HIS LORDSHIP THE BISHOP ADDRESSED SYNOD TODAY

to a marked extent, also a statement showing that in many walks of life there had been a corresponding increase in earning powers. The increase in the salaries of clergymen had not been made to a corresponding extent however. The Presbyterian Synod referred to had mentioned $1,200 per year and a house as the minimum which a congregation should keep before it as a stipend for its clergyman. Surely the church of England could fix a minimum of $800 per annum and a house.

The church was not giving in proportion to its ability. In some of the country parishes were to give to the support of their clergy proportionately as much as did some of the churches in cities and towns there would be no need of grants from the Board of Missions. Some of the parishes were merely sponging on the churches. What was needed was a thorough organization of the church finances. The financial power existed in the parishes, the means of application were lacking.

His Lordship then proceeded to make several suggestions. The synod should place itself on record as being strongly opposed to the present attitude of the church toward the stipends of the clergy. A minimum stipend should be decided upon. A financial campaign covering the whole diocese should be undertaken. The money was there and could be obtained if the machinery were available. Organization should be undertaken in every parish. It might be advisable to appoint a Missionary Financial Agent who would go about the diocese emphasizing the necessity of Christian giving.

WORK OF SUNDAY SCHOOL

Concerning Sunday School His Lordship said the diocese had not yet awakened fully to the importance and value of the only means of getting in touch with the young. He complimented the committee on Sunday Schools mentioning particularly the name of Canon Powell in connection with work at Rothesay last summer.

The importance of the Home Department was emphasized by His Lordship who stated that the parish priests should have more help in this connection from members of their congregations. The Home Department, he had to say, was very much preferable to the Union Sunday School. With all due respect to those who did not believe in certain matters as did the members of the Church of England he must say the Union Sunday School did more harm than good. He regretted that the Church of England was compelled to work apart from the great body of Sunday School workers of the province who had magnificent machinery and unbounded enthusiasm.

However, the Church of England must organize its own Sunday School machinery. His Lordship also urged the publication of a weekly Sunday School paper.

LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT.

His Lordship referred to the conference in connection with the Laymen's Missionary Movement, which is to be held in St. John in the present month. He gave his approval to the movement. Some thought that it was opposed to the teaching of the Church of England but he could not think so.

He thought the movement gave members of the church an opportunity to display their catholicity. Already the church had received much aid from the movement.

APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL.

Continuing, His Lordship stated that he did not approve of the method of appointment of rectors in force in the diocese. He would like to see some method of joint action by the people of a parish and the bishop. The interests of diocese and parish should both be considered. At present the bishop was frequently not consulted in the matter of appointments. The system also interfered with promotion of clergy. There was also an urgent need for more machinery for the removal of clergy. Both these matters would come before the Synod.

CHRISTCHURCH CATHEDRAL.

Referring to the partial destruction of Christchurch Cathedral by fire His Lordship said that it might prove an advantage in the end. No unnecessary changes were being made in the church. The original plans of the late Bishop Medley were being followed and the spire was to be built twenty feet higher than before. He could say that only the utmost necessity would compel him to make an appeal to the people of the diocese for aid for the restoration. An appeal had been made to the parishes for aid for the upkeep of the Cathedral. A few had responded.

KING'S COLLEGE.

The bishop's address referred to King's College. The importance of the institution was recognized and the necessity of greater financial assistance was realized. A financial campaign to raise $125,000 for the College had been begun in both dioceses. The Dominion elections had interfered with the campaign in No. 10 Scotia. In New Brunswick the people would shortly have an opportunity of hearing the claims of King's College presented. The president of the College was present and he and some of the governors would address the Synod in the afternoon.

TEMPERANCE AND MORAL REFORM.

Speaking on Temperance and Moral Reform, His Lordship expressed his regret that the Church of England was not more militant in this regard. The problem of intemperance was one of the greatest with which the church had to deal.

His Lordship closed his address with reference to those clergymen who had passed away during the year and expressed his gratitude to the members of both clergy and laity for their assistance to him during the year.

The address was referred to the Standing Committee on Reports.

CAUGHT A BAD COLD

Developed Bronchitis
She Could Hardly Speak

Bronchitis begins with tightness across the chest, difficulty of breathing, hoarseness, and there is a dry, harsh, croupy cough.

After a few days mucous begins to be raised. This is at first white, but later of a greenish or yellow color and is occasionally streaked with blood.

Cure the first symptoms of bronchitis by the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and thus prevent it becoming chronic and perhaps turning to consumption.

Mrs. Edward Travers, Campbellton, N. B., writes:—"I thought it my duty to write and let you know what your wonderful medicine has done for me. I caught a very bad cold which developed into bronchitis. I was so choked up I could hardly breathe. I tried many medicines but they did me no good, and I had almost given up in despair. A friend advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I got a bottle and felt much better, and by the time I had taken four I was completely cured, and I can assure you I cannot say too much in its praise, as it is all you claim for it, and more."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents.

PEKING HAS NOT FALLEN

San Francisco, Nov. 6—A cablegram to the Chinese daily papers and newspapers published here, received early today, says Peking was captured late yesterday by the revolutionists after a sharp encounter.

A despatch was also received by the Chinese Free Press announcing that the fall of Peking had been reported at Shanghai, but had not been verified. The despatch stated that all the officials of the city including a number of high officials of the Manchurian dynasty, had fled in the night. The rebels are said to be in peaceful possession after a spirited fight late yesterday. Chinatown here is celebrating the reported revolutionary victory with parades and fireworks.

BRITISH TROOPS GOING TO PEKING

Hong Kong, Nov. 6—Six companies of British troops including engineers' artillery and two regiments of Indian troops are in readiness to proceed to Tien Tsin.

There was an extraordinary outburst of joy here today upon the receipt from Shanghai of a report that the rebels had captured the native city of Peking. Without waiting for confirmation from other than rebel sources the city was soon in holiday array. Rebel flags appeared everywhere and crowds cheering exploded bombs and firecrackers.

MORE TOWNS FALL TO REBELS.

Shanghai, Nov. 6—Shao Hing in the province of Che Kiang, famous for its mines, Quinsan and Kashing, in the same province, surrendered peacefully to the rebels late today. Order is being maintained. With the exception of Wush all important points on the railroad from Shanghai to Chilli Kiang are now in the hands of the revolutionists. Nanking is still outwardly loyal and quiet, but the Tartar general is so unpopular that an upheaval threatens.

AMOY STILL LOYAL

Amoy, Nov. 6—The report of the rebel occupation of Amoy is unfounded. The situation here is tense, but there are no disorders.

NO WORD OF PEKING'S FALL.
London, Nov. 6—Lengthy despatches sent from Peking and timed early this morning fail to mention the fall of capital or the flight of the court.

Peking, Nov. 7—Garrisoned and policed by loyal force the capital remained tonight undisturbed by the rebels.

The general feeling of nervousness, however, was betrayed when an accident, a fire broke out in the squares occupied by the board of ceremonies. The smoke invaded the forbidden city and there was great alarm among the Manchurian nobles. The Chinese believed that the flames were a revolutionary signal for an uprising, and they were thrown into a panic. For a time there was much excitement. The national assembly by virtue of powers bestowed upon it, by the recent edict today formally appointed Yuan Shi Kai, premier, the question of his permanency to office was still in doubt. But it was decided that the assembly had no authority to guarantee this beyond the election of a parliament. It was however, resolved to assure Yuan of the assembly's continued support and that there was no danger that he would be supplanted.
