Jack Herrick, who has gained considerable reputation as a middleweight in the West, is a Hungarian. He is the only one of that race who has gained any prominence in the ring.

Andy Morris, the Boston "hope," will tackle Al Kubiak at Portland, Me., Saturday. While the sports of that city will not see a clever bout, they will witness one that will have a lot of fire in it.

Young Saylor, the first boxer to show that there was little chance that Battling Nelson would come back, meets Joe Mandot at New Orleans next Sunday. Judging from the record and reputation of Mandot, it looks as if Saylor would have a hard battle.

New Bedford, Newport, Adams and Lawrence have bouts billed for the week.

Tom O'Rourke's "hope," Al Palzer, gets another tryout Thursday night at New York, where he will meet Soldier Delaney, who has quite a record as a knockout boxer.

Phil Schlosberg, ex-amateur heavyweight champion, meets Tim O'Neil of Chicago at Hammond, Ind., Thursday night. They fought a couple of months ago and the bout was called to a draw. O'Neil is touted as a good heavyweight.

RACING SEASON OF 1911 SHOWED NO SENSATIONS

Followers of the Horse Expected too much after Phenomenal Times made in 1910—Most of old Records Still Stand—Season Finishing in Arizona

Boston, Oct. 23—Most of the turf history of 1911 has been made for the few days that the harness horses will perform at Phoenix, Ari, next month are all that are left in which to provide record miles, and it is not uninteresting at this time glance over the best performances of the season and to note how they compare with the fastest of a year ago.

Last winter and through the spring the belief was strong that in the Summer we should see miles that would cast into memory the sensational achievements of 1910, when a new two-minute trotter arrived, Criscus was dethroned as stallion king, the record for 3-year-old trotters was clipped two seconds, a 4-year-old trotter entered the 2.05 list and two 2-year-old trotters raced to marks faster than 2.10.

JOAN'S MARK STANDS

The season is almost over and Uhlans' mark still stands at 1.58. The Harvester has not been able to get within two seconds of his record of 2.01, the 3-year-old trotters have not raced as fast as expected, Joan remains holder of the mark for 4-year-old trotters while the 2-year-old trotters did not touch 2.12.

Truly it has been a campaign of disappointment, but it failed simply because followers of the sport looked for too much, in fact have become "speed crazy." The season has all in all been one of the remarkable speed and several world's records have been changed.

NEW CHAMPION

Peter Thompson, 2.07, raced himself into the list of champions, being the first 3-year-old trotting gelding to beat 2.10. Frank Perry by his mile in 2.15 made all other yearling pacers seem slow, while both Miss De Forest and Del Ray lowered the mark for 3-year-old pacers. The beautiful little grand-daughter of Artell cannot, as announced after her mile in 2.05, ever appear in the table of champions as having held the record for her age and gait, as the day before the Nutwood Wilkes colt had gone in 2.05.

YEARLING SLOW

Lord Allen, the best yearling of the season, is six seconds away from Wilbur Fox, the crack infant of 1910.

PROVINCIAL FOOTBALL

T. A. S. ARRANGING DATES

Provincial Rugby teams are busy arranging dates. Mt. Allison will play U.N.B. here on Friday in the Intercollegiate League. The game between Mt. A. and the St. John Harriers, slated for Saturday at St. John, has been cancelled by the Sackville College, as that team will play in Charlottetown on Thanksgiving Day. The lately organized Moncton team will probably play at St. John on Saturday. The St. John Harriers says that the Harriers will play Fredericton City here on Thanksgiving Day, but the management of the local team has heard nothing from the St. John organization. The U.N.B. team laid off yesterday but will have a hard practice this afternoon.

MUGGSY McGRATH MARRIED IN WEST

(Moncton Times.) Local sport followers will learn with interest that Jack (Mugsy) McGrath was married at Edmonton, a few days ago to Miss Rafferty, formerly of Charlottetown, P.E.I., but now residing at Lacombe, Alberta, where Mugsy is the proprietor of a cigar store and a pool room. Mugsy will be remembered as having lined up with the Victorias a few years ago. He played hockey for Lacombe last winter, and in a pick of the province was given a place on the team. He was the best player on the Lacombe lineup, and among the best in the province.

