Mrs. S. S. Johnstone, Ochre River, Man., writes:—"About four years ago I gave Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry a good test."

"My oldest son, five years old, got very bad with cholera infantum; two days after my next son took it, and the third day my little girl also took it. I doctored with all kinds of things, but they kept on getting worse and the doctors could do them no good. I then started the Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and after two or three days could see a difference, so kept on with the treatment, but they were so bad it took about two weeks to complete the cure. Different people have asked me how I saved my children's lives that time, and I always say it was Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I am now never without it in the house."

FOR COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF G. A. R.

Washington, D. C., July 27—Col. John McElroy, editor and publisher of the National Tribune of this city, confidently expects to be elected to the office of commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic at the national encampment in Rochester next month. Col. McElroy was a candidate for the honor at the national encampment at Atlantic City last year, but was defeated by John E. Gilman of Boston. At that time charges were made against Col. McElroy of having used undue influence to secure his election. These charges subsequently were found to be without foundation and Col. McElroy is said to be in receipt of assurances from State departments and local posts throughout the country which indicate that there will be practically no opposition to his candidacy at the Rochester encampment.

MAKING HOME ATTRACTIVE

Spending all the household allowance upon the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker and loading the dining room table with food for the body is not the best policy for the homemaker to pursue. She might much better pinch a bit from the dining room table to add interest to the living room or library table, where spreads for the mind and the heart are enjoyed just as much as food for the inner man.

How many men get up from the dinner table after dining heartily, sink into a comfortable chair in the living room and stare blankly into space. There is nothing at hand to divert their minds from themselves, when the housewife is busy clearing up, and consequently, after several minutes meditation in which they become bored because of the sluggish condition of the mind, their fancy reaches out in search of entertainment and hits upon the club, the billiard or pool room, the nearest place where congenial souls are wont to gather.

Now, what might have been the result if some interesting current literature, magazines, periodicals or books had been at hand? The eye would have caught the literature, telegraphed the message to the brain, and unconsciously the desire to be amused would have urged the man to pick up something to read. He would be sure to find articles of interest, and before he realized the speed with which the clock travels it would be time to sound "Lights out." The best of it all is that reading is a habit easily acquired, and once it takes possession of one grows steadily. It is a beneficial habit, too, making its happy victim more interesting both in the role of listener and conversationalist.

The table piled with magazines is a rest and a recreation for the busy housewife who can spend her moments in between duties keeping pace with the happenings of the world of affairs. This practice of filling in spare moments with items of worldly interest amounts to a storehouse of knowledge during the course of a year.

WARM CAMPAIGN IN MISSISSIPPI

Jackson, Miss., July 27—One of the most spirited political campaigns that Mississippi has seen in years entered upon its final stage today. Next Tuesday a State-wide Democratic primary will be held for the endorsement of a candidate for United States senator and the nomination of candidates for governor and other State officers to be chosen at the next election. In this State the Democratic nomination is equivalent to election. Public interest centers almost wholly in the contest for the senatorship. Senator Leroy Percy, whose term will expire in 1913, is a candidate for re-election. His principal opponent in the fight for the toga is ex-Governor James K. Vardaman, one of the most aggressive and picturesque politicians that Mississippi has turned out in many years. C. H. Alexander is the third entrant in the senatorial race. Alexander has developed a considerable following, but most unbiased on-lookers are of the opinion that the real fight will be between Vardaman and Percy, with a close finish and the probability that a second primary will be necessary to a choice. Earl Brewer, a prominent lawyer of Calksdale, will be nominated for governor without opposition.

ARCHBISHOP MESSMER GOING ABROAD

Milwaukee, Wis., July 27—Archbishop Messmer, head of the Roman Catholic archdiocese of Milwaukee, left with a party of friends today for Montreal, whence he is to sail next Saturday for Europe. The Archbishop will go direct to Switzerland where he will spend the remainder of the summer at his old home in Tyrol.

$3,600 in Cash Prizes for Farmers

ARE you one of the thousands of Canadian farmers who have used or intend using Canada Cement for the construction of some farm utility? If you contemplate building anything whatsoever of concrete, make up your mind right now to build it with a view to winning one of the prizes we are offering. Read the rest of this announcement and you will learn how you may try for a share in the $3,600 we are giving away, to encourage the use of cement upon the farm. Throughout Canada the farmers have taken such a keen interest in our campaign that it has inspired us to go further along these educational lines. We have decided, therefore, to offer a series of four $100.00 prizes to each of the nine Provinces, to be awarded as follows:

PRIZE "A"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who will use during 1911 the greatest number of bags of "CANADA" Cement for actual work done on his farm.

PRIZE "B"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who uses "CANADA" Cement on his farm in 1911 for the greatest number of purposes.

PRIZE "C"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who furnishes us with a photograph showing best of any particular kind of work done on his farm during 1911 with "CANADA" Cement.

PRIZE "D"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who furnishes the best and most complete description of how any particular piece of work shown by photograph sent in, was done.

In this contest no farmer should refrain from competing, because of any feeling that he may have little chance against his neighbor who he thinks might use more cement than he does.

For it will be noted that Prizes "C" and "D" have no bearing whatever on quantity of cement used. The man who sends us the best photograph of so small a thing as a watering trough or a hitching post, has as much chance for Prize "C" as a man who sends a photograph of a house built of cement—and the same with Prize "D" as to best description.

Canada Cement is handled by dealers in almost every town in Canada. Should there not happen to be a dealer in your locality, let us know and we will try to appoint one.

Contest will close on November 15th, 1911, and all photos and descriptions must be in our office by that date. Awards will be made as soon as possible thereafter. The jury of award will consist of: Prof. Peter Gillespie, Lecturer in Theory of Construction, University of Toronto; W. H. Day, Professor of Physics, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph; and Ivan S. Macdonald, Editor of "Construction."

Now, you cannot hope to do concrete work to the best advantage unless you have a copy of our free book, entitled, "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete." This book tells how to construct well-nigh anything on the farm, from hitching post to silo. Whether you enter the contest or not, you'll find this book most helpful. A post-card asking for the book will bring it to you promptly. Send for your copy tonight. From your cement dealer or, from us, you can obtain a folder containing full particulars of contest. If you send to us for it, use the coupon provided in this announcement.

Please send me full particulars of Prize Contest. Also a copy of "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete."
