HON. DR. PUGSLEY DELIVERS GREAT SPEECH AT FAIRVILLE

International Commission Recommends Storage Dams for the Upper St. John--Will be a Boon to Lumber Operators--Some Hot Shot for H. A. Powell and Frank Hatheway--The Advantages of Reciprocity Pointed Out in Convincing Manner

St. John, Aug. 21.—Hon. Dr. Pugsley and Mr. James Lowell, the Liberal candidates, opened their campaign at Fairville last night. Although the meeting was arranged on short notice, there was a big crowd in attendance and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

Mr. Lowell was the first speaker, and dealt in a forcible manner with the issues of the campaign, his remarks being frequently applauded.

HON. MR. PUGSLEY.

When Dr. Pugsley advanced to the front of the platform he was greeted with a spontaneous outburst of hearty cheers, and so prolonged was the display of enthusiasm that it was some time before he could make himself heard.

The minister of public works expressed his gratification at the large attendance, and said that he was sorry that the hall was not twice as large so that they could have accommodated a larger proportion of those who had gathered for the meeting.

Referring to the fact that he was no longer a candidate in the county, Dr. Pugsley said:

"When it was suggested by the leaders of our party that I should leave the county and contest the seat in the city I was unwilling to do so. I have always entertained the warmest feelings towards my friends in the county, who have given me such hearty support in the past, and who have stood by me so loyally. But Dr. Daniel was considered a strong candidate in the city and I agreed to contest that seat as I am always glad to be where the fight is the hottest. (Cheers.) I am sorry to say, however, that Dr. Daniel ran away from me. (Laughter.)

"In this campaign you are likely to hear from a gentleman who happens to be my opponent, and whose chief fault is that he talks too much. In fact he does nothing but talk. (Laughter.) During the period which he served in parliament the only thing by which he is remembered is his effort to force on Manitoba a measure to which the people of that province were opposed and which, if he had been successful, would have led to rebellion and bloodshed.

"This gentleman formerly resided in Westmorland county, but he talked himself out of Sackville and now lives in St. John. (Laughter.) At a recent meeting he is credited with saying that I would make an excellent ring master for a circus, and this remark drew from the audience the retort, 'And you, Mr. Powell, would make a good clown for the circus.' I am glad to learn by this that the people of St. John are beginning to get Mr. Powell's measure.

"It has been said in this campaign that I am trying to win my election with promises, but I am not here to make promises. I am appealing to you on my record. When you did me the honor to send me to Ottawa I resolved to do everything in my power for the benefit of this constituency, and how far I have succeeded I leave to you to judge.

"From the time of confederation to the day when the present government took office, St. John has had a hard road to travel. It was said that this port was to become the Liverpool of America, but in spite of this the Conservative government allowed the subsidized mail steamers to sail past St. John to the United States port of Portland. (Hear, hear.)

A GREAT SERVICE.

"You will remember that in 1896 a certain portion of the Conservative party, in an effort to right some of these things, organized the Independent party, and I had the privilege of being their standard bearer in St. John. We were not successful at the polls, but we were successful in ousting the Conservative party from power and placing the reins of government in the hands of the Liberal party. The immediate result was the putting into effect of the policy of developing Canadian ports and Canadian trade routes which has had such a beneficial effect on the port of St. John.

"It makes me tired when I hear of men like W. Frank Hatheway condemn the course which I pursued at that time. They had been at my back in that fight but the difference is that after the election they crawled back to the party which they had with reason accused of such rank injustice to this port. (Hear, hear.) I followed Sir Wilfrid Laurier and I have always been proud of my leader and of what he has accomplished since then.

THE ST. JOHN RIVER AND THE LOGS

Taking up a subject of great importance to the people of this district Dr. Pugsley said: "You all know of the attempts that have been made to divert the logs from the upper reaches of the St. John river from the mills at St. John to the mills at Van Buren in the state of Maine. You may also remember the time when I as attorney-general of the province, prevented them from blocking the river at Van Buren and so accomplishing this purpose. I may say that it was Mr. Powell who looked after the interests of the American companies. (Hear, hear.)

