Many who have taken out short term subscriptions during the tour contest have phoned or written The Mail as to number of votes issued on extension subscriptions and the following list has been tabulated for their information.

Those who have paid $1 and received 300 votes, may if they wish extend to the amount of $1 more and receive 500 votes for the second payment or 800 in all.

Those who paid $8 and received 5000 votes may extend to the amount of $4 more and receive 4000 votes or 9000 in all.

Also those who have paid $4 and received 2,000 votes, may extend $8 and receive 7000 votes, or 9000 in all. These extensions apply to the Daily Mail by carrier or mail and to Semi-Weekly subscriptions up to three years. After three years of the Semi-Weekly on which $3 has been paid entitling the one paying to 2000 votes, extensions will be made as follows:

Second three years of Semi-Weekly Mail, at $3 will entitle one paying to 3000 more votes or 5000 in all for the six years.

Those who have paid for six years to the Semi-Weekly may if they wish take out three years additional and receive 4000 votes more, or 9000 in all for the nine years.

On all extended subscriptions the word "extension" should be written plainly across right hand end of subscription blank and number of votes expected filled in on blank left for that purpose.

As big subscriptions count up fast each candidate should endeavor to secure at least a few of these.

Send in your subscriptions now and profit by the transaction, as well as aid some young lady to win a delightful tour.

Battling Nelson declares that he is going to retire in 1912, either a champion of a "has-been." The sports will give big odds that he will be the latter. Though having on several bouts the Battler has signed to meet Gus Bezenah in Jeffersonville, Ind., on Dec. 4.

Tom O'Rourke has received a letter from England convincing him that Jack Johnson has retired from the boxing game. It will be a big benefit to the game if it is so.

Jim Flynn, the destroyer of hopes, objects to being called an Italian. "You bet I am Irish," he says, "and there is nothing to that report that I'm an Italian. I had an Italian mother, but that is as far as it goes."

ACADIA WON INTERCOLLEGIATE TITLE BY SAFETY TOUCH-DOWN

Godfrey and Perce Andrews each Scored Tries-- Buckley Fumbled near Mount A. Goal-line and had to Touch-down--Two Thousand Saw Game

Truro, N. S., Nov. 17.—In one of the most keenly contested football matches ever witnessed in the Maritime Provinces, Acadia College's fifteen defeated Mount Allison's team in the play-off for the King-Richardson trophy here this afternoon.

The contest was a battle royal from start to finish, and was witnessed by over 2,000. The ground was frozen, consequently accidents were numerous. In the second half both Richmond and Stults of Acadia were injured so seriously that they were obliged to be replaced by Morrison and Robinson.

GODFREY SCORED

The Allisonians started off with a rush which, figuratively, took the Acadicians off their feet. Two minutes after the game had been in progress Buckley of Mount Allison passed to Godfrey, who scored. The Acadicians got down to business after this and carried the play to the Mount A. twenty-yard line. For fifteen minutes the territory was evenly divided. Perce Andrews, of Acadia, received a pass on Mount Allison's thirty-yard line, and after leaping over two of his opponents, tied the score. The run was very sensational, and Andrews was given a tremendous ovation.

BUCKLEY TOUCHED DOWN

After the teams had been playing for five minutes in the second period Buckley, in endeavoring to punt near the Allison goal-line slipped and fell on the sphere, touching for safety.

Both teams battled fiercely for a try but as none was made, the Acadicians left the field victorious, 4 to 3, because in intercollegiate league contests when the score is given at the end of the game, the side which has reached for safety loses to its opponents by one point.

SALARIES OF MINOR LEAGUES CONSIDERED BY CONVENTION

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 16.—Chas. W. Murphy, owner of the Chicago Cubs, made a plea for the square deal at this afternoon's session of the baseball delegates. Today's conference was given over to a discussion of what some of the members called the "salary evil," and sundry plans that might lead to greatly reduced salaries and salary limits for major and minor leagues were gone into at length.

It was while the growth of players' salaries was being discussed that Pres. Murphy said:

"Players come to the big leagues from the minors and grossly misrepresent the salaries that they have been paid, and as the minor leagues seem to consider information about players sacred, we are held up times without number.

"There is only one way to overcome this evil," Mr. Murphy declared heatedly, "and that is for the leagues to play on the square. Until we protect each other and live up to definite agreements, there will be no stop to this evil. We must give each other a square deal."

DRASTIC LEGISLATION

It is evident that there will be drastic legislation governing salary limits in Classes B, C and D leagues, and that heavy penalties will be exacted from those violating the rules now in process of formation.

HOGAN WON SECOND DECISION OVER BROWN

New York, N.Y., Nov. 17.—"One Round" Hogan easily had the better of seven of the ten rounds in a bout with "Knockout" Brown at the Madison Athletic Club tonight. It is the second time that Hogan has been admitted with a victory over Brown.

