

HEART DISEASE CURED

Kingston Girl Saved by "Fruit-a-lives"

Heart Weakness and Heart Irritation are the common outgrowth of indigestion. Gas is formed in the stomach and this accumulation of gas bulges out the walls of the stomach and presses against the heart. Palpitation, pain over the heart, and sometimes a feeling of smothering and dizziness, all are caused by the stomach and not because of any organic heart disease.

"Fruit-a-lives" will always cure this weak, irritated condition of the heart by curing the stomach.

FAKE DUKE NABBED IN NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 4.—Arrested in front of a fashionable apartment house as he was stepping out of a pretentious looking automobile, a man described to the New York police as being Philip Lee de Clamency, but entitled to be known also as the Duc de Clamency, Dr. de Clamency, Judge de Clamency and the Count de Nevers, was locked up last night at the instance of the authorities in Boston, where he is wanted for the alleged larceny of $292 in connection with some check transactions.

In the man's pocket was found a telegram from the French Consul here indicating that his brother, Count Marcel de Nevers, a lieutenant in the French navy, had been killed in charge of fire fighting crew, in the blowing up of the battleship Liberte. A newspaper clipping was also found with the heading "Fake Duke Fools the Governor." The story went on to relate how "Duc Phillip de Clamency" had been entertained by Governor Rother of Rhode Island, at the State House for three hours. De Clamency took his arrest very coolly and invited the detectives to dine with him in his apartments before they took him to police headquarters.

The complaint against him is made by the Judge Whipple Company of Boston.

It is expected that Mr. Bryan, while saying good words for the State ticket, will spend most of his time discussing national issues and will take occasion to make reply to the speeches of President Taft recently delivered in Nebraska and neighboring States. Mr. Bryan's schedule calls for an average of three speeches a day.

SIR WILFRID'S WORK NOT YET FINISHED

(Montreal Herald)

The proprietor of a local paper is reported to have adjudged Sir Wilfrid Laurier's career to be "absolutely finished." They say that in circumstances much less favorable, men quite as able had the same opinion about Sir John Macdonald, the difference between the two men is that Sir John had an inordinate appetite for the personal exercise of power, while Sir Wilfrid is much more philosophical about what is involved in holding high office. Sir John wouldn't be shaken off. Sir Wilfrid might be glad if he could let go.

But there are three sets of facts which nevertheless enter into the calculations and which cannot be so summarily ruled out. First, it is the unrivalled superiority of Sir Wilfrid as a leader in Parliament. It will not be altogether the same in appearance when the other man has the power behind him, the initiative which the possession of office gives, and the certainty of being able to have effect to his views. Nevertheless there is a place for the most accomplished of all old Parliamentary hands of which the loss of office cannot deprive him.

In the second place there is the need of reconstructing the Liberal party and preparing it for the work of the future. That task could not possibly be in better hands than those of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. His being left in the position of party leader and party guide will enable the party to go through the period of reconstruction without such episodes as those which destroyed the Conservative party, when Sir John was called away in the hour of its weakness. If there remained no more work for his hand than to establish the succession of his leadership and to gather a corps of younger leaders who will some day take their turn at the country's head that would be enough to keep him in the party leadership whether this is accomplished in the course of an election won, or of an election lost is no great matter. It is a great work for Laurier to do, and there is none other who can do it so well.

But, before and beyond all this let nobody be unduly surprised if before four years have passed the Canadian people show once more their view that Laurier is the ablest and most trustworthy of Canadian statesmen. The more the truth becomes known, the more it becomes clear that in another election, fought in other conditions, the result might be easily reversed. Mr. Borden may contrive in the next few years to make it otherwise, but for the present Sir Wilfrid is undoubtedly first in the hearts of his countrymen, including thousands of those who voted against him and are sorry for it.

EAST TEXAS FAIR OPENS

Tyler, Texas, Oct. 5.—The East Texas Fair opened today with an attendance of visitors from many countries. The displays in the agricultural, horticultural and live stock departments are more numerous and more varied than ever before. The fair will continue through the remainder of the week.

"The Hope," a sporting melodrama in four acts and sixteen scenes, in which there is a fire and an earthquake, had its first performance at the Drury Lane Theatre, London, recently.

Vaudeville will soon lose Maclyn Arbuckle. In January he is to return to New York in "Colonel Todhunter of Mississippi," dramatized by himself and Holman F. Day of the rejected "Circus Man."

Forbes-Robertson and his company will depart for this scenery from England on October 14, again to present "The Passing of the Third Floor Back." A niece of the star, Miss Maud Buchanan, will have the role of Stacia.

Anna Cleveland is at present negotiating for the dramatic rights of "Dull Jim," by Luther Long, the story of which appeared several months ago in a magazine. Miss Cleveland sees great dramatic possibilities in the story.

Henry Mortimer has written a new swash-buckler play, entitled "His Knightly Honor," in which he expects to play the leading role himself. At the end of the New York run of "A Million" one of the dramatic firms will produce the play.

Ty Cobb, the star outfielder of the Detroit American League team, is to become a real actor this winter. He has been engaged by Vaughan Glaser, a theatrical manager of Detroit, to play the role of Billy Bolton in George Ade's "The College Widow." The play has been adapted so that Billy Bolton will display his prowess as a baseball star instead of a football hero.

KERMIT ROOSEVELT'S N. B. HUNTING TRIP

(Boston Post)

Kermit Roosevelt, who achieved success as a hunter in Africa, will leave Boston tonight for New Brunswick, where he hopes to capture specimens of moose suitable to be placed in the National Museum at Washington beside his African collection, thus allowing comparison between American and African game.

