CROUSE GIVEN
DECISION AGAINST
OPINION OF CROWD
 Referee Dougherty Made Mistake at Crouse-Houck Bout in Boston—Mixup Caused by Error

(Boston Globe, Wednesday) Buck Crouse of Pittsburg was given the decision over Leo Houck of Lancaster, Penn., in their 12-round bout at the Pilgrim A.A. last night.
 Houck was entitled to the award and mine out of every ten of the 2000 fans present evidently thought so, judging from the scene they made when the decision was announced. They hooted and yelled long after the boxers left the ring and when Houck was leaving the clubhouse he was loudly cheered.

MIXUP OVER REFEREE

Crouse was as much surprised as any one that he was given the decision.
 There was a mixup over the refer-ere before the show started. Hector McInness was in the ring waiting for the boxers when he was informed that he was not to officiate.

McInness left the ring and had a talk with the matchmaker and some of the club officials. Later he returned to the ring and said that he had been sidetracked as referee and by whom. The fans gave McInness a big hand.

Martin Clougherty was then introduced as the referee and he it was who made the award that caused the commotion described above.

HOUCK ALL THE WAY

Of the twelve rounds, Crouse was only entitled to the last one, and that only by a small margin. He was a big disappointment to the fans, while Houck showed that he had greatly improved since he was last seen in this city. The clever work Crouse has displayed on previous occasions here was lacking to a great extent last night and Crouse himself acknowledged that he boxed like an old woman.

After the fans had left the clubhouse the referee told the directors of the club that he had made a mistake and that in the excitement he pointed to the wrong man. The club directors then decided that Hector McInness should be the referee of future meetings.

REINSTATED AFTER
16 YEARS SUSPENSION
 National Trotting Association Announces Several Important Decisions—Canadian Horse not Reinstated

New York Hay 7—Nelson O. May-aard of Hinsdale, N.H., a driver under suspension by the National Trotting Association for 16 years on the charge of having driven a "ringer" in Charlesmont and Greenfield, Mass., in 1896 was reinstated by the association's board of review today.

Other decisions announced by the board were:
 R. J. and H. G. Lambert of Norfolk, Va., reinstatement granted conditional upon payment of entrance fee which caused suspension.

W. J. Whitton of Peterboro Canada reinstatement of Susie Hal denied.
 Case against Eugene Mallett, Waterbury, Conn., dismissed.

H. M. Tierney of Northampton, Mass., and the mare Nellie were suspended. It was charged that Tierney raced the mare with a mark of 2.16½ out of her class during the season of 1910-11 and as her owner. It developed that G. L. McAvoy was really the owner of the mare. The case against McAvoy was continued.

O. J. Humes of Westville, N.J., was suspended until the alleged unlawful earnings of Red Pepper raced under the assumed name of Warwick Boy are returned. The charges against John Toy of Philadelphia the owner, were dismissed and charges were entered against Charles Dickinson who was the first to race Red Pepper under an assumed name.

LEO CALLAHAN TO TRY OUT WITH LOWELL

Boston, May 8—Leo Callahan, formerly star pitcher of the High School of Commerce and of Interscholastic note, is back in town after a tryout with Jersey City, of the International League. Callahan has the goods, but Hugh McBreen told him he needed a few more years' experience in smaller leagues. Callahan will be given a tryout with Lowell and is confident that he will make good.

Joe Gahagan is believed to have two high-class trotters in Aller Worthy, 2:25½, and Fay Kirk, 2:15½.
 Casade, 2:08½, is to be trained and driven by his owner, I. V. Horsfield, of Hempstead, N.Y., this season.

 the honors in his 10-round bout tonight with Young Ahearn of Brooklyn at the St. Nicholas A. C. A. A whirlwind finish in the final round gave the victory to Goodman, when in that section a left hook to the jaw sent Ahearn to the mat. Up to the final round Ahearn had the better of the milling. Goodman scored two knockdowns in the fourth and last rounds.

ED. BARROW SAYS
INTERNATIONAL WILL BE MAJOR LEAGUE

President of League is after Signal-tippers—Very Optimistic Concerning Future of Organization

President Edward G. Barrow has surveyed the International League from every angle this spring with a view to improving conditions generally and elevating the circuit to its proper place as the greatest of the minor leagues. Mr. Barrow has frequently expressed the opinion that within three years the International will be a major league.

While running down complaints that the games in some of the cities took an unusually long time to play he found that slow-working catchers were responsible. When the matter was taken up with the catchers they explained that they worked slowly to prevent their signals being stolen and "tipped off." It was suspected that a spy was working from a point of vantage with a powerful field glass and communicating with the bench by means of an electric buzzer. The president has been unable to ascertain that any of these suspicions were grounded on fact. If Mr. Barrow can find that such base trickery is actually being resorted to, he will adopt measures heretofore unheard of to punish those guilty of the installation and operation of signal tipping devices.

in the Mobile police court the other day.

Jack Powell the veteran pitcher of the Browns may yet equal Cy Young's record for service in the big show.
 Jack is now forty-three years old and is now playing his eighteenth season.

Players Young, Brady and Jones will not accompany the Boston Nationals on their first Western trip.

Ed Reulbach got his tryout at last with the Cubs. He finished out McIntyre's string at Pittsburg and looked fairly good.

"The Phillies need no trainers," writes Harry Cross. "What they need are Red Cross nurses, physicians and ambulances."

"Ping" Bodie is leading the White Sox batters with a mark above .360.
 Seven Giants including two pitchers are hitting for .300 or better.

Ruth Dillon, 2:06½, has been bred to Baron May, 2:07½, and is to be tried as a pacer by Trainer Van Houten.
 Codero, 2:09½, lately won a good race in Italy, trotting one heat in 2:12½.