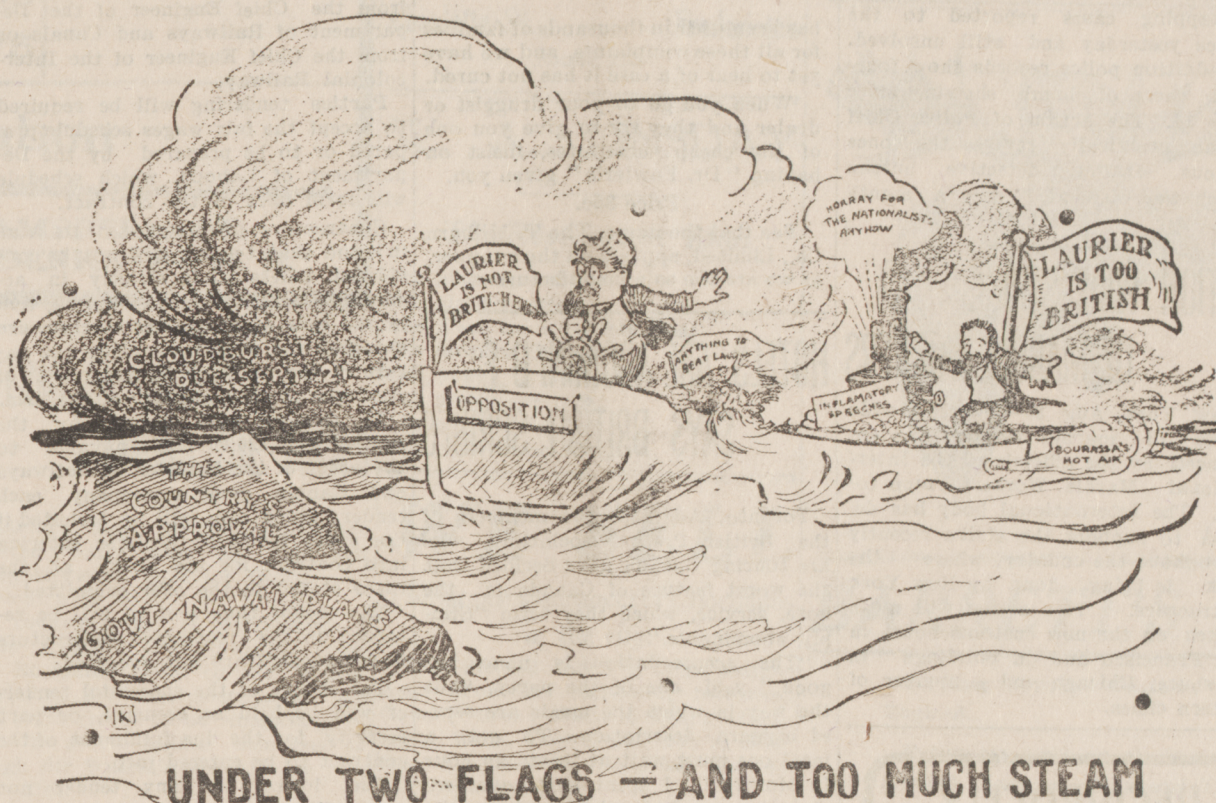

"You know," Dr. Pugsley continued, "that we have a joint commission, appointed at my request, to investigate the river conditions and the possibilities for the construction of storage dams on the upper waters to provide a steady flow of water for driving logs and also for the development of the water power. I am glad to be able to tell you that the engineers are favorable to the construction of these dams."

Dr. Pugsley paid a glowing tribute to A. P. Barnhill, the chairman of this commission, who is a native of Fairville, and referred to his elevation to a position on the new international commission, whose powers, he said, as far as the mutual interests of the two countries are concerned, are almost as great as those of The Hague tribunal.

RECIPROCITY.

Turning to the question of reciprocity which he said was the paramount issue of the campaign, Dr. Pugsley expressed surprise that it was meeting with opposition. When the recent negotiations were entered into, he said, it was generally supposed that the United States government would not consent to any tariff arrangement that did not include manufactured articles. He told how President Taft, in a speech given at New Orleans, said that his government had been authorized to

THOUSANDS GREET LAURIER IN NOVA SCOTIA CAPITAL

Liberal Chieftain Addressed an Audience of Ten Thousand People at the Arena Rink--Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. Chas. Marcell and the Liberal Candidates for Halifax also Spoke--Nova Scotia Likely to Return Another Solid Eighteen on Sept. 21st.

Halifax, Aug. 30.—Ten thousand people jammed into the Arena rink tonight to honor Sir Wilfrid Laurier and to give him a striking assurance that the city of Halifax will return two of his supporters in the next parliament.

Attentive and sympathetic, the large audience, many of them standing, followed closely the several speakers, and were evidently impressed with the weight of argument presented in favor of the reciprocity pact.

Dr. E. Blackadar and Hon. A. K. MacLean, the Liberal leaders, were given a magnificent reception and clearly have a strong following and every prospect for a victory over the opposition leader and his colleague.

