ARREST BY POLICEMAN GUNTER
MAY RESULT IN ASSAULT CASE

Henry Williams Will Defend Himself From Charge of Drunkenness and if Successful Will Take Action Against Policeman—At Physician's Request Case is Adjourned.

A case in which Special Policeman Gunter is concerned, and which is directly connected with the enforcement of the Canada Temperance Act was adjourned from this morning until Monday. The case has created much interest as the circumstances connected with it are known to a large number of citizens, some of whom are likely to be called as witnesses.

THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

Late Saturday afternoon Policeman Gunter arrested Henry Williams on the charge of drunkenness. Williams objected to being arrested, stating that he was not drunk and offered resistance. The policeman drew his baton and used it on Williams' head. He also placed the "twisters" on one of the prisoner's wrists and finally landed him at the police station. The scuffle started on Westmorland street near Queen and was continued on Queen street, both policeman and prisoner going down several times. A large crowd gathered while the policeman was taking his prisoner to the police station and several persons made objection to the use of the baton by the policeman on the ground that Williams was not drunk. Elmer Humes, who was driving by with his horse and sled, offered his assistance to the policeman, but the latter declined it. Mr. A. R. Slipp, M.P.P., was one of those who offered strong objection to the use of the baton by the officer.

WILLIAMS SERIOUSLY HURT.

Williams was allowed to go on deposit. This morning he was to appear before Police Magistrate Marsh.

SCORED BIG HIT

"The Time, the Place and the Girl" which was put on at the City Opera House Saturday night, proved to be one of the brightest musical comedies seen here in some time. There was plenty of catchy music while the stage setting was away above the average. Thos. Cameron as Johnny Hicks was the man who made the biggest hit. Herbert Morrison's song "Blow the Smoke Away," was well received as were also Rose Delmat's song "The Waning Honeymoon" and Celia Mavis' solo "I'm Lonesome Tonight." Fredericton audiences will gladly welcome the company should it return. The audience Saturday night packed the Opera House to its fullest capacity.

DEATH OF CHILD

Mr. and Mrs. George Grant of this city are receiving the sympathy of their many friends on account of the death of their son Robert N., who died yesterday after a lingering illness aged six months. The child is survived by his parents, two brothers and one sister. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. Canon Cowie will conduct the service. Interment will be made at the Rural Cemetery.

HIS MAJESTY THE KING
GETS AFTER SLANDERERS

London, Jan. 29—The News of the World says that King George's advisers have instituted criminal proceedings, with the object of ending once for all, rumors which have been freely circulated for years that His Majesty, when Prince of Wales, wasmorganatically married to a daughter of an admiral at Malta.

The defendant in the case is Edward F. Mylius, who is said to be connected with the paper, The Liberator, published in Paris, which printed the statements on which the libel charge is based. Mr. Mylius was arrested some weeks ago, charged at Bow street, committed for trial and sent to jail.

In the ordinary way the case would be tried in the central criminal court but on application of the crown it will be brought up in the high courts on Wednesday next before Lord Chief Justice Alverstone and a special jury. According to a statement in the Liberator the defendant intends to file a plea for justification, and also to subpoena the king as a witness. The constitutional law, however, makes it impossible for his Majesty to give evidence in his own courts, notwithstanding that he may be anxious to do so.

Why should a bald-headed man make his will as soon as possible?—Because his end is in view.

"It isn't what a man earns that makes him rich," said the moraliser "No," rejoined the demoralizer, "it's usually what his father saved."

but the physician who attended him informed the court that his injuries were such as to prevent his appearance in court. A week's adjournment was granted, but it is likely that if Williams' condition permits the case will be before the court this week. Williams' head is said to be severely bruised and cut and his wrist much swollen as the result of the use of the "twisters."

COUNSEL RETAINED.

Mr. R. B. Hanson has been retained to act as counsel for Williams. Mr. Hanson stated this morning that his client would defend himself from the charge of drunkenness. The result of his defence would decide what action would be taken with regard to the injuries inflicted by Gunter. The defence will submit on a number of witnesses to prove that Williams was able to take care of himself when he was arrested. The defence also states that Policeman Gunter admitted since the arrest that Williams was not drunk, but that the arrest was made because Gunter was after "someone higher up."

GUNTER'S STATEMENT.

Policeman Gunter states that Williams was drunk when he was arrested. He had first been seen by the policeman on King street staggering. Gunter followed him to Queen, where he entered a drug-store. On coming out Williams had a shoe-box under his arm. The policeman thought the box contained liquor and followed Williams to King street, via Queen and Westmorland. He there took Williams by the arm and told him to go home and then proceeded to take him home. Williams went quietly until the two had come out Westmorland street almost to Queen, where he put up a fight. The policeman according to his own statement, had the shoe-box in one hand and was compelled to use his baton on account of the resistance made by Williams. The box on examination, was found to contain two bottles of liquor.

WILL PETITION FOR FIRE PROTECTION FOR LOWER MILLS

Residents of King's Ward Will Ask For Extension of Fire Limits to Victoria Mills.

Mr. J. A. Morrison, manager of the Phoenix Mill has taken steps to prepare a petition to be circulated among the residents of King's Ward for signatures, the prayer of which will be that the fire limits of the city be extended so as to include Victoria and Phoenix Mills. This petition is to be presented to the City Council at its regular monthly meeting in February.

The petition will be similar to that presented by the residents of Wellington Ward praying that the fire limits be extended to Bailey's Bridge. The residents of King's Ward who favor the petition do so on account of the lack of fire protection for the property along the river road, particularly the mills mentioned and the property adjacent. It is expected that the petition will be largely signed.

MARYSVILLE TOPICS

Jan. 29—The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nichols is seriously ill at his home.

Master Jack Robinson, son of Mr. Duncan Robinson had the misfortune to injure one of his thumbs, Dr. Fisher rendered the necessary surgical aid.

Mrs. J. E. Cowan and little daughter marjorie of St. John are the guests of Mrs. J. R. McConnell.

THE GIBSON LIMITS

Globe—Details of the sale by auction next month of the immense Gibson lumber property are being completed by Mr. Havelock Coy, Fredericton, master of the chancery division of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick. Bidders will each have to post certified checks for $10,000, and on making the agreement of purchase the successful bidder will have to post a certified check for $50,000 additional. Several parties are said to be inspecting this property with reference to purchase, and it is expected there will be keen competition. The Partington Pulp Company is among the concerns said to be likely to bid for these limits.
