Berlin Greatly Excited Over Sir Edward's Speech

Actual War Could not have Roused German Feeling more—British Secretary of Foreign Affairs said Germany's Designs were not Aggressive—Warns World to get into State of Political Sobriety

(Canadian Press.)

Berlin, Nov. 28—The eager curiosity concerning the looked for speech of Sir Edward Grey in the House of Commons reached a fever pitch last evening. If the direct question of peace or war had been at stake, the excitement could scarcely have been greater than it was while the public awaited the newspaper reports of what the British secretary of foreign affairs had said in reference to the recent Moroccan negotiation. The papers issued free news extras.

EFFECT IN LONDON

London, Nov. 28—Overnight consideration of Sir Edward Grey's speech of yesterday, on the international situation in the House of Commons has served to emphasize the favorable view taken here of the effect of his utterances. There is some disappointment at the rather acrid comment of the German newspapers but it is realized that their criticisms were written before the full text of the speech had reached Berlin and it is hoped that a further study of Sir Edward Grey's remarks will lead to a more effusive reception of Great Britain's proffer of friendship.

The stock exchange was not much affected, the market opened brighter than it has been, but the command from a Berlin had a somewhat chilling effect upon prices. Operators deciding to await advices as to the effect on the Berlin house before indulging in a speculative outburst.

SIR EDWARD'S SPEECH

London, Nov. 27—Sir Edward Grey, secretary for foreign affairs, cleared the political atmosphere and poured oil on the turbulent waters of Anglo-German relations in a speech lasting one hour and a half in the House of Commons this afternoon.

The foreign secretary reviewed the whole Moroccan episode from the sudden appearance of the German gunboat Panther in the port of Agadir in southern Morocco up to the signing of the Franco-German treaty. He unflinchingly upheld the attitude taken by the British government, but at the same time declared that its action was never antagonistic to Germany or to any settlement she was able to arrange with France and which did not threaten the rights of Great Britain.

FIT OF POLITICAL ALCOHOLISM

Sir Edward Grey made no secret of the fact that the situation had at one time been very tense, but thought his statements today would prove a sedative to a world which had been indulging in a fit of political alcoholism and that the time had arrived for it to get and to keep cool and sober.

Great Britain had no secret treaties and both France and Russia knew perfectly well that British public opinion would not support any provocative or aggressive action against Germany. German strength was in itself a guarantee that no other country would seek a quarrel with her if a nation had the biggest army in the world and a very big navy and was going to build a still bigger navy than that nation must do all in its power to prevent the natural apprehensions of others lest that power should have aggressive intentions toward them.

"I do not believe that Germany has aggressive designs and all we or the neighbors of Germany desire is to live with her on equal terms.

DIPLOMATS HEAR SPEECH

The house of commons was crowded when Sir Edward Grey arose. Many distinguished strangers were in the galleries, among them a number of foreign diplomats.

CANADIAN BRANCH BANKS NEEDED IN AUSTRALIA

(Canadian Press.)

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 28.—D. H. Ross, Canadian trade commissioner to Australia, in a report to the trade and commerce department, gives a valuable tip to Canadian bankers. He says:

"No Canadian or United States bank has opened a branch bank in Australia or New Zealand. At present nearly all bills of exchange are negotiated either in New York or London, which causes much inconvenience, or through bills of lading covering Canadian shipments to Australia being so much delayed in transit that the steamers are discharged before the necessary documents have arrived. Shipments cannot be passed through the customs without invoices and the production of bills of lading are also necessary in order to obtain delivery from the steamers. Storage charges on the wharfs accumulate and

WHOLE FAMILY OF LOUISIANA NEGROES KILLED

Young Negress Arrested on Charge of Committing Crime Laughed at Police --- Victims were Murdered as They Slept

SEVERAL MATERIAL WITNESSES ARE HELD

(Canadian Press.)

La Fayette, La., Nov. 28—Arrested and accused of the murder of six persons, then confronted with her blood-soaked clothing, that had been found near the crime's scene, Clementine Barnabel, a young negress, laughed at the police today, refusing to admit any part in the murders. Her brother and two young negroes have been arrested with Clementine as material witnesses. Late yesterday the family of Herbert Randall, including six persons, were found in bed, their bodies horribly hacked. It is believed that they were murdered Saturday night as they slept. They were negroes.

