RING NOTES

Abie Attell is still certain that he can defeat Matt Wells at a reasonable weight. He offers to box Wells at 133 pounds, weigh in at 6 o'clock, the winner to take all the receipts, and says he will bet Wells $2500 on the side.

A. B. Martin, the Nashua trainer, has made a rather unusual record with his string of pacers, Northern Spy, Logan Jr., Natshe, Fred Kanno, Kate V. Merry Mack, Bert Clark and Buster Wright, in winning 10 races without losing a heat. Fred Kanno gives every indication of being a very fast horse.

Last Thursday at Lexington, Ky., 25 yearlings, 2 and 3-year-olds were given standard records.

The 3-year-old Cochato pacer J.M. Johnson now carries a record of 2.14. King Cole a son of Ribbonwood, 2.09 has placed the Australian pacer record at 2.08 3-5.

HALIFAX WILL ### HAVE THREE-TEAM RUGBY LEAGUE

Wanderers, Dalhousie and H. M. S. Cornwall will have Teams--Wanderers may Tour Upper Canada

Halifax is to have three-team Rugby League this year with its schedule starting on Saturday next and ending November 4th. The United Service team did not materialize a team from H. M. S. Cornwall with Dalhousie and the Wanderers forming the league.

The Acadia Recorder has the following on the football situation in Halifax:

"With October comes football, and with the presence of H. M. S. Cornwall in port the Halifax football league should have the most interesting series for years. The Navy have always been welcomed in Halifax football circles, and the Cornwall team will have a host of admirers. The team will be composed of officers and cadets, and will be from H. M. S. Cornwall only. They have a fast, snappy team and play in that style which our people so much like to see. The league met last week and elected D. S. Bhuid chairman and James Stewart secretary. In drawing up the schedule a game was arranged for Thanksgiving Day as the Cornwall is expected to leave here that week. The schedule is as follows:

Oct. 7--Dalhousie vs. H. M. S. Cornwall.
Oct. 14--Wanderers vs. H. M. S. Cornwall.
Oct. 21--Dalhousie vs. Wanderers.
Oct. 21--Dalhousie vs. Wanderers.
Oct. 28--H. M. S. Cornwall vs. Dalhousie.
Oct. 30--H. M. S. Cornwall vs. Wanderers.

Nov. 4--Wanderers vs. Dalhousie.
"Dalhousie have a number of their players of last season, with new material to choose from. They are practising hard, and can be depended upon to put a strong team in the field for the opening game next Saturday.

"The Wanderers are getting in some good practice, and well have a strong team. They have a lot of last year's players, including Ross, Phillips, Wiswell, Blois, Gorham, Bauld, Hagt and Turner. These with a number of new men should provide a first rate fifteen.

"The Wanderers have been in communication with the Montreal English Rugby Football Club, and if satisfactory arrangements can be made, will journey to that city to play a few games some time during the latter part of the season. Games with Acadia College, Mt. Allison College and St. John will also be played."

POINTS AND DROPS

Ottawa Free Press--Ottawa College may spring a little turnover that would rival the recent political bump. The local recruits are perfecting team work to such an extent that they are making terrific gains on a heavier scrub team every down. Their play this season recalls the mechanical evolutions of the crack little team of 1907 when Nick Bawlf was at full Jimmy Dean quarter and Eddie McDonald centre half. The way that 150 pound fourteen waded through Varsity, Queen's and McGill, whose teams averaged well on to 180 pounds was a shame.

Montreal Star--One of the problems now facing the McGill team is to obtain a suitable coach. In past years, when professional coaches were secured, no great improvement in the team could be noticed and it is not likely that this year any outsiders services will be engaged. It is, however, that Dan Gillmore, last year's captain, will discharge the duties of coach, and render all possible assistance to the team. Some McGill supporters were in hopes that Gillmore would see his way clear to play on the team, but this now appears to be out of the question.

Harold Bigelow and Vaughan Black should make pretty effective football coaches for Mount A.

St. John Harriers are reported to have a strong Rugby XV.

BARNARD GROUP UNVEILED

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 4--The much-discussed Barnard statues, embellishing the facade of the Pennsylvania State Capitol, were unveiled today with interesting ceremonies conducted in the presence of an immense crowd of spectators. George Grey Barnard, the designer of the statues, was among those present. The program of exercises included an invocation by Rev. Joseph H. Barnard, father of the sculptor; an address of presentation by former Governor William A. Stone, and an address of acceptance by Governor Tener. A chorus of 400 school children of Harrisburg sang several songs especially written for the occasion, and the exercises concluded with an oration by Attorney General John C. Bell.

JOHNSON SAYS

HE WILL RETIRE FROM PRIZE-RING

Jack is Pretty Sure over way Things Have Gone in England--Color Prejudice Alleged

London, Oct. 3--"Jack" Johnson and "Bompadier" Wells have arranged to appear in sparring exhibitions at a West End music hall, Johnson complains bitterly at the antagonism exhibited toward him in London. Friends say he is the victim of color prejudice.

Johnson reiterated his unalterable decision to resign the championship and retire from the prize ring. He said he had arrived at the decision partly because there is nobody left to put up a big fight for the championship.

"There's nobody going to risk enough money," he continued, "to make it worth my while to put in a lot of hard training."

"But what is your idea about the championship?" he was asked. "Well I propose to wait a year to see five or six of the best men fight it out among them. I would like to referee the fights. Then when a winner is decided I will pass the championship to him to defend. I don't care who he is so long as he has got the stuff in him."

"Even if it is Sam Langford" was asked.

"Yes, even if it is Langford," he replied with a grin.

"And you will accept no more challenges?"

"Never again. That is final. There is nobody will ever get me back into the ring again."

"But Wells seems to think a fight may be arranged yet?"

"It won't. I'm going to draw down my thousand dollars forfeit in London today. That ends it."
