HOT POLITICAL CAMPAIGN IN STATE OF MARYLAND

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 29.—The political campaign which has kept Maryland stirred from end to end for more than three months closed last night in a whirlwind finish and today the primaries of both parties were held throughout the State.

The Republicans, with no rivalries for the principal nominations on their State ticket, have shown little activity. The Democrats, on the other hand, have been aroused by bitter factional contests for the nominations. This, added to the fact that it is the first time that nominations for State offices in Maryland have been made by the direct system of voting, causes the results of the primary balloting to be awaited with the keenest public interest.

Interest centers almost wholly in the fight between State Senator Arthur P. Gorman of Howard County, son of the late United States Senator Gorman, and State Senator Blair Lee of Montgomery County for the Democratic nomination for governor. Not only the gubernatorial nomination but a bitter fight for the control of the Democratic State organization is involved in the contest for the head of the ticket.

Gorman is backed by the regular State organization and hopes if nominated and elected to make the governorship the stepping stone to the United States Senate in succession to Senator Isidor Rayner. The real director of the Gorman fight is Senator John Walter Smith, the leader of the State organization, with John J. Mahon, the Baltimore City leader, as chief lieutenant.

The opposition, variously termed as the insurgents or progressives, is headed by Congressman J. Fred Talbott, Governor Austin L. Crothers, who withdrew from his candidacy for re-election to help Blair Lee, and former Governor Edwin Warfield.

Congressman Talbott is the real leader in the fight against Gorman. Member of the National Committee, boss of Baltimore County, and a life-long organization man, Talbott was a trusted lieutenant of the late Senator Gorman, and followed the lead of the great State boss for a quarter of a century without question. Today he is found leading the support of Lee for the gubernatorial nomination and doing his utmost to defeat the son of his former chief.

The real secret of Talbott's turn-about-face in the political arena is to be found in young Gorman's well-known ambition to enter the United States Senate. After the death of United States Senator Gorman Congressman Talbott aspired to succeed to the toga, but was defeated in his ambition by John Walter Smith, who had the support of the younger Gorman and who has since managed to retain a firm hold on the State organization. In the present fight Talbott again seeks to wrest the party leadership from Senator Smith by defeating the latter's choice for the head of the State ticket. If Lee wins the nomination for governor, and is elected, he will have, in the patronage of his office, all-powerful weapons with which to beat down the old organization, create a new one, and retire Senator Smith to private life.

Lee's success, according to the general understanding, would mean the election of Congressman Talbott as the next United States Senator from Maryland.

The Republicans appear to be well satisfied with the situation. They contend that whether Gorman or Lee is defeated in the primary the Democratic party will be split wide open and that the nominee will be knifed to such an extent that the Republican ticket should be able to win out handily.

There are no contests for the Republican nominations. The State ticket was agreed upon in conference and will be named in the State convention without opposition. Phillips Lee Goldsborough of Dorchester is the choice for governor, W. H. Cunningham of Carroll County for State controller and Morris A. Soper of Baltimore for attorney general. The ticket is regarded as exceptionally strong, representing as it does both the younger Republicans and the older element of the party.

Mr. Goldsborough, who is to be the nominee for governor, is a native of Somerset County, and a lawyer by profession. In 1896, when the Republicans were in control of the legislature, he made a strong fight for United States Senator, but was defeated by George L. Wellington. In 1897 he was elected State controller. In 1902 President Roosevelt appointed him collector of internal revenue for the Baltimore district, and he was re-appointed by President Taft.

An English Chemist Has Discovered How to Grow Hair

In England the ladies have entirely abandoned wearing rats, which is due entirely to this new discovery. It has been proven that Henna leaves contain the ingredients that will positively grow hair. That they contain this long-sought-for article is proven every day.

The Americans are now placing on the market a preparation containing the extract from Henna leaves, which is having a phenomenal sale.

This preparation is called SALVIA and is being sold with a guarantee to cure Dandruff and to grow hair in abundance. Being daintily perfumed, SALVIA makes a most pleasant hair dressing. Ryan, your druggist is the first to import this preparation into Fredericton and a large, generous bottle can be purchased for 50c.

KILLED HIS CHILDREN THEN SUICIDED

South Thomastown, Me., Aug. 29.—That horrible tragedy of yesterday, in which Edward Bennett, an Oxford graduate, was the chief actor had been premeditated and carefully planned, there is no doubt. Last evening Bennett killed his three children and took his own life. Two of the children were killed by the use of chloroform and the third by cyanide of potassium and chloroform.

BISHOP MILLS ON RECIPROCITY

Speaking of the Reciprocity agreement in his charge to the Synod of Kingston, Bishop Mills said:

"Whether it would be in the general interests of the country is a question for debate, and about which different opinions may be held. But politicians have not devoted their attention so much to the discussion of this question as in ringing changes on the cry that if reciprocity were adopted it would be the first step towards annexation; that the United States would be buying us, and we would be selling ourselves. I THINK THAT IS THE GREATEST NONSENSE THAT EVER CAME FROM THE MOUTHS OF SUPPOSEDLY SANE MEN. AS A CANADIAN I RESENT IT. I would think little of my loyalty to the British Crown and the British Empire if it depended on tariff schedules. Those who think the national spirit of Canada is such a poor and uncertain thing that her existence as a nation would be imperilled by an increased trade with the United States certainly do not know her. There is no part of the British Empire in which there is truer loyalty than in Canada, and she can be neither bought nor sold."

FOSTER FOR RECIPROCITY

"Our reply to Uncle Sam should be: Granted that you fully realize that . . . no scheme of Reciprocity which interferes therewith (i. e., with Canada's autonomy) is desirable; that understood, we welcome the fullest trade and intercourse consistent therewith. Meanwhile, as a neighborly beginning, could you not give our products tariff entrance to your markets on the same terms which we accord to yours in our market? . . . This would be an earnest of good feeling and might dispose us to further converse."

(See article by Hon. G. F. Foster University Magazine, Dec., 1910. Let Mr. Foster explain this in his speech at the Opera House tonight.

FALSIFYING FACTS AND FIGURES

(Toronto Globe.)

Already it is made plain that this campaign is to be marked by the most reckless falsification of facts and figures in order if possible to defeat the agreement for larger markets. Indeed so reckless are the campaigners that no serious harm will be done. Their misquotations of market reports are being disproved as soon as made. Discredit is cast on their whole campaign by the exposure of the self-interest of their witnesses. Middlemen in trade, whose operations take toll from the producers at one end and from the consumers at the other, are not disinterested, and their prejudiced statements are subject to heavy discount.

It may be quite true, as The Weekly Sun states, that the farmers are not fooled by these falsehoods about markets and prices. The successful farmer is better informed as to market prices at home and abroad the whole year round than is the writer of campaign literature. But these arguments against reciprocity are not meant for the intelligent farmer. They are calculated to obscure the issue for the average citizen who is not posted on market matters.

So utterly unreliable are the statements made with front-page prominence and the emphasis of black-face type by the organs of the protected interests that not one of them can with safety be accepted. Before the campaign is over it will be abundantly proved that obstructions in the way of the exchange of commodities invariably increase prices to the consumer without a corresponding advantage to the producer. The cost of living is increased for the man in the city, but the increase in price does not go as a reward to the man on the farm. What the farmer wants is an open way to the markets where his products will take their chance against any competition. It cannot be that people in the towns will stand in his way. Both would profit by each being left free to sell or to buy without artificial interference or tariff obstruction. It is the organized selfish interests that try to confuse the issue with false quotations. They did it in the United States and now they are trying to do it in Canada. But they will fail again.
