Had Weak AND Dizzy Spells.

Those feelings of weakness, those dizzy spells and "all gone" sinking sensations, which come over some people from time to time, are warnings that must not go unheeded.

They indicate an extremely weakened condition of the heart and a disordered state of the nerves.

One dizzy spell may pass off, but the next may be more serious.

Those who are wise will start taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, before their case becomes hopeless. They have no equal for reviving and strengthening the heart, and invigorating the nerves.

Mrs. A. E. Martell, Rockdale, N.S., writes:—"I was troubled for a long time with my heart, had weak and dizzy spells, could not sleep, and would have to sit up the greater part of the night. At last I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and they did me so much good I got another, and after taking it I could sleep as well as before I was taken sick. They are the best medicine I ever heard of for heart or nerve trouble."

Price, 50 cents a box; 3 for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A BEAUTIFUL DISPLAY.

A visit to the large and well arranged greenhouses of John Bebbington & Sons is certainly a very pretty sight, especially this time of the year when everything is in bloom for the Christmas trade. There are seven hot-houses in all, three of which contain nothing but carnations which are arranged in rows, the entire length of the extensive building. It is a beautiful sight to see the white, red and pink flowers mingled together and blended into a floral bower displaying a regular Garden of Eden. The air is sweet with the odor of heliotrope, roses and other highly scented flowers too numerous to mention. The Scotch heather, the pride of old Scotland, is also grown in the hot-houses of Mr. Bebbington, he being the only gardener this side of Ontario to attempt to raise this beautiful and popular little plant. Palms, smilax and the Boston fern which are sold for decorating purposes this season of the year are found in large quantities in Mr. Bebbington's greenhouse. The cyclamen, a very pretty flower, is also much admired. This enterprising firm is having a cellar fitted up as a store-house for the purpose of keeping cut flowers where there is already in stock a large quantity of carnations and roses. There is also lettuce and parsley in stock for the Christmas season, which of late years is in much demand. Your attention is attracted to Mr. Bebbington's advertisement in another part of the paper. TORTURED FROM BABYHOOD

"Fruit-a-tives" Cures Constipation

Miss E. A. GOODALL

EDMONTON, ALTA., Nov. 20th. 1911

"I have been a sufferer since babyhood from that terrible complaint, Constipation. I have been treated by physicians, and have taken every medicine I heard of, but without the slightest benefit. I finally concluded that there was no remedy in the world that could cure Constipation.

About this time, I heard about "Fruit-a-tives" and decided to try them. The effect was marvellous.

The first box gave me great relief, and after I had used a few boxes, I found that I was entirely well.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine that ever did me any good and I want to say to all who suffer as I did—"Try this fruit medicine and you will find—as I did—a perfect cure."

(Miss) E. A. GOODALL
"Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit and the only one that will positively and completely cure you of Constipation.

THE DYNAMITERS

Indianapolis, Dec. 21—Upon the McNamara brothers and Orrie E. McNamagal, the confessed dynamiters, "who in the name of labor unions committed crimes against which civilization revolts, but in which labor unions took no part," Chester H. Krum, arguing to the jury in the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today, rested the responsibility for the series of explosions which the forty defendants are charged with having caused.

Mr. Krum, associated with United States Senator John W. Kern as counsel for the defence, told the jurors that the government had failed to show that President Frank M. Ryan and other officials of the Iron Workers' Union had violated the federal statute prohibiting the carrying of explosives on passenger trains and that the government had based its charges chiefly upon the admission of the dynamiters.

"It is natural that you jurors," said Mr. Krum, "who have heard the stories repeated here, addresses of counsel on the dynamite case, should have feelings of horror and indignation. Do we condemn the acts of the dynamiters? The government has characterized James B. McNamara, the destroyer of human life, at Los Angeles, as a degenerate. What in the name of God shall we call John J. McNamara? If he isn't a paranoiac there never was one. Think of it now, in the name of union labor. He directed the crime which hurled human beings and property into one red burial. We regret that such such condition could have been brought about in a civilized community."

When Mr. Krum told the jury that the statute of limitations had run against some of the acts charged, Judge Anderson interrupted him, saying:

"You tell that to the jury and I shall instruct the jury it is not the law."

Two of them less than a year old, weighed 355 and 560 respectively. Mr. Tweedie says it pays to raise pork, and if it pays to raise a few pigs, it would pay much better to raise 100 or 1,000.