Supported by Hon. W. S. Fielding, Sir P. W. Borden, Hon. G. H. Murray, premier of Nova Scotia, the Liberal candidates and Mr. Marcell, the Liberal chieftain held tonight the most successful political meeting ever known in Halifax. Over the platform hung a framed picture of the honored guest, draped with the Canadian flag and surmounting the motto "Reciprocity and Prosperity."

Various other mottoes were scattered about the walls of the immense building with welcoming signs and flags. As the band played the air which heralded the entrance of the chieftain, the 10,000 people in the rink rose simultaneously to their feet and cheered with all their strength for Laurier, a demonstration only rivaled by the unparalleled meeting in the sister city of St. John, two nights before. After the general cheering had subsided, some one in the audience called for three cheers for Sir Wilfrid. These were given with a will and a tiger, and a similar expression in honor of Hon. W. S. Fielding followed.

Alderman J. B. Douglas, chairman of the Liberal executive, presided, and introduced Dr. E. Blackadar, one of the Liberal candidates in Halifax. Dr. Blackadar, who in delivery, expression and choice of English, is an orator of a high order, paid eloquent tribute to Sir Wilfrid and to Hon. W. S. Fielding, which was received with storms of applause by the audience. He said Sir Wilfrid, like the Roman emperor, had turned his nation from brick to marble in the short period of fifteen years. Canada should be proud that she had given to the empire the greatest imperial figure of the generation.

Sir Wilfrid was the next speaker, and was again given a tumultuous welcome. He gracefully acknowledged the greeting, attributing the enthusiasm which had been manifested throughout his tour as due to the approval of the policy of the government, of which he was the leader. Sir Wilfrid spoke of seeing the monument to Joseph Howe in the city, and reminded the audience that the greatest effort of this prince of orators was a plea on behalf of reciprocity in the city of Detroit in 1867. When Sir Wilfrid mentioned Mr. Borden's name, in discussing the reciprocity pact, there was some handclapping followed immediately by three hearty cheers for Laurier, many of the audience rising to their feet in their enthusiasm.

When order was restored Sir Wilfrid effectively silenced those responsible for the applause.

LAURIER SEES BORDEN'S FINISH

"I am not surprised or displeased at this applause for Mr. Borden," said the premier, "for I know that this is his last political battle and his last opportunity for the applause of the public."

This little game was organized to that the news might carry to Montreal and Toronto that Borden's name was greeted with applause. So there was applause but there was much stronger cheering for MacLean and Blackadar, the two men who will hold the seats for Halifax after September 21.

Sir Wilfrid went on to speak of the vacillating course pursued by Mr. Borden on every matter of party policy and he made the opposition leader look very small indeed.

Sir Wilfrid was in splendid form and was heard by every one in the vast audience, his speech being closely followed and frequently interrupted by expressions of approval from his hearers. He spoke for more than one hour.

HON. MR. FIELDING

Hon. Mr. Fielding was most emphatically received, and dealt principally with the trade agreement. He was hoarse from the efforts of the past few days, but was given a sympathetic hearing, and made many telling points in favor of reciprocity. Hon. Mr. Fielding was greeted with a perfect storm of cheering when he declared that after thirty years of unbroken service as a minister of the crown he had never put his pen with greater pride to any document than he did to the reciprocity agreement.

Hon. Charles Marcell in a most eloquent address, promised fifty seats from Quebec for Laurier and cited the increase of population of Montreal from 225,000 in 1891 to 600,000 in 1911 as an example of the prosperity under Liberal rule.

LAURIER HEARS CHEERING NEWS

Sir Wilfrid spent the day quietly resting from the great strain of addressing 15,000 people at five open air meetings yesterday, and it was 3 o'clock this morning before he retired on his arrival here. This morning he took breakfast in his room and was feeling much refreshed when Premier Murray called at noon with an invitation to lunch at the Halifax Hotel. At one o'clock this luncheon was held with Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. Chas. Marcell and Halifax men as the other guests.

Daring the afternoon Sir Wilfrid drove to the provincial administration building where he had a conference with Premier Murray and later gave a reception to many Liberals and their friends. While the greeting to the Canadian premier, apart from the meeting tonight, was not a demonstration one out of regard to the chieftain's health, he was made to feel that he was very welcome, indeed, here in the native city of the opposition leader.

Reports submitted at an organization meeting this afternoon at which Sir Wilfrid was present were very cheering indeed and indicated that the Liberals would recapture both Halifax seats. Digby and Cumberland counties on September 21 with a good chance of another "solid eighteen."

Rev. Neill McLauchlan and wife arrived home yesterday afternoon.

Messrs. L. B. C. Phair and Bert Lint left for Halifax last night to attend the exhibition and races.

Mr. R. L. Black is leaving this evening on a combined business and pleasure trip to Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal and other cities.