HEAVY SEAS KILLED SEAMAN ON SHIP'S DECK

Steamer Santa Anna Arrived at New York with Report that Four Men had been Lost and three Others Injured

STORM WAS THE MOST VIOLENT IN YEARS

(Canadian Press.)

New York, Nov. 28—A tremendous sea which hammered the bow and swept the decks of the steamer Santa Anna, caused the death of four seamen, and the serious injury of three others. News of the disaster was brought to port when the liner arrived today from Marseilles and Naples. The ship's passage as a whole was stormy and unpleasant but it was not until last Thursday that the heaviest sea was encountered. Described by Capt. Pavri, as the most terrific he ever encountered. "A great mass of water rose like a wall before the vessel, then fell with crushing force upon the decks and sweeping over every part of the ship, carried seamen Durand, Hartl, Caliste and Quartil off the decks like corks. Three others were stretched out unconscious on the decks. The impact of the wall of water had nearly stopped the ship. Engines were reversed quickly, life buoys were thrown out promptly, and as the vessel neared the spot where the four had been swept into the sea, all hands on board were enjoined to see them floating on the buoys. The sea was so violent, however, that three of them soon relinquished their hold and sank. Of the injured on board it was found that Seaman Foixel's spine was broken and he died two days later.

TRIAL STOPPED BY DEATH OF JUROR'S BROTHER

Los Angeles, Nov. 28—The trial of James B. McNamara for murder, stopped for a little while today in reverence for the death of Charles Seaton, a brother of Juror Seaton. The juror was with his brother in the last hours of his life, but a suggestion that he be excused from jury service was vetoed by counsel for the defense. Already three sworn jurors have been excused because of illness and the dismissal of another seems to impend, and in replacing each of these, the defense figures it may have to use one of its peremptory challenges thus curtailing the rights granted the defense and under the law. The other men in the jury box, requested to be allowed to attend the funeral of Mr. Seaton. This request was granted by stipulation of counsel and other jurors in charge of deputies were among the mourners.

THREE ONTARIO BOYS HELD FOR MURDER

Cornwall, Ont., Nov. 28—With one eye gouged out and fearfully beaten head, George Gallinger, 83 years old is in a critical condition and three boys are held on the charge of attempted murder. The accused are Arthur Tyo, aged fifteen years, Jas. Tyo, aged sixteen, and Fred White, aged eighteen. On Sunday afternoon, it is claimed they went to the house where the old man lived, alone. One threw a glass of water in his face, as another struck him on the head with a club and after demands for money had been made, he was brutally beaten.

FRUIT GRADING SHOWS MUCH IMPROVEMENT

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 28.—According to a report of the trade and commerce department, the fruit brokers and merchants in Liverpool and Manchester are loud in their praise of the improvement of grading Canadian apples. So far this season there is not in evidence the complaints of many years past, shipping Canadian apples as No. 1 when they are really No. 2. All interested in the trade express their appreciation of the thorough manner in which the Canadian government follows those guilty of infraction of the law and they approve the system of publishing the names of all persons guilty of dishonest grading. These names are freely distributed in the trade. The results were shown before the end of last season in improved grading, which has continued this year.

Dr. Murray McLaren of St. John, is in the city today to attend the meeting of the University Senate and is a guest at the Barker.

Mr. Stanley Rogers went to McAdam this morning.

GRADUAL RESTORATION EXPECTED IN MARKET

(By direct private wire to J. C. Mackintosh & Co., 604 Queen St. Fredericton)

New York, N. Y., Nov. 28—In the absence of any developments in the situation at large of an influential character, yesterday's stock market went over to professional observers who were not slow to profit by the opportunity thus afforded to make quick speculative turns.

General news was rather colorless but as a whole continued to be of a constructive kind. All indications pointed to a gradual restoration of business confidence and a slow but steady enlargement of trade in various branches. Bear operators profess to see much disturbance ahead from the activities of congress in connection with tariff schedules, but the threats of drastic revision by the Democratic majority are tempered by the knowledge that the presidential veto awaits any hasty or ill-considered action.

There is undoubtedly a disposition amongst these men at large to ignore the political factor, which has so long caused depression in the business and industrial world and to make large commitments in anticipation of a natural recovery. A long period of enforced economy has resulted in minimum stocks of merchan-
