LEO HOUCK WON

FROM MANTELL IN

TEN ROUND BOUT

New York, Sept. 22.—Leo Houck of Lancaster, Penn., defeated Frank Mantell of Providence, R.I., in a ten-round bout at the National Sporting Club last night.

Mantell started off in rapid-fire style, but after the first round he received a rude check. In the fifth and eighth rounds Houck nearly dropped Mantell, but Frank saved himself by clinching.

Mantell's work in the opening session was excellent. He sent over in quick succession three hard rights to Houck's face. The blows landed light and did little or no damage.

In the middle section of the fight Houck forced the fighting and hammered Mantell around the ring with left hooks to the face and right chops to the face.

FREE SHAMROCK TOBACCO AT THE EXHIBITION

One of the most pleasing and most tastefully designed booths in the exhibition building is that of the Imperial Tobacco Co. of Canada Ltd. advertising their leader "Shamrock." The decorations of the booth was designed and put in place by Mr. W. E. Richards, whose exclusive work is advertising and window trimming and on this particular occasion the neatness and daintiness is on a par with the work he is doing in all the cities and large towns, and in this way he is being of great assistance to the many live up-to-date business men who are handling the products of this firm.

The booth is thirteen feet square facing both front and side, directly opposite the main entrance. It is needless to say that the exterior is a pleasing mixture of white and green and the many window trims all over the country have this combination of color, with small and large Shamrock leaves worked in design, so that the natural thing to say on seeing a blending of these shades is that of the popular national emblem of Ireland, now made popular in this country by the Imperial Tobacco Co., namely "Shamrock."

From this booth at 3 p. m. and again at 8 o'clock free samples of "Shamrock" full sized 10 cent plugs are being distributed, also Sweet Caporal fans.

Mr. Richards is looking after this booth personally and will be pleased to see one and all.

Lenanon, Ind., Sept. 21.—A monument to the memory of Colonel A. C. Miller was dedicated with interesting exercises here today in connection with the annual reunion of the Wilder brigade. Colonel Miller, whose home was in Lebanon, was commander of the seventy-second Indiana regiment, which formed part of the Wilder brigade.
