THE MARITIME PROVINCES SOLID FOR RECIPROCITY

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Triumphant Tour
Brought to a Close with Monster Meetings at Amherst and Moncton--Labor Men Gave the Premier Great Welcome at Amherst

(Special to The Toronto Globe)
Montreal, Sept. 3.—Tired necessarily, but in splendid spirits and full of confidence, Sir Wilfrid Laurier reached Montreal at 9 o'clock tonight, on his return from one of the most noteworthy and eminently successful political tours in his long public career.

SURE OF VICTORY

"Useless all signs fail," he declared enthusiastically at Oxford yesterday pointing to the blue sky above, "the endorsement of reciprocity by the Canadian people is as sure as it is that yonder sun shines."

Over twenty-five thousand people heard him on the closing day of his tour, and it was necessary to hold two overflow meetings. He sailed from Prince Edward Island in the morning, and reached the mainland shortly before noon. During the day he addressed gatherings at Pugwash, Oxford, Maccan, Amherst and Moncton.

At the last named centre the demonstration accorded him was very spectacular. The town was ablaze with colored lights, and thousands of torch-bearers escorted him from the station to the vast thronged arena, while the sky was alight with hundreds of rockets.

AMHERST WARM WELCOME

At Amherst Sir Wilfrid delivered what was probably the most brilliant address of his tour. In this big, busy industrial centre he came into contact with the most cosmopolitan gathering he has yet met. Over seven thousand packed the arena, and nearly as many more struggled unsuccessfully to gain admittance. A conference was held, and Hon. Charles Marcell set forth to open an overflow meeting in the Winter Fair building. Here the miners and the employees of various factories were prominent in the procession. The streamers were original and pertinent: "Thou shalt not tax the food products of mankind," was mounted alongside of sister inscriptions, "Reciprocity is endorsed by 200,000 labor men of Canada," and "Send our goods, not our children, to the United States."

Over the platform was printed the declaration of a prominent Presbyterian preacher of St. John: "Reciprocity, a belated measure of justice to farmers and toilers.—Rev. J. J. McCaill."

NO ICICLES SEEN

"You don't find any icicles hanging from the head of this bunch Sir Wilfrid!" yelled a stalwart at the head of the labor representation. And when the Premier smilingly concurred they broke into cheering.

Mayor Lowther who presided, was greeted with applause when he declared that reciprocity would mean better wages and decreased cost of living, while Mr. H. J. Logan, the candidate described the reciprocity campaign as an issue between the people and the moneyed interests.

Sir Wilfrid expressed appreciation of the remarkable welcome. "I do not take it to myself," said he, "but because I am the exponent of those Liberal principles which were advocated by Joseph Howe and which you have always held dear."

The Premier particularly acknowledged the greeting of representatives of labor. "As in the United States so in Canada," he said, "here also the forces which are combatting reciprocity are the special interests, combines, trusts and monopolies."

"The Toronto millionaire!" shouted a miner amid cries of "Hear, hear!" "All classes will benefit by the agreement," continued Sir Wilfrid. "It is resisted only by such specially favored interests. The artisans, laborers, farmers and fishermen are all with reciprocity."

FAVORED-NATION TREATIES

The Premier described the inclusion of Canada in the early British favored-nation treaties as having taken place "in what I would call the barbaric ages of colonial government." At the recent Imperial Conference it had been unanimously decided that should the self-governing dominions at any time desire to withdraw from the operation of these ancient treaties the mother country would negotiate to that end. For suggesting and moving this course—a course on which all were agreed—Sir Wilfrid's loyalty had been attacked.

ATTACKS ON HIS LOYALTY.

"It shows the length to which members of the Conservative party will go to injure an opponent," observed the Premier, and stepping to the front of the platform, he added: "I am losing patience at last, with these constant attacks on my loyalty. It is true that I am of French origin, but I have said over and over again that my allegiance as a Canadian and as a British subject is to the old motherland, under whose flag my race has obtained greater freedom than under any other regime. The Liberal party knows no race or creed, and I have sought throughout my whole life to maintain the policy of the party on these lines. I make no bones about it. I am an admirer of the American people, but the first place in my heart is for my native land. The allegation that reciprocity will lead to annexation is not only nonsense, it is an insult to the Canadian people. Reciprocity will be a further consummation of our own autonomy."

