Give your servants GOLD DUST to clean with, treat them rightly and you will have few occasions to insert a "help wanted" ad

They say a good work man is known by his tools. You cannot expect your maid to keep everything ship-shape unless you give her every modern help. To keep house without GOLD DUST is to do work by hard, old-fashioned methods. For cleaning everything and anything about the house—from cellar to attic—GOLD DUST is worth its weight in gold. It cuts grease and dirt like magic, does away with scouring and scrubbing, and saves time and tempers.

Your servant can do more and better work and keep sweet with the aid of GOLD DUST in all household cleaning.

Stock Yards Sale at Chicago and Old Glory Sale in New York—Good Offerings

Boston, Nov. 13—Men interested in the trotter and pacer are giving most of their thought at present to the sale room.
In the West the voice of the auctioneer will be heard this week at the the Stock Yards, Chicago, the big Fall sale of Palmer Clark and Frank Kenney opening today. Then the last week in the month comes the famous Old Glory in Madison-sq Garden New York.

Chicago has for the cream of its 500 head a consignment of yearlings from Patchen Wilkes Farm. The get of Peter the Great are much in demand, and the noted Blue Grass establishment sends many young Peters to the Chicago mart they will bring every dollar they show to be worth.

The most attractive offering at Chicago for men seeking racing material appears to be the 2-year-old trotter Floy Belle, with a record of 2:19, obtained over a half-mile track. This young miss is a real race horse, and if she is well engaged in the futurities to be decided next year she will bring a low price. With no 3-year-old engagements her owner is pretty certain to be disappointed in the value the public sets on a trotter that must be waited on at least two seasons.

NEW YORK SALE

The catalogue for the New York sale has closed with something like 800 head consigned. Taken as a whole they look to be the best lot that have been offered at a Fall sale in years. Fast record stallions are the features, no sale of the past having had as many.

Some of the offerings in this line are Ess H. Kay, 2:00; direct Hal, 2:04; Mainshaft, 2:05; Kinney Lou, 2:07; Jack McKerron, 2:07; Aquin, 2:08; Al Stanley, 2:08; Baron McKinney, 2:10; Ed. Custer, 2:10; Branham Baughman, 2:05; A. Wilkes, 2:07; Sterling Hall, 2:14; Check Hook, 2:14; Frank Perry, 2:15; Shultsworthy, 2:16; Junior Watts, 2:16; The Peer, 2:15; and three yearling stallions with standard marks.

Yearlings and 2-year-olds are, by the way, going to be more numerous at the garden this month than ever before at a Fall sale. It used to be said that New York was not a good market for youngsters, but the splendid prices that the juveniles have been bringing at the mid-Winter sales the past few years shows that for the right kind no other place of sale Manhattan Island.

MORAN-DRISCOLL BOUT
STOPPED BY COURTS

Birmingham, Eng., Nov. 13—A magistrate in the police court today ruled that the proposed contest between Owen Moran and Jem Driscoll for the lightweight championship of the world, will be a prize fight with in the meaning of the law, and therefore illegal. He bound Moran and Driscoll to keep the peace.

RING NOTES

Young Saylor still believes he can defeat Joe Mandot and Saylor offers to guarantee Mandot $1,500 for his bid to meet him in Indianapolis.
The Mayor of Indianapolis will not stand for a bout on Thanksgiving Day, any holiday or Sunday, but will permit bouts on any other days.
Tony Caponi and Jack Rodgers will meet in Salt Lake City Nov. 20.

The bout between Johnny Coulon and Patsy Brannigan, which was to take place in Johnston, Penn., this week, has been postponed till Dec. 2.

Young Jack Johnson, the Boston colored boxer, who was arrested in Joplin, Mo., a short time ago for boxing Jeff Clark in that city, has been freed as the circuit judge before whom the case was taken as a test one, has declared that the bout was legal. Pending the decision the clubs of that city canceled their bouts, and now that the decision has been favorable to the sport the game will again be in full blast.

Jack Redmond and Battling Nelson Matty Baldwin and his manager, Aleck McLean, will leave Wednesday for Memphis, where Baldwin will meet Joe Mandot Nov. 20. Baldwin has been training at Highland Lake and will be in good shape when he reaches his Southern city.

K. O. Brown Goes up against Hogan on Friday—Klaus and Frank Houck to Meet

Boston, Nov. 13—Andy Morris, the East Boston heavyweight, goes against Tony Ross in Pittsburg tomorrow night and it should be a good slugging contest.

The middleweight elimination bout between Buck Crouse and Leo Houck at Pittsburg Wednesday night will narrow down the list of contenders for the title worthy of consideration to two.

Klaus and the winner of that bout will be the one left that will have the right to contest for the title. While Houck has been showing like a boxer on the down grade, Crouse has been displaying great ability and to the local fans it looks as if Crouse will at least outpoint Houck.

Joe Thomas, who is trying to come back, is booked for a bout with Fritz Holland at Oakland, Cal., Wednesday night. While Thomas may win from Holland it looks like a hopeless case for Thomas to get back. Abe Attell, the featherweight champion, who has taken notice of the young boxers who are after his title continues to take on boxers who he knows he can outpoint, but who will help get him keyed up to his old form.

Young Cohen, who recently arrived from England, will be his opponent in New York, Wednesday night. Cohen comes to this country with a good English reputation, but as so many of the boxers from that country have been no better than our fourth-raters, Attell is expected to have an easy time winning from Cohen.

K. O. Brown, the New York lightweight who lost considerable prestige when he was defeated by Matt Wells, the English lightweight champion, is going to try and regain some of it by meeting One Round Hogan of California Friday night, in New York.

Hogan is a good boxer to start on, for Hogan has failed to show any great ability since he has been in the East, and Brown has a chance of winning from him.

PLAY-OFF AT TRURO

FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Arrangements have been completed whereby Aeadia and Mount Allison will play off for the intercollegiate championship in Truro on Friday of this week. It is likely that both colleges will run special trains to Truro, and it is certain that the capacity of the grounds will be taxed. Both teams will be at full strength and one of the best contests ever pulled off in the Maritime Provinces is expected.

Trainers are busy shaping up their sale-ring starters.
The pacer Alta Coast, 2:03, has been shifted to the trot.
Toughluck! Sterling McKinnay is not going to Russia after all.
Trainers are talking of Rockingham Park as a training ground.
Power Lot, 2:07, is said to have been out ringing this past season.
A. S. Rodney is in winter quarters at Newark, N.J., with Baden, 2:13.
Justice Brooke, 2:03, is recovering from a severe attack of distemper.
It is Jams takes the Mackenzie horses to Pleasanton, Calif., this week.

Racing on the ice for fair purses is promised this winter at Augusta, Me.

MANY RARE VOLUMES AT AUCTION

London, Nov. 14—Representatives of book collectors and dealers in many parts of the world gathered at Sotheby's today for the opening of the dispersal sale of the famous Huth Library. The sale is regarded as the most important of its kind that has taken place in London in years. The striking evidence of the size and importance of the collection is to be found in the decision of those in charge to sell only a portion of the library this year. Their decision is based on the belief that to dispose of the entire collection in one season would completely demoralize the market. Of the collection of 14,000 volumes only 1300 are to be offered at the present sale. This number however includes the first folio of Shakespeare's works and a number of other rare and valuable books much sought by collectors.
