BORDEN'S QUIBBLE

When Sir Wilfrid Laurier denounced the scandal of men holding diametrically opposite opinions on a great public question, sitting side by side in the Government, in violation of the accepted principles of ministerial unity and ministerial responsibility, Mr. Borden tried to wriggle out of the humiliating position in which his alliance with Mr. Bourassa had placed him, by asserting that there was only a difference as to facts, and not as to principles between Mr. Monk and himself. This excuse was so lame, and so utterly preposterous, that even the Toronto Telegram is impelled to repudiate its pretences. In the following leading article it brings Mr. Borden up with a sharp turn:

A quibble, unworthy of Hon. R. L. Borden, was expressed in the argument embodied in Mr. Borden's definition of the difference between the Monk policy and the Conservative policy in relation to Canada's duty towards the defence of maritime freedom.

Canada did not understand that the difference between Mr. Borden and Mr. Monk was a difference on the question of fact as to whether Britain needed help.

Canada hoped that the difference between Mr. Borden and Mr. Monk was more than a difference on the question of policy as to whether Canada should help Britain.

Britain's need may be a question of fact on which Mr. Borden and Mr. Monk may safely disagree.

Canada's duty is no question of policy, but a question of principle on which Canadians are going to line up against the Monks and the Bourassas, irrespective of what Hon. R. L. Borden may do or leave undone.

The point that Hon. R. L. Borden overlooked in his speech is that Canada's duty in the defence of maritime freedom is not a question of fact or a question of policy, but a question of principle.

This ultra-Tory organ has put it up squarely to Mr. Borden, and he cannot escape. Mr. Monk's attitude is well known. He denounced both the naval policy of the Government and the Dreadnought proposals of Mr. Borden, and he burned his bridges behind him during the election campaign when he declared: "I have separated myself from Mr. Borden on this important question, and I will continue to fight until the battle is won." Neither Mr. Borden nor Mr. Monk can be persuaded to tell the whole truth about the matter, but it will be dragged out of them.

MONK'S ADMISSION

Hon. F. D. Monk's speech in the debate on the address ought to open the eyes of some people. "Sir Wilfrid is morose and peevish," he says, "because he is losing the confidence of Quebec." Why? Because, says Mr. Monk, Sir Wilfrid failed to guard the religious and racial rights of the French-Canadians. Because Sir Wilfrid failed to do justice to the Roman Catholic minority in Manitoba. Because Sir Wilfrid, in the Autonomy Bills of 1905, "once more deceived the confidence of the people whom he should have been particularly bound to protect"—that is, his co-religionists. Because Sir Wilfrid refused to impress the French language on the Legislatures of Alberta and Saskatchewan. Mr. Monk's admissions are a sad commentary upon the campaign cries of the Tory Party outside of Quebec.

in tea must be distinctive, pleasing and unvarying to merit continuous use. The flavor of Red Rose Tea is all its own; and it never fails to win and hold approval because it never fails in quality. Try it.

Brockville Recorder:—The bilingual school question is a scarecrow which is having a laughable effect on Conservative aspirants in Toronto. Hon. Dr. Pynes says there must be bilingual schools and Hon. Mr. Foy says there cannot be such in Ontario. Funny that they exist after these ministers have been in office for seven years.

Grand Rapids News:—Beatrice Forbes-Robertson says that the ballot for women is but a prelude to what they will do when they get it. Nursery instruction for fathers is no doubt among the reforms they will institute.

Kingston Whig:—The manufacturers are demanding recognition from the government. They want the iron bounties to continue. And Mr. Borden looks serenely and promises to think it over. He'll surrender. Nothing surer.

Brantford Expositor:—Thousands of Ontario children are not being taught a word of English. Think of it! This under a government that raved about imperialism for the first three weeks in September.

Ottawa Free Press:—Commission or no commission there's many a Tory lying awake nights thinking how he can get into the Civil Service.

Regina Leader:—Some day, when Bourassa lets him, Premier Borden will tell us just what he isn't going to do in the way of a navy.

Hamilton Herald:—In other words, the enemies of the minister of public works hold that since his elevation to cabinet rank, "the devil a Monk is he."

ST. DUNSTAN'S SOCIETY
CELEBRATED FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF FOUNDING

A very pleasant evening was spent last night in the rooms of the Young Men's Society of St. Dunstan's, when the members celebrated the fifth anniversary of the establishing of the society. The programme consisted of readings and musical selections, and were applauded to the echo. At the conclusion, speeches were made by Rev. F. L. Carney, Rev. Fr. Howland, Messrs. T. L. Kane, E. C. Barry, Hugh O'Neill, M. E. Doohan, Ernest Hanlon, John O'Neill, Greg. Feeney, John L. Feeney and Harry Cox.

The following excellent programme was ably rendered:

Opening Address—President Joseph Cain.

Reading—"Me and Jim"—Harry Cox.

Solo, Selected—Greg Feeney.

Duet—Piano, Bert Hayes, Mouth Organ, Charlie Burns.

Reading—Father Howland.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES

Long rows of benches were placed on each side of him, upon which sat the members of the sacred College in their full cardinal's robes. On the steps before their eminences were seated their chaplains whose duty it was to hold the scarlet berretas on their knees and to gather up the cardinals' trains. The ceremony opened with the "Obsequies." This consisted of the cardinals going up one by one to kiss the ring of the Fisherman. After the professed cardinals came the newly elect, who had previously taken, in the Sistine Chapel, the oath of allegiance prescribed by the apostolic constitution, in the presence of the pope, cardinals, and the superiors of various religious orders. They entered the consistorial hall in procession and kissed the hands and feet of His Holiness, after which they exchanged the accolade, or ecclesiastical embrace, with their colleagues.