THAT TORONTO MANIFESTO

"There are those in Toronto who issued a resolution or manifesto—

Wood's Phosphodine.
The Great English Remedy.
Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new blood in old veins. Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Despondency, Sexual Weakness, Emissions, Spermatorrhoea, and Effects of Abuse or Excess. Price $1 per box, six for $5. members of the Board of Trade, I understand—who urged as an objection to reciprocity that in event of its being terminated by the United States at the end of a period of operation Canada would suffer so much from the dislocation of her trade and the withdrawal of the free American market in natural products that she would be ready for annexation! I tell them when they talk that way that they do not know you, my fellow-countrymen; they do not know the Canadian people. (Cheers.) It may be that Toronto millionaires and monopolists are more concerned about their pockets than their loyalty—they may choose their pockets—but I tell them this that the Canadian people will choose and stand by their loyalty. The young Canadians of today are true chips of the old block."

The great gathering rose and cheered again and again.

MONCTON WAS THROGGED

The tour of the seaside Provinces ended with the demonstration at Moncton last night. The town itself was literally jammed with humanity. Among the interesting features was the arrival of a special train with seven hundred enthusiasts over the new National Transcontinental. Ten thousands were accommodated in the arena and the streets were still blocked. An open-air overflow meeting was conducted in the square, where the attendance was estimated at four thousand. Both Sir Wilfrid and Hon. H. R. Emmers were heartily acclaimed. Sir Wilfrid referred to the statement made in the press to the effect that there were 90 Liberal members who were opposed to reciprocity at the time it was submitted to Parliament. "I cannot think," he added with a smile, "that anyone would be gullible enough to believe that. A man would need an India rubber throat to swallow it." (Laughter.)

QUEBEC IS TRUE

To those who imagine Sir Wilfrid Laurier has lost his hold upon the affections of his compatriots in rural Quebec, the scenes along the route of the Intercolonial, whence he travelled today from Moncton to Montreal, would have been a revelation. Wherever the news had leaked out, from every hamlet between Rimouski and Levis and on from Levis to Montreal, crowds of habitants had gathered at the little stations to do him honor. There is no mistaking the absolute devotion of these people to their distinguished compatriot.

ENTERTAINED THE PRESSMEN

The Premier hospitably entertained the retinue of newspaper men, representing the press of both parties, who have followed his tour of the Maritime Provinces, to luncheon in his car and spent over an hour subsequently chatting with them, a courtesy which was much appreciated. He is in the best of health and spirits, and stated he was looking forward to his tour of Ontario which starts at Alexandria tomorrow.

As the travellers saw it, the verdict of all three of the Maritime Provinces will be overwhelmingly for Laurier and larger markets. The sole speculation regarding the result is negative, namely, how much, if any, of his present somewhat meagre complement will Mr. Borden be able to hold after the 21st inst.

Hon. W. S. Fielding, who has so largely shared the honors of the tour with his leader, left Sir Wilfrid after the Amherst meetings to continue the campaign in Nova Scotia. The Minister of Finance is indomitable and dismissed the suggestions to take a much needed rest.

Look at Hon. McKenzie King. See what a work he is doing for Canada and her laboring men. Such a man is an asset to Canada. Then look at O. S. Crockett. His work has been confined entirely to the dirty side of politics. Such a man is a liability to Canada.

UNDER TORY RULE.

"Under the Conservative regime people were flying from Canada as from a plague-stricken country. That 1891 census—and he reiterated the gravest doubts that the records were truly kept—showed an increase of only 30 souls in New Brunswick, and of but 1-5 of 1 per cent. in Nova Scotia. Canadian Pacific was worth fifty cents in the dollar in 1896, and the value of the whole common stock issue was but $32,000,000; today it was valued at $425,000,000.—Sir Richard Cartwright at Toronto.
