stopping the harbor work, after the pre-lector promise of Mr. Borden in a campaign telegram to The Standard, to take up and proceed with the work should he be returned to power.

However, Dr. Pugsley said that the work was needed by the port, and he was glad that it would be done, whether by those who were friendly or unfriendly to him.

STILL A LIVE ISSUE.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley opened by paying a compliment to R. B. Bennett, of Calgary, the mover of the address, who was an old New Brunswick boy. "It afforded him great pleasure and satisfaction to note the progress being made throughout the empire by many sons of New Brunswick, alluding particularly to the selection of Bona Law to the leadership of the Unionist party in England.

He declared, amid an enthusiasm, that the securing of United States markets for Canadian natural products was still a live and potent issue in New Brunswick. It would open a new era of prosperity to the Maritime Provinces and he urged the government on that account to give consideration to such steps as might yet be taken to thus develop prosperity in the lower provinces. He pointed out that outside Ontario there was a popular majority in Canada of 22,000 for the reciprocity arrangement. He hoped when Ontario learned that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was not responsible for the temere decree, and when her

GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA

To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to its Natural Color

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea" and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

This remedy is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If your hair is losing color or coming out, start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and see what a change it will make in a few days' time.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

WHITNEY PROMOTING PROVINCIAL CONFERENCE

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 22.—The holding of an inter-provincial conference of provincial premiers at Ottawa will likely be promoted by Sir James Whitney. He will confer, it is expected, with Sir Lomer Gouin, premier of Quebec, regarding arrangements for the meeting which will be held next spring.

With the Borden government in power at Ottawa and five of the nine provincial premiers Conservatives, the conference may have a far-reaching effect. The question of the representation of the Maritime Provinces in the House of Commons, arranging regarding provincial subsidies, the apportionment of sums to the provinces for agriculture and roads, are some of the important matters which will likely come before the premiers.

people realized that the Nationalists were to control the policy of the government there would be a reconsideration in that province.

He noted that Mr. Bourassa had already published in Le Devoir the questions which were to be submitted to the electorate in the plebiscite taken of them. He considered it an insult to loyal Canadian people to ask whether the Canadian navy should be available to the empire in time of war.

HON. MR. HAZEN.

After some introductory remarks, Hon. J. D. Hazen launched upon a review of the political career of Hon. Dr. Pugsley, and made a somewhat bitter attack on the latter's reasons for changing his political faith.

Referring to the debate, Mr. Hazen declared that the object of Sir Wilfrid's amendment was to stir up racial and religious strife and to endeavor to cause dissension in the cabinet. He pleaded for time, that the government might determine its naval policy. He stated that nine tenders had been received by the former government on May 10th last for four cruisers and six destroyers. The lowest tender was that of Cammell Laird & Co., of Great Britain, whose figure was $11,280,000. He believed the real reason for the failure of the late government in promptly awarding the contract was the knowledge that six years hence, when these vessels would have been completed, they would have become obsolete and unfit for actual warfare. The minister closed by promising a naval policy which would be in the interests of Canada and in the interests of the empire.

Mr. Mackenzie, of Cape Breton, moved the adjournment of the debate.