Although at their previous meeting there was some division of opinion as to whether the New York man was really beaten, the Californian man was not disputed the popular decision tonight. It was, however, a fast out, from beginning to end and Brown came back many times with evidence of great stamina.

FOOTBALL NOTES

Jimmy Johnson, Carlisle's former star quarterback is practicing dentistry in the Tropics.

Apparently the shift of Captain Fisher to centre has strengthened the Harvard eleven.

Five hundred undergraduates accompanied the Michigan team to Cornell for the Ithaca game.

Both Captain Potter of the Harvard baseball team and Captain Merritt of the Yale nine are varsity quarterbacks.

Owing to over-application for tickets each year for the Harvard-Yale game Yale will build a stadium to seat 70,000 people.

It is rumored in the Eastern league circles that the Providence, Jersey City and Montreal franchises are for sale.

Fierce complaints were made by delegates from Class B Western and Eastern Leagues regarding the violations of salary limit agreements, and it was stated that not until force was used to curb ambitious managers could many of the smaller clubs hope to show any profit.

IMPROVEMENT SUGGESTED

A method of improvement of contract was suggested by Sec. J. H. Farrell. He suggested contracts with blank form of affidavit on the reverse side, which players must sign before notary public. This would make it difficult for them to violate contracts.

The part that major league clubs have in forcing minor league clubs to pay excessive salaries for players was probed into. It was suggested that when players went to the major leagues their return price should be fixed if they were forced to return to minor league ball.

J. J. Stein, secretary-treasurer of the Eastern League, stated that in justice to minor leagues, major league clubs should put newly drafted players on probation until they had established their merits.

Pres. F. R. Carson of the Central League stated that action was imperative, and suggested that $2,500 be fixed as maximum monthly amount for players in class B clubs. Others were of the opinion that the amount should not be so high.

BURKE RELEASED TO MONTREAL BY BOSTON

(Boston Globe.)

William I. Burke, the young left-handed pitcher of the Boston National League Club, who was with Montreal of the Eastern League the past season, has been released outright to the Montreal Club.

The Boston Club management last night announced that following a conference between Manager Fred Tenney and Pres. S. E. Lichenstein of the Montreal Club, yesterday, terms were agreed upon for the purchase and release of the young twirler.

Burke, who is a Clinton boy, is at present working as a newspaper reporter in Worcester and was especially anxious to go back to Montreal.

The local club was loath to part with Burke, but with Hess, Tyler and McTigue on the pitching staff, the club has its share of southpaws.

BASEBALL NOTES

Pitcher "Cy" Morgan of the Athletics, hit 21 batsmen last season.

Jack Barry, shortstop of the world's champs, has opened a garage in Worcester, Mass.

Umpire Brennan of the National League is giving a lecture with moving pictures of the world's series, in vaudeville.

The Portland, Ore., club will erect a new grand stand and bleachers which are to have a seating capacity of 14,000 persons.

Andy Cookley, the former Philadelphia-Cincinnati pitcher has signed a contract to coach the Williams College baseball team.

The Fond du Lac team in the Wisconsin-Illinois league will probably be shifted to Elgin, Ill., if the Elgin fans dig and produce the necessary money getters.

HONEY MELODY ONLY GOT DRAW WITH YOUNG NITCHE

Claimant to Welterweight Title had his Hands full for Eight Fast Rounds
on Thursday Night

Adams, Nov. 16.—Honey Melody of Boston, who claims the welterweight championship of the world, defended that title in eight fast rounds to a draw with Young Nitche of Philadelphia, before the North Berkshire A. C. here tonight. Nitche went on in place of Andy Parker of New York, who was originally billed with Melody for twelve rounds. Both men were very fast and there was plenty of action.

Melody showed cleverness in covering and in his ability to get in some fast swings, but found the Philadelphia boy a willing mixer and ready to do his full share of the work. Nitche displayed a thorough knowledge of the game and sent in some fast ones.

Really modern couples are just apt to be truly mated as the old-fashioned sort of which we read about in the romances. A young Cleveland who is often described as a "man about town" became engaged not long ago, and he spoke as follows to the lady who had honored him:

"I don't want to have anything that I must hide after we are married, dear. So I may as well tell you that I play poker I smoke cigarettes, I drink, I stay out late and I hot on the races."

"I'm glad to hear you say so," said the up-to-date girl. Brightly. "I was so afraid that you and I wouldn't be perfect companions!" Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Mr. W. H. Berry of St. Stephen, arrived in the city today. He is at the Barker House.

Col. H. H. McLean, M. P., and Mrs. McLean left St. John last night for Ottawa.

A St. Louis scribe walleth thus. The Cardinals have two reasons for being famous (in St. Louis) They are the only club owned by a woman and they are the only team that lost a series to the Browns.

Manager Ned Egan of the Ottawa team in the Central association has all the minor league managers outside the fence when it comes to class. Ned was married recently to Miss Kate Drummond of St. Paul, and the happy couple are taking a trip round the world for their honeymoon.