PLACING THE HATS

The new cardinals then returned to the pontifical throne, and the pope placed the red hat on the head of each one, saying as he did so, in Latin, "Receive, for the glory of Almighty God and the adornment of the Holy Apostolic See, this red hat, the sign of the unequalled dignity of the cardinalate, by which it is declared that even to death by the shedding of thy blood thou shouldst show thyself intripid for the exaltation of the blessed faith, for the peace and tranquillity of the Christian people, for the increase and prosperity of the Holy Roman Church." In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost Amen.

The ceremony over, Pope Pius rose and after bestowing the apostolic blessing slowly withdrew, the procession forming as an escort. The members of the Sacred College at the same time proceeded to the Sistine Chapel, led by the chapel choir, chanting the Te Deum. The cardinal dean recited a prayer over the new members, who thereupon were embraced again by the cardinals present and welcomed into the ranks of the sacred senate.

SUPPLEMENTARY CONSISTORY

After the public had dispersed all the Cardinals both old and new joined the pope in the hall of the Consistory for a supplementary secret consistory presided over by the head of the church, when he granted the new Cardinals their degree of participating in and speaking at meetings of the congregations, placed the cardinal's ring on their fingers and assigned each of them, the charge of a titular church in Rome. The ring given by the Pope to each of the new cardinals is a very simple one consisting of a sapphire without other stones, set solidly in gold in such a way, to allow the papal coat of arms to be engraved on the back.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY
DINNER AT WINDSOR HALL

The annual banquet in honor of their patron saint will be held by the loyal Scots of this city tonight, and promises to be largely attended. Piper Ross of St. John, is in the city and will be in attendance.

The dinner of St. Andrew's Society which is being held at Windsor Hall, will start at nine o'clock, with President A. Sterling McFarlane in the chair. Premier Fleming will be among the speakers and will reply to the toast "Parliamentary Institutions," while the principal toast of the evening, "The Day and All Who Honor It," will be replied to by Rev. Dr. W. H. Smith.

An excellent program has been provided and the speeches which will be delivered promise to be an exceptional treat. Speaking will probably begin at about eleven o'clock.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 30.—The school inspectors having approved of the "Little Mothers' movement, Saturday morning classes will be opened in the eastern, western and central districts of Toronto. The school nurses will teach the girls proper methods of bathing and dressing babies, cleaning and airing infant's clothing, and feeding babies.

GRAY HAIR MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

A Simple Remedy Brings Back the Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly

How often one hears the expression, "She is gray and beginning to look old." It is true that gray hair usually denotes age and is always associated with age. You never hear one referred to as having gray hair and looking young.

The hair is generally the index of age. If your hair is gray, you can't blame your friends for referring to you as looking old. You can't retain a youthful appearance if you allow your hair to grow gray. Many persons of middle age jeopardize their future simply by allowing the gray hair to become manifest. If your hair has become faded or gray, try Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation which a chemist by the name of Wyeth devised a few years ago. It is simple, inexpensive and practical, and will banish the gray hairs in a few days. It is also guaranteed to remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

It is a pleasant dressing for the hair, and after using it a few days itching and dryness to the scalp entirely disappear.

Don't neglect your hair. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and you will be surprised at the quick results.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

EDWARD BLONDIN

ger, and accused Mr. Pardee, amid Liberal laughter, which nettled and disconcerted the premier, of trying to raise sect against sect and race against race. For years the chief whip had sat in parliament behind Sir Richard Cartwright, who had once declared that Canada owed nothing to Great Britain except Christian forgiveness.

"I dare say Mr. Blondin may have been fervent in his utterances," continued Mr. Blondin, "but I want to say that men have risen to high positions in the Liberal party whose utterances might be quoted. I believe Mr. Blondin is as loyal as he (Mr. Pardee) is."

Mr. Borden concluded by petulantly threatening that if the Liberals were going to persist in their present warfare, "we will be able to take a fair share of it," and pressed for the adoption of his nomination.

Mr. Blondin was then declared elected, amid Liberal cries of No.

Hon. W. T. White, minister of finance, tabled the estimates for the remaining period of the present fiscal year before the House rose tonight. The total amount to be voted still is $48,633,478.04. The new government has accepted practically all the estimates prepared by its predecessor, the total reduction being approximately $100,000, only minor items being affected, principally on public works, which could not now be proceeded with.

present $200 poll tax be abolished. The delegation also requested the removal of the restrictions on students, merchants and tourists entering Canada, and that they should be placed on the same footing as other nationalities.

In closing the deputation pointed out that the question was an Empire one, and not a local one, and should be so considered.

The question was thoroughly discussed by the ministers and the coast members with the deputation. It is possible that the department may agree to their bringing in their wives under strict regulations.

PALZER OUTPOINTED
BY TOM KENNEDY

(Canadian Press.)

New York, Nov. 30.—Tom Kennedy outpointed Al Palzer in a slashing 10 round bout at the Royal Athletic Club, Brooklyn, last night. Both men are local white hopes. Kennedy easily had the early rounds on points, but Palzer, with his rushing, tired Kennedy. Kennedy was plainly in distress in the fifth round from the pounding his kidneys and stomach received, but he recuperated, however, and outboxed Palzer until the tenth round. Palzer's weight was announced at 212 pounds and Kennedy's 215.
