

CRIPPLE FROM RHEUMATISM

NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH
THANKS TO "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

VANCOUVER, B.C., Feb. 1st, 1910.

"I am well acquainted with a man, known to thousands in Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster, who for nearly a year was practically a cripple from Rheumatism. He was so troubled with the dis. as that he found it difficult to even turn over in bed. His heart appeared so weak that he could hardly walk up stairs.

Last June, he received a sample of "Fruit-a-tives". He used them and dates his recovery from that time. Today, there is no man in Vancouver enjoying better health.

He was building a house this fall and shingled a good part of the roof in a driving rain, without suffering any bad effects."

JOHN B. LACY.

Mr. R. E. Mills, (assistant postmaster at Knowlton, Que.) also writes: "I honestly believe that 'Fruit-a-tives' is the greatest Rheumatism cure in the world." Try it yourself.

ENORMOUS PROFITS MADE BY MIDDLEMEN

Hon. Sydney Fisher, minister of agriculture was one of the speakers at Valleyfield, P.Q., at a Liberal meeting on Saturday. In discussing reciprocity he said:

"The Opposition tell you that the British market is the best. If that is so why do you sell the majority of your produce to the United States? You have been sending from ten to one hundred times as much produce to the United States as you have sent to Great Britain. Have you done it for fun or for the benefit of the Americans? Have you been doing it for any other reason than your own benefit? If you have been doing this when duties were imposed, will it not be of still greater profit to you to do so when the duties are removed?"

After a vigorous denunciation of the annexation argument, and a still more vigorous attack on the "Appeal to the British-born" pamphlet, Mr. Fisher proceeded:

"It has been asked if the farmers are going to get more for their produce, will not that mean that higher prices for such produce will have to be paid by the people in the cities? I say, 'No it will not. On the contrary, our people in the cities will have to pay less for much of the food they have to buy. When the Americans send food into Canada, we have to pay the duty on that food before we can get it....the price of the food bought by the people in cities is American imported food and if we reduce the duties on that American imported food, the butchers, packers and other men who supply this food to the workers in the city will have to meet this competition and lower their prices just as the duty is lowered. At the same time, they will have to meet the competition of the American buyers who come to the farmers of Canada to buy their sheep, hogs, milk, butter and cream.

PROFITS BY MIDDLEMAN

"You may say: 'This is very bad for the packers, and will hurt the middleman, but I have some facts in connection with middlemen which lead me to have little sympathy with them.'

"Yes, and you want to put them out of business," shouted a man in the crowd.

"No, I do not," replied Mr. Fisher. "I want them to have a fair show, but I do not want them to make an unfair and exorbitant profit."

"Give the private individual a show," cried the same man.

In reply Mr. Fisher quoted from statistics supplied the Ontario courts in the settlement of the estate of the late Mr. William Davies of the William Davies Packing Company, "the greatest packing house in Canada," showing the profits made by that concern during a period of years. The profit on the invested capital of this company, as shown in this sworn statement, was as follows: In 1893, sixty-five per cent.; 1894, thirty-four per cent.; 1895, forty per cent.; 1896, forty-five per cent.; 1897, one hundred per cent.; 1898, one hundred and twenty per cent.; 1899, eighty-two per cent.; 1900, sixty per cent.; 1901, twenty-seven and a half per cent.; 1902, the same; 1902, fifteen per cent.; 1904, thirty per cent.; 1905, forty-one per cent.; and 1906, twenty-five per cent.

"Now," said Mr. Fisher, "I want to see the packers prosperous and the middlemen making a living fairly and squarely; but I say that a concern that fixes the price the farmers are going to get for their hogs and cattle has no right, in the interests of the community at large, to be able to make such exorbitant and extravagant profits as this. I have no objection to cutting down their profits on the finished product when it is for sale to the wage-earners and consumers of Canada and when the latter are going to live more cheaply and happily by such cutting down."

BOMB EXPLOSION SCARES NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 30.—The explosion of a black hand bomb, loaded with dynamite and gun cotton, in front of an Italian store on 51st Street early today, rattled the windows of residences and apartment houses for a mile along fashionable Fifth Avenue, and awakened hundreds of guests in the Hotel Plaza, the St. Regis and other fashionable hostilities.

The infernal machine, which the police say was hurled by a black hand agent from a taxi-cab, was one of the most powerful ever exploded in New York. It tore a great hole in the pavement and completely demolished the lower portion of the Fruit-ers Building. A police sergeant stood at a corner, a block above, watched the speeding taxi-cab as it slowed down the asphalt street, and then was suddenly thrown off his feet when the crash came.

The fruiterer, Chas. Romano, who is reputed wealthy, told the police that he had received many letters demanding money and threatening all sorts of dire punishment if the cash was not forthcoming.

WAVE OF CRIME AMONG ITALIANS

New York, Aug. 30.—All the Italian detectives in the city, 75 in number, were summoned to police headquarters today and assigned to stem the wave of Italian crime. The seriousness of the situation has become apparent today, when it was learned that the Italian government had received through its consul here a list of crimes committed by native of that country here since the first of the year, and was much exercised by the showing. It was stated that the detective bureau has a list containing the names of no less than 5,000 ex-Italian convicts believed to be in New York City at this time.

The immediate provocation of the Italian crime crusade was the two kidnapping cases reported to the police yesterday and still unsolved. In addition police records show fourteen cases of bomb showing since July 14. The action of Police Chief Waldo practically revives the once famous Italian detective bureau which was disbanded only a month ago.

The International body has decided to support the strike recently throughout the country, where the work is being done by New York contractors. This action will mean strikes on the new customs house in San Francisco and on buildings in Pittsburgh, Chicago and a number of western cities.

HOTELS ARE ABOMINABLE SAYS BRITISH SCRIBES

Toronto, Aug. 30.—The members of the British Press Association who are touring Canada have decided that the worst feature of Canada is the hotel, service, which they term "Simply abominable."

"The accommodation is none too good," said one of the party, "but the way in which the meals are served beggars description. To get a meal one must wait at least an hour in Montreal, I spent three quarters of an hour and then had to leave the dinner table after having partaken of soup and fish at one—a delightful meal for a hungry man."

"In Toronto," added another this morning, "my breakfast consisted of a plate of porridge, and I was half an hour getting even that."

She was highly esteemed for her many acts of kindness made her beloved by her many friends and acquaintances. Miss McDermott was a sufferer for some time with throat trouble and having consulted some of the leading physicians without obtaining relief her death was not unexpected, although it did come as a great shock to her many friends. The late Miss McDermott is survived by two brothers John and Patrick, residents of this place and one sister Mrs. John Donnelly of Lake George. The funeral took place from her home this morning at 9 o'clock with High Mass of Requiem celebrated at St. Patrick's Church by Rev. Father Cormier of French Village. The large number of mourners and friends present showed the high esteem in which the deceased lady was held. Mr. McAdam of Fredericton was the undertaker in charge.