Packey McFarland not caring to make any weight for Matty Baldwin, it looks as if that proposed bout between that pair is off. A New York promoter tried to arrange the bout, but as neither of the boxers would waive from their stand on the weight question he has to look elsewhere for an attraction.

SUNDAY.

Young Saylor vs Joe Mandot, New Orleans.

Princess Todd, 2:12, is 3 1/2 seconds behind Miss Stokes in the 2-year-old division. Even with more 2:10 3-year-olds than ever before there was none to equal the 2:06 1/2 of Native Belle, to say nothing of Colorado E, 2:04 1/2.

Gay Audubon just touched the 2:06 1/2 the best for 4-year-old stallions in 1910, while Grace fell half a second shy of getting on even terms with her stable mate, Joan, as fastest of all 4-year-old trotters. Soprano, with her 2:03 1/2, topped Dudie Archdale, the fastest 5-year-old mare out last season, but Billy Burke did not get near The Harvester, 2:01.

Among the aged trotting geldings out racing there was not one last year that went as fast as Charlie Mitchell, 2:04 1/2. Nor did the aged pacing geldings of 1910 perform as well as those of this season, when Independence Boy, 2:01 1/2, gained the honor.

DISASTROUS FINANCIAL SEASON FOR BASEBALL

Bad Weather Causing Losses in Championship Series—Many Minor League Teams Gone to Wall

Chicago, Oct. 22—More than one bank account was badly bent in baseball ventures this season. Waning interest in the pastime cost many a dollar in the minor and bush circuits, while the long schedule of the National League has worked hard ships on the club owners of two Major Leagues, hindered the staging of the World's Series, disappointed thousands of fans and, according to despatches from the East where the base ball lawmakers are now assembled, resulted in the framing of an iron-clad resolution favoring the ending of future championship seasons on or before Oct. 6.

Bad weather one of the chief obstacles confronting the owners each fall during the playing of the World's Series, has cut in deeply on the coffers of the New York and Philadelphia clubs.

A study of conditions in the Minor Leagues reveals a startling list of casualties for the year.

Following are a few of these "smashes" showing the misfortune was not confined to any particular section of the country:

Western League—Wichita Club transferred to Pueblo; Des Moines Club kept on the road for six weeks because of lack of support at home.

Southern League—Mobile's closing series transferred because of poor attendance.

Tri-State—Shifts in schedule because of poor support accorded certain clubs.

New York—Shakeups in the schedule for same reason that affected the Tri-State.

Central—Grand Rapids transferred to Newark, South Bend shifted to Grand Rapids to hold territory and Evansville after becoming a wanderer placed in South Bend.

Connecticut—Holyoke and Northampton dropped; Waterbury rescued by Dan O'Neil and the league finished with six clubs.

"Three I"—Start of season delayed by internal warfare and Springfield club transferred to Decatur, because fans would not support a club leading in a pennant race.

Texas—Galveston franchise surrendered to league, Oklahoma City maintained by league's sinking fund.

Western Association—Reduced to six and then four clubs and finally disbanded.

Ohio—Pennsylvania—East Liverpool and Steubenville dropped and New-castle transferred to Sharon.

South Atlantic—Season shut because of poor attendance and breaking faith over salary limit; Augusta franchise forfeited to league.

Union Association—Missoula taken over by new organization to save wreck and Butte games transferred because of nonsupport to a team standing second in the race.

Ohio State—Newark franchise transferred to Piqua.

Minnesota—Wisconsin—Wausau and Red Wing clubs dropped.

Central Association—Hannibal club forfeited franchise and was reorganized.

Southwest Texas—Victoria withdrawn and Corpus Christi dropped; winners of halves did not play off.

Kansas State—Did not finish season.

Western Canada—Winnipeg and Brandon withdrawn.

K. I. T.—Harrisburg transferred to Jackson, Paducah reorganized.

Mountain States—Point Pleasant transferred to Middleport.

Northeastern Arkansas—Did not finish.

Texas-Oklahoma—Three clubs dropped and season cut short after effort to continue with a five-club league.

Northern Indiana—Did not finish.

While all this agitation in favor of shorter season for the majors is holding the attention of the fans and owners there is no gainsaying the fact that the big league cities are amply fortified with ready money.