The camp from which the search will be made, will be pitched near the head of the Nepesiguit River, the only known section where moose and caribou can be hunted from the one camp.

BOSTON MAN GUIDE

Young Roosevelt will be accompanied and assisted in his hunt for the national museum specimens by William A. Thompson of Bellevue, Ill., William Jameson, Chicopee, and Geo. B. Clark of Boston.

Clark will act as the guide of the party, having spent his last hunting season in the locality, where in five days of actual hunting he says he saw over 200 deer, moose and caribou. These hunters, while assisting the ex-President's son to shoot moose, will also have an eye for individual honors in the capture of other game.

Kermit and his party will arrive in Boston this morning. They will take the 7.30 train this evening for Bathurst, N. B., from where they will take canoes and paddle 60 miles on the Nepesiguit River. In the distance to be travelled there is a fall of 500 feet.

Each man will carry his own camp outfit with very light rations, as they will depend upon their guns and fishing tackle to further the main part of their meals.

CARRIES AFRICAN CAMERA

Roosevelt will carry his African camera and other members of the party will be equipped with cameras to record scenes of the hunt. For weapons of execution the ex-President's son will use the same rifles he carried in his African campaign.

The hunters will be gone until about the first of October. They expect it will take at least two weeks before the rare specimen of the young leader's ambition will be rounded up. A moose to answer to the ideal of the hunters will have to weigh before killing from 1200 to 1400 pounds, giving to the hunters a pelt which will weigh over 400 pounds.

Any attempt to secure a proper specimen other than near the river would be futile, as the transferring of a huge pelt through the forest would make it useless for the purpose for which the trip is made. It is Kermit's intention to ship the pelt from Bathurst direct to Washington.

KENTUCKY LIBRARIANS MEET

Berea, Ky., Oct. 5.—Of much interest to librarians and educators throughout the State is the fifth annual meeting of the Kentucky Library Association, which assembled here today for a two days' session. School and college libraries and their work is to be one of the leading topics of discussion at the meeting. The entertainment features arranged for the visitors include a reception at Berea College and a climb of Indian Fort mountain.

Contemplate!

Do not weigh anything in a second, but take a second thought when a druggist or dealer asks you to accept a substitute for DR. FOWLER'S Extract of Wild Strawberry.

This preparation has been on the market for over 65 years, and so far as we know has never yet failed to either relieve or cure the worst case of DIARRHOEA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, CRAMPS OR PAINS IN THE STOMACH, CHOLERA MORBUS, CHOLERA INFANTUM, SUMMER COMPLAINT, OR ANY LOOSENESS OF THE BOWELS.

Mrs. A. J. McLellan, London, Ont., writes:—"It is with much pleasure I write to say that I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry with great success. Last summer my little boy, 18 months old, was attacked two or three times with Diarrhoea, but each time, after one day's doses, he was all right again. My husband was also taken bad one night. The next day three doses cured him. I always insist on Dr. Fowler's being given me."

If you want to be on the safe side, ask for Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and insist on getting what you ask for.

The original is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. See that our name is on the wrapper. Price 35 cents.

IRISH RAILWAY STRIKE SATISFACTORILY SETTLED

Dublin, Oct. 4.—The strike declared on the Irish Railroads by the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants, September 21 was finally settled today. An early agreement was held up when the companies refused to reinstate certain strikers in places which had been filled by other men. The strikers demanded their original grievance which was their objection to handling lumber shipped by a firm which was having trouble with its employees. Before the final arrangement the company agree to reinstate ninety percent of the strikers at once and the remaining ten per cent as vacancies occur. They will not dismiss the new men who were taken on during the strike.

HAZEN THE MAN SAYS STANDARD DESPATCH

(St. John Standard.)

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—It is rumored that Premier J. D. Hazen and Hector McInnes, of Halifax, will be the Maritime Province ministers.

For the West Dr. Roche now looks sure of a seat while the indications once more favor the immediate advent of Hon. Richard McBride to the Federal fold. Mr. Rogers may enter the House for a Saskatchewan seat, possibly Prince Albert, and assume the Federal leadership for that province.

In Ontario the signs begin to point either to W. F. MacLean or to Richard Blain. Also on the cards is the appointment of Col. Sam Hughes to a high permanent position. This would vacate the seat of Victoria. Haliburton for Frank Cochrane.

(Mr. Borden seems to have been left out of the reckoning by the correspondent.)

AN OLD TIME RIVER STEAMBOAT DESCRIBED

Mr. Clarence Ward in his "old time" in the St. John Globe, gives the following description of an old time river steamboat, the Forest Queen:

"The advent at Indian town of a well-known old time favorite river steamboat is announced in the paper of Nov. 8, 1848. Many yet can recall to memory the pleasant trips they have taken on the 'Forest Queen.' The new and beautiful steamer 'Forest Queen,' arrived at Indian town on Thursday last (2nd. Nov.) about 5 o'clock p. m., from Fredericton, and although it was her first trip and trial of her engines she accomplished the distance in six hours and a few minutes. This handsome and commodious vessel was built at Springhill, near Fredericton, and is owned by Messrs. F. W. Hatheway, S. Barker and G. Roberts of Fredericton. Her accommodations for passengers are very superior to anything of the kind yet seen on our river and her owners and master confidently expect that she will prove also the swiftest boat on the route. Her international fittings are not yet complete, but will be rendered so during the winter, so as to enable her to commence her regular course at the opening of the navigation next spring. She will also run for a short time, before the close of the present season."
