DECIDING GAME OF INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE PLAYED HERE TOMORROW

This deciding game of the interscholastic Rugby League is to be played at Scully's Grove Saturday afternoon beginning at three o'clock. Rothesay and Fredericton High School will be the competing teams. They are now tied in the league standing with two games won and one lost. Fredericton H. S. defeated Rothesay on Rothesay grounds and the supporters of the local team feel confident that the trick will be repeated tomorrow. The local team have the same line-up as it did at Rothesay and St. John. The Rothesay C. S. team will also have the same line-up as in the last game against Fredericton.

ATHLETICS WON CHAMPIONSHIP TRIMMING GIANTS 13 TO 2

Bender Pitched Mannifcent Game—New York Used Ames, Wiltse and Marquard in Box without Avail—Philadelphia Players Slaughtered Ball

Philadelphia, Oct. 26—Philadelphia Athletics are champions of the world for the second successive year.

In an exhibition of batting seldom seen in a premier baseball series, the American League team this afternoon defeated New York in the sixth game of the series by the overwhelming score of 13 to 2, thus giving them the four necessary games out of the six played to carry off baseball's greatest honor. It was more than a score defeat for the Giants, it was a rout.

Philadelphia is celebrating tonight as it has never before observed a great baseball victory. To defeat New York in revenge for the trouncing the National Leaguers gave them in 1905 was almost as pleasing to the Athletics as winning the world's championship itself.

BIG MONEY FOR PLAYERS

With the victory goes sixty per cent. of $127,910.61, or $76,746.37, of which each Athletic player will receive $3,654.59. The losers will receive the remainder, $51,164.24, or $2,436.39 for each New York player.

The batting matinee that the Athletics gave was one of the finest exhibitions of offensive playing seen at Shibe Park in a long time. Coming from behind after New York had scored one run in the first inning, the Athletics tied the score in the third inning, won it in the fourth by making four runs, made it a little safer in the sixth, when they added another run, and crushed the Giants in the seventh inning, running up an avalanche of seven hits, which, with a couple of misplays, added seven more runs to the total.

GREAT BATTING

The sensational hitting of all the pitchers the New Yorkers sent in to the box roused the excited crowd to the greatest enthusiasm. With victory in their grasp the Athletics appeared to let down, and when the seventh inning was over the cheering thousands started to leave the grounds.

The struggling National League champions sent in three pitchers to the tide, but all were hit almost alike, Wiltse getting the worst whaling. The other two were Ames, who started the game, and Marquard, who followed Wiltse into the box. Thirteen hits for a total of seventeen bases was the total shown by the hit column when the game was over.

Every member of the team got a hit, with the exception of Collins and Bender, but the former made a timely sacrifice that helped to score a run. When the game began today Catcher Thomas was the only member of the White Elephant team that had not made a hit in the series. He got into the hit column in the seventh inning, and the Athletic players themselves cheered Thomas for at last getting to an pitcher.

Murray, of the New York team, is the only one of the regulars who failed to connect with any Athletic pitcher in the series for a hit.

SMALL CROWD

The crowd which saw the Athletics win the championship was the smallest of the series, numbering 20,485. But what it lacked in numbers was made up in enthusiasm.

All record for attendance and receipts for a world's championship series were broken. The national baseball commission gave out the following figures. Attendance 179,851. Total receipts $332,464.30. Of this amount the players received $127,910.61; each club received $90,108.72, and the national commission's share was $34,236.25.

The box score was as follows:

HOOF BEATS

Large purses do not always attract last week the $1000 prize at Laurel drew two free-for-all races, while at Rockport, The Bel, Major Marlow, Independence Boy and two others raced for $300.

Stroller, 2.05½, Maude Light, 2.07½ Belle Bird, 2.09½, Black Silla, 2.09½, Pansy Elknut, 2.09½ and Telemachus, 2.11½ are some of the more recent purchases of Isadore Schlessinger for export to Australia.

Chester Lassell is picking up quite a bit of money with Ethel Lynne this fall and is giving the fast daughter of Lynne Bel an education that should make her mighty useful on the grand circuit next year.

Clabourne Farm has passed as a home for trotters. It was sold at auction last week to a tobacco grower for $76,340 an average of $220 an acre. This is $50 an acre more than J. S. Newman paid for it several years ago.

CLOSELY CONTESTED GAME FORECASTED BY CAPT. BUCKLEY

Mt. Allison Forwards are Light--Big Crowd of Garnet and Gold Rooters with Team

The Mt. Allison Rugby team arrived here last night, accompanied by a large band of rooters, the entire party numbering thirty-five. Among the number are Dr. Vaughan Black and Prof. H. E. Bigelow, both veterans of Mt. Allison football, and Black an ex-McGill captain as well. Herb. Paisley, who has been at Sackville for the past month, is also with the team.

The Mount A. party was met at the C.P.R. station by a big delegation of U.N.B. students and given a hearty reception. The visiting team is registered at Windsor Hall, where its members are under the watchful eye of Capt. Lou Buckley.

CLOSE GAME EXPECTED.

"It will be a close game," said Capt. Buckley of Mt. Allison last night. "Whichever team wins the score in my opinion will not be large. Our team is hardly up to the mark made by the 1910 XX and U.N. B. I understand, is better than they were last season. The Mount A. forwards are light. At the first of the season they averaged 160 pounds, but the scrim is a little heavier now."

The crowd that saw the Mt. Allison men arrive sized them up as a likely looking lot and today's game at College Field, beginning at 3:30 p.m., should be the most closely contested in years.

The teams playing this afternoon are as follows:

U.N.B. Mt. Allison

Fullback

Barry Barter

Halves

Balkam Smith

Murray Godfrey

McGibbqn Grant

Willis Milford
