Because Mrs. Goodine used Dodd's Kidney Pills

Doctor said she would have to undergo operation, but Dodd's Kidney Pills cured her

Central Kingsclear, York Co., N. B. Nov. 6.—(Special)—"The doctor said I would have to undergo an operation." So said Mrs. J. V. Goodine, of this place. But she smiled as she made the remark, for all need of the dreaded operation had vanished. Mrs. Goodine used Dodd's Kidney Pills and is a well woman. Given in brief and in her own words, Mrs. Goodine's experience is as follows: "I was very miserable with Kidney Disease and unable to do my own work. The doctor said I would have to undergo an operation. After using three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills I was all better and able to do my work. This statement is true, as you can easily prove by enquiring among my neighbors."

"BUFFALO BILL" IS OUT OF PUBLIC LIFE

Richmond, Va., Nov. 2.—Col. William F. Cody, 'Buffalo Bill' to the world retired from public life last night. His show was packed off to winter quarters, and his Indians will return to their tepees in what is left of the Red Man's Land, while Buffalo Bill intends to spend his remaining years in the Wyoming Big Horn, where he helped make American history. So far as public exhibitions are concerned he has shot the ashes from the last cigar and chased the last Indian.

During a career which began as a pony express rider, led him through more Indian battles than any other living white man, and included twenty-eight years as a showman, Col. Cody became known as one of the most picturesque figures of American frontier life.

Buffalo Bill whose adventures have fired the enthusiasm of countless boys and aroused the interest of older people was born in Scott County, Ia., in 1846. His father was killed in the 'Border War' in Kansas, and young Cody branched out for himself becoming a pony express rider in 1860. The following year he became a government scout and guide and was a member of the 7th Cavalry from 1861 to 1865. While the Kansas Pacific Railway was being constructed Cody contracted to furnish the workers with buffalo meat required. In those days great herds of bison roamed the prairies of the west and Cody had an easy time finding his game. In eighteen months 1867-8 he killed no less than 4,280 buffalo, the meat of which went to feed the railway construction workers while the hides were sold to make coats and robes for sleighs. Cody thus earned the sobriquet 'Buffalo Bill' and his fame became widespread. He later became a government scout and served in operations against the Sioux and Cheyenne Indians. In the battle of Indian Creek, he killed Yellow Hand, the Cheyenne chief, in a hand-to-hand fight. He also took part in the battle of Wounded Knee and many other engagements with red men. From 1883 up to the present he headed his Wild West Show which exhibited in many parts of the world. Col. Cody is judge-advocate-general of the Wyoming National Guards. He was elected a member of the Nebraska Legislature in 1872. Buffalo Bill is a tall soldierly-looking man. His long hair and pointed grey beard help to make up his striking appearance and he rides a horse like a Centaur.

The Rayo Lamp

The Lamp That Saves The Eyes

Children naturally never think of possible strain on their eyesight when poring over a fascinating book. It is up to you to see they do not ruin their young eyes these long evenings by reading under a poor light.

The Rayo Lamp is an insurance against eye troubles, alike for young and old.

The Rayo is a low-priced lamp, but it is constructed on the soundest scientific principles, and there is not a better lamp made at any price. It is easy on the eye because its light is so soft and white and widely diffused. And a Rayo Lamp never flickers.

Easily lighted without removing shade or chimney; easy to clean and revivify. Solid brass throughout, with handsome nickel finish; also in many other styles and finishes.
