HUMAN REMAINS

REPORTED TO BE
FOUND AT FLATSYoung Men in Bathing Find Object
Which Proves to be Human Clothing

It was reported last night that human remains had been found in a shallow part of the river opposite the lower part of the city. The exact location of the find is about one hundred yards off shore in front of the residence of Mrs. Henry Chestnut, Waterloo Row. A number of boys and young men were bathing there just about dark and some of them discovered something on the bottom of the river which aroused their curiosity. At first it was thought that the object was a bag in which kittens or other animals had been drowned. An attempt was made to bring the object to the surface but the cloth which covered it tore. From the appearance of the cloth it was thought that it was part of human clothing.

Persons on the bank of the river were informed of the find and motorboats and other craft on the river went to the scene. Mr. H. R. Babbitt, who was present in a motorboat, helped in the attempt to bring the object to the surface. A pair of trousers and a coat were brought up but the darkness prevented the search being carried on further. Another attempt will be made to find if there is anything else at the spot where the clothing was found.

PORCUPINE FIRE

MAY HAVE CLAIMED
PROVINCIAL VICTIMS

Anxiety Felt Concerning Safety of Wm. Banks, Brother of Mrs. James A. Bell of Fredericton

A number of men from this portion of New Brunswick are known to be prospecting in the Porcupine District of New Ontario which was swept by fire a few days ago with heavy loss of human life attending the fire. Their relatives are endeavoring to learn their whereabouts and if they were injured by the flames. In some cases word has come through that the persons inquired for are safe and sound. In others absolutely no tidings have been received. The difficulty of locating persons in the new country of the silver fields is great at any time as the means of reaching some of the camps is primitive and in many cases telegraph lines do not touch them. The fire has heightened the difficulty to a marked extent.

NO TIDINGS YET

William Banks formerly of Bristol Carleton County, a brother of Mrs. James A. Bell of this city is one of the missing New Brunswickers concerning whose safety much anxiety is felt. Mr. Jas. A. Bell wired to Porcupine Lake to obtain news of his brother-in-law. He received a reply last night to the effect that inquiries were being instituted but that as far as was known nothing definite had been learned of Mr. Banks' whereabouts or condition. The message was signed "C. Young". On receiving it Mr. Bell wired to Aura Lake, but up to noon had received no answer. It is said that Mr. Banks some time ago was employed at the Hollinger mine. His last address, however, was Aura Lake.

ANXIETY RELIEVED.

Other persons who were in the fire swept region were Messrs. Scott and Festus Fairley, sons of Mr. Justus Fairley of Boiestown, and cousins of Mrs. W. H. Irvine of this city. Their relatives have had their anxiety relieved however, by messages stating that both came through the fire unharmed.

So far the published list of the names of those who perished in the Porcupine fire have contained no New Brunswickers.

Dr. L. W. Bailey has returned from an extended trip to St. Andrews.

SUMMER SCHOOL

OF SCIENCE HEARD
INTERESTING LECTURE

Dr. T. C. McKay of Mt. Allison University Lecturer--River Excursion to be Arranged Shortly

The Summer School of Science continues the largest session in its history with unabated interest. Yesterday evening a large audience listened to a stereopticon lecture on "Mexico and the Revolution of 1911." This lecture was given by T. C. McKay, Ph.D., Professor of Physics at Mt. Allison University. He showed a large number of slides, illustrating the Mexican country and people, together with some very beautiful illustrations of the colored rioters that give Colorado its name.

MILITANT SUFFRAGETTES.

The lecturer gave an account of the varied conditions of climate that are present in Mexico. He considered the climate of the table-land one of the finest in the world. The government of which General Porfirio Diaz was the head, acted wisely in building up the beautiful City of Mexico, which may be called the Paris of America and is probably the most beautiful city in North America. One illustration given by the lecturer was of especial interest in showing the militant suffragettes of Mexico. Several of these ladies took part in the capture of Mexican cities, one at the head of a band of Acapulco Indians. As bullets have been taking the place of ballots there, it was natural to find the suffragettes foremost in the firing line.

The lecturer concluded his illustrations with some views of the Yosemite Valley and of the glorious mountain scenery of the Selkirk. The last view showed the incomparable Lake Louise which often shows in its perfect mirror the snow-clad heights and infinite blue sky.

EXCURSION PLANNED.

The teachers expect soon to have an excursion on the St. John River, which is proving a great attraction to the visitors. The swimming class is making progress and affords delightful recreation after a day of hard work. Skipping ropes and rubber soled shoes have become articles of equipment in the physical training classes and are being energetically used by the teachers.

Mr. J. V. Pepin of Lowell, Mass., is at the Barker House.
